

ONE MORE OF THE PIONEER WOMEN

TELLS HER SUFFERING SISTERS TO FIND RELIEF IN DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Mrs. Forrester had Rheumatism and other Kidney Diseases for two years, but Dodd's Kidney Pills made her well.

Dinsmore, Sask., May 22 (Special)—One more of the pioneer women of Saskatchewan, relieved of pain and suffering by Dodd's Kidney Pills, has given her statement for publication in order that other suffering women may profit by her experience. This time it is Mrs. John Forrester, well known and highly respected in this neighborhood.

"My trouble started from a severe cold," Mrs. Forrester states. "My sleep was broken and unrefreshing. I perspired freely at the slightest exertion. I had pains in my back and Rheumatism developed, from which I suffered for two years.

"I do not need to tell you that I was far from being a well woman when I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. But now I am thankful to say my troubles are gone. I recommend all suffering women to use Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Suffering women can learn from the experience of others that the one sure way to health is to cure their kidneys, and Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure the kidneys.

WOMEN DISPLACE MEN.

Drive Male Employees Out of London Offices.

The most significant fact that emerges from the coronation census of the City of London, just concluded, is the startling increase in female employment offices. In the busy square mile whereon are concentrated the biggest commercial and financial interests, the women are steadily replacing men. The present day secretary invariably wears skirts. The typist looks a trim little figure in belted blouse; petticoats swish the legs of office stools.

Women are everywhere, men next to nowhere, in the modern business office. And according to those in a position to judge, every indication points to a still greater supersession of men by girls in city offices in the next ten years.

The head of the employment department of the London Chamber of Commerce, on being asked for his opinion on this state of affairs, explained that there is one great difference between the sexes in this question of office employment.

"The junior shorthand clerk is very difficult to get—of the boy kind. If a boy is a good shorthand writer, it seems to be feared that he will be always a shorthand writer. For the girl it is a very different matter. She doesn't mind becoming just a shorthand clerk."

The manager of one of the largest and oldest commercial training colleges, indorsing this statement, added: "I should not be surprised if the census figures disclose an amazing increase in female employment. We have been placing girls at the rate of 2,000 a year for some time. And these girls do very well. They fill such situations as typists, secretaries, cashiers and bookkeepers very efficiently, and there are women in London who can command salaries running well into four figures as buyers or heads of departments, controlling a number of others. A woman is worth just as much as a man—that is, she is worth what her work brings to the firm. You can go into many big offices now-a-days and see no man about the place except the managing directors or the managers; the rest are girls."

A PRETTY ROMANCE.

Stranger Well Treated Returns and Woos Cafe Keeper.

There is material for romance in an incident which has occurred at Marseilles in a little cafe kept by a young woman noted for her beauty and goodness of heart.

The cafe is close to the harbor, and is frequented by sailors, who gave the name of "Mother Marie" to the landlady. The young woman had to deal with the roughest of sailor men, but her kindness to her customers was her best protection. When they had no money, she fed them and kept them well supplied with tobacco. The sailors never imposed on her kindness, and always paid her when they received their wages.

One day a stranger of unkempt appearance entered the cafe. "Mother Marie" immediately saw to his requirements. After eating a hearty meal he was asked by the landlady whether he would smoke a cigar. His reply was that he had not any money for a cigar, nor even for the meal he had eaten. "Never mind," said the landlady, "have a cigar all the same."

A few weeks afterwards a well-dressed man appeared in the cafe and ordered food. "Mother Marie" glanced at him and recognized in him the stranger who had not paid for his entertainment.

The elegant gentleman told "Mother Marie" that he had heard of her kindness to rough sailor men and had resolved to put her to the test. He found that she was all that the sailors had represented her to be, and he added that he had returned to the cafe in order to improve his acquaintance with her.

Then he disclosed his identity. He was a count and a large manufacturer, and asked "Mother Marie" to become his wife. The "sailor friend" consented, and now the little cafe on the harbor has a new tenant.

