

FARMER'S WIFE TELLS HER STORY

FOUND A CURE FOR ALL HER ILLS IN DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

She was tired, worn-out and nervous, and suffered from Rheumatism, but two boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills cured her.

Hawthorne, Ont., May 22 (Special).—Mrs. T. G. Alexander, wife of a well-known farmer living near here, adds her testimony to that of the thousands who have learned from their own experience that Dodd's Kidney Pills cure Kidney Disease.

"I suffered for twelve years," Mrs. Alexander says. "My back ached, my sleep was broken and unrefreshing. I was nervous and tired and I was troubled with heart flutterings. Rheumatism developed and added to my suffering."

"I was in a very run-down, worn-out condition when I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills, but I am thankful to say they gave me relief almost from the first. Two boxes cured me completely."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cure the Kidneys. Cured Kidneys mean that all impurities are strained out of the blood. That means pure blood all over the body and the banishment of that tired, heavy feeling and those pains and aches that impure blood brings.

A COSTLY DINNER.

A Party of Fur-hunters had a Terrible Experience.

The lives of fur-hunters in northern seas sometimes include dangerous adventures and extreme hardships. Mr. J. C. Werner and his party had a terrible experience on the island of Yetomp, an experience described in the book entitled, "In Forbidden Seas." They had built a hut with a place for the fire in the middle, and an outlet for the smoke above it in the roof. Their provisions, powder and dried otterskins were packed round the sides of the cabin. Their hunting up to Christmas time had been very successful, and they had borne the cold and discomfort with good courage.

We had arranged to celebrate Christmas in good style with a famous dinner on Christmas eve. We were all cooks, and that day every one tried to outdo himself.

It was about six o'clock in the evening. Everything was ready except the fritters, which were now about to be prepared by Jenkins, who had mixed the dough, and with a pan of boiling seal-oil was showing up his dexterity in frying them to a turn.

I don't exactly know how it began, but I believe somebody insinuated that to immerse the fritters in boiling oil was not the most palatable way to cook them.

Jenkins would not stand criticism, and the rival cooks got from words to blows, and before they were aware of it they had upset the pot of boiling oil, and in one moment the whole place was a mass of fire.

Tongues of flame shot up everywhere. Our very clothes on us were on fire. We made a rush and plunge through the frail sides of the burning cabin, grabbing the first things we got hold of in our hurried exit. Several of us escaped half-naked, and all insufficiently clothed.

By heaping up snow and pieces of driftwood under the lee of a neighboring cliff, and close to the still burning fire, we had shelter, and by using what skins we had saved we had warm beds. Of our provisions, we had saved a bag of hard bread and a few tins of preserved meat. Our rifles were gone. Of pieces of blankets and sails, we made coverings for our bodies, and we kept a good fire going day and night; but no matter how we wrapped up our feet, they were freezing, and constantly reminded us that we had no boots.

We could not expect the return of our schooner for some time, and it became a question how we could exist. The weather became very bad, snowing and blowing, and we suffered terribly.

On the twenty-ninth we were at the end of our provisions, and that night we went to bed with heavy hearts.

On the morning of the thirtieth, as we were sitting moody and disconsolate over the fire, we perceived a schooner offshore. It was our own vessel coming long before the time set to take us away from the island. By noon we were on board, squaring away for Yokohama.

Our Christmas dinner cost us about five hundred dollars each, without taking our sufferings into account; and after all, we did not have any dinner.

POOR RECOMMENDATION.

A young Scotchman living in London married a beautiful and talented Englishwoman, of whom he was justly proud. Not long after his marriage he went to Scotland on a flying trip to see an old bachelor uncle.

"Weel, Tammas, ye have gotten a wife," said the old gentleman, "now what can she do, lad?"

"Do!" echoed "Tammas." "Yes, do," repeated his uncle, firmly. "Can she sew on your buttons an' mak your porritch an' your scones?"

"Oh, no, she doesn't know how to do those things," said Tammas. "But she has the loveliest voice that you ever heard. She's a grand singer."

"Hoot, mon!" cried his uncle, indignantly. "Could you nae get a canary in Lannon?"

CURED HIS RHEUMATISM.

Yarmouth, N.S., June 2, 1908.—"I have been bothered with Rheumatism for the past year and have taken a good many kinds of medicine and found no relief for it."

"One day a friend advised me to try Gin Pills, so I did, and after taking only one box of them, I felt like a new man. I thought I would write you a few lines to let you know how thankful I feel for the relief they gave me, and would advise all sufferers from Rheumatism to get Gin Pills."

Wallie—"Gee! How the horse is runnin'!"

"Mr. Cleaver, how do you account for the fact that I found a piece of rubber tyre in one of the sausages I bought here last week?"

"My dear madam, that only goes to show that the motor-car is replacing the horse everywhere."