Very many persons die annually from cholera and kindred summer complaints, who might have been saved if proper remedies had been used. If attacked do not delay in getting a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, the medicine that never fails to effect a cure. Those who have used it say it acts promptly, and thoroughly subdues the pain and disease.

Pessimist Jones—"How is it, Smith, that you look so hale and happy and well?" Optimist Smith—"Every time I sit down to worry I fall asleep."

The Oil for the Athlete.—In rubbing down, the athlete can find nothing finer than Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. It renders the muscles and sinews pliable, takes the soreness out of them and strengthens them for strains that may be put upon them. It stands pre-eminent for this purpose, and athletes who for years have been using it can testify to its value as a lubricant.

The past continually takes the form of vases into which the thought of to-day is poured.

SUCCESSFUL HOG RAISING.

Select sows from families that lead you to expect good litters of vigorous, growthy pigs. Keep proven sows as long as they do well or as long as you can control them. Feed enough to give the sows a chance, remembering that for developing themselves and their pigs a large percentage of protein is needed. Keep their bowels in order, especially at farrowing time, taking care not to feed a loosening enough diet to scour the pigs. Remember, that the development of the mammary glands depends largely on the number of pigs in first litter, and, last but not least, make the sow take care of the pigs by compelling her to stay with them a considerable part of each day.

Our past depends entirely upon our present, and changes perpetually with it.

Nothing happens to us that is not of the same nature as ourselves.

A CELEBRITY.

Mr. Jones was an excellent man, prosperous in his business and modest in his ways, but not distinguished for anything in particular. His wife, however, Mrs. Smith Jones, was a woman of rare accomplishments. She was an artist of more than ordinary ability, a brilliant pianist, and possessed a voice of remarkable sweetness and power.

At a large party one evening, at which she and her husband were present, her singing captivated a stranger who was one of the guests, and he asked to be introduced to her. His request was granted. After a few minutes' conversation the hostess came and took him away.

"You mustn't monopolize her, Mr. Simmons," she said. "I want you to meet Mr. Jones."

"Who is Mr. Jones?" "He is her husband." "What is he noted for?" "Noted for?" echoed the hostess. "Why, for—his wife!"

ZAM-BUK HEALED BABY'S SORES.

Mrs. C. Pardy, of 479 Seigneurs St., Montreal, writes:—"I cannot tell you how thankful I am for the cure Zam-Buk has worked in the case of my baby son. He was troubled with scalp disease and I tried everything I could think of, but in vain. Finally I tried Zam-Buk. I could see an improvement after two applications! After persevering with the Zam-Buk treatment he is now completely cured. Zam-Buk is certainly a wonderful ointment, and I shall always keep it on hand."

"Like father, like son," said the Knowing One. "In what way were they alike?" asked the Curious One. "First, the old man, when the boy was a child, tried to break his son's will. Now the son is trying to break the old man's."

Mrs. Mater—"Have you seen Mr. Dater's son since he got home from college?" Daughter—"Yes, ma; saw him last night." Mrs. M.—"Has he improved much?" Daughter—"Awfully. He's got a moustache."

Yarmouth, N.S. Gentlemen,—In January last, Francis Leclaire, one of the men employed by me, working in the lumber mills, had a tree fall on him, crushing him fearfully. He was, when found, placed on a sled and taken home, where grave fears were entertained for his recovery, his hips being badly bruised and his body turned black from his ribs to his feet. We used MINARD'S LINIMENT on him, freely to deaden the pain and with the use of three bottles he was completely cured and able to return to his work. SAUVEUR DUVAL, Elgin Road, L'Islet Co., Que.

NASTY BIRD.

A little four-year-old boy living in a country town disturbed and took some eggs from under a sitting hen belonging to a neighbor. The neighbor complained to the boy's mother, who later called her boy to her and began to reprove him, when he broke in with the question: "Who told you?" The mother said—"A little bird told me. Now, tell me, how many eggs did you take?" The little boy, stammering, said: "Well! Well! Why didn't the bird tell you the whole of it?"

"I suppose the servant does all the heavy work in your house?" "Not all; my wife makes the pies and puddings."