A Pill for All Seasons.—Winter and summer, in any latitude, whether in torrid zone or Arctic temperature, Parmelec's Vegetable Pills can be depended upon to do their work. The dyspeptic will find them a friend always and should carry them with him everywhere. They are made to withstand any climate and are warranted to keep their freshness and strength. They do not grow stale, a quality not possessed in many pills now on the market.

WORDS OF WISDOM.

Pleasure is almost anything we can't afford.

If wishes were horses there would soon be a hay famine.

Success demonstrates that it's a long head that has no turning.

A man may be a power in financial circles, and still be on the square.

It isn't enough to pay as we go. We should save enough to get back.

When we succeed it is hard work; failure is due entirely to bad luck.

Everybody who works makes work for somebody else.

The only real way to take care of "No. 1" is to see that "No. 1" is a good man.

To be happy with money you must own your money, not let your money own you.

Money goes such a long way in these times that it never can get back home again.

A girl is more enthusiastic over being married than she is over the man she is married to.

Friends are like an umbrella—when the storm comes on, you don't stop to see whether the handle is pretty or plain.

Contented people are never contentious.

WHAT GERMANY DOES.

If the Germans educate their children, giving them a systematic training in well-equipped schools until sixteen or seventeen years of age, while we leave ours in the condition indicated in the above deplorable statistics, what can be the only possible consequence? The answer to that question is clearly written for all those who have compared the two nations. It will go hard with our children, and it will go harder with our children's children, if we do not awaken to the fact that for the great majority of our people education is a mockery.

Will no man arise and insist upon the building of school for school—all big gun schools—against these Germans?

HAVE YOU A BAD SORE?

If so, remember these facts—Zam-Buk is by far the most widely used balm in Canada! Why has it become so popular? Because it heals sores, cures skin diseases, and does what is claimed for it.

Remember that Zam-Buk is at the same time healing, soothing, and antiseptic. Kills poison instantly, and all harmful germs. It is suitable alike for recent injuries and diseases, and for chronic sores, ulcers, etc. Test how different and superior Zam-Buk really is. All druggists and stores at 50c. box. Use also Zam-Buk Soap. Relieves sunburn and prevents freckles. Best for baby's bath. 25c. tablet.

A REGULAR ATTENDANT.

As the new minister of the village was on his way to evening service he met a rising young man of the place, whom he was anxious to have become a member of his church.

"Good evening, my young friend," he said, solemnly, "do you ever attend a place of worship?"

"Yes, indeed, sir; regularly every Sunday night," replied the young fellow, with a smile, "I'm on my way to see her now."

A Ready Weapon Against Pain.—There is nothing equal to Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil when well rubbed in. It penetrates the tissues and pain disappears before it. There is no known preparation that will reach the spot quicker than this magic Oil. In consequence it ranks first among liniments now offered to the public and is accorded first place among all its competitors.

Ask for Minard's and take no other.

EFFECT BUT NO CAUSE.

"So there's another rupture of Mount Vociferous," said Mrs. Partridge, as she put on her specs. "The paper tells us about the burning lather running down the mountains, but it don't tell how it got afire."

Nervous Excited Nerves.—Nervous affections are usually attributable to defective digestion, as the stomach dominates the nerve centres. A course of Parmelec's Vegetable Pills will still all disturbances of this character, and by restoring the stomach to normal action relieve the nerves from irritation. There is no sedative like them and in the correction of irregularities of the digestive processes, no preparation has done so effective work, as can be testified to by thousands.

"Paddy," said a father to his little boy, who was in the habit of telling lies, "do you know what happens to liars when they die?" "Well," said Paddy, after thinking a while, "I suppose they lie still."

REST AND HEALTH TO MOTHER AND CHILD.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for over SIXTY YEARS BY MILLIONS OF MOTHERS for their CHILDREN WILL BRING THEM TO PERFECT SUCCESS. IT SOOTHES THE CHILD, SOFTENS THE GUMS, ALLAYS ALL PAIN, CURES WIND COLIC, and is the best remedy for DIARRHOEA. It is absolutely harmless. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

WHAT HE WAS AT.

"Ha!" shouted the rich man, peering cautiously over the stairway. "I want you!"

"Well," chuckled the burglar, reaching for the silver, "I'm at your service, sir."

Hard and soft corns both yield to Holloway's Corn Cure, which is entirely safe to use, and certain and satisfactory in its action.

Moderation is one thing that is rare in the extreme.

Keep Minard's Liniment in the house.

"Why do fashions change so frequently?" "I don't know. It may be that they're trying to elude some of the people who follow them."

MALAYAN TREE DWELLERS.

Human tree dwellers are not yet extinct. A Malayan newspaper describes an interesting discovery made in South Canara. The Kudiyas, living near Mangalore, include, it appears, a clan who have become tree dwellers by necessity. They live in huts built amid palm and other tall trees in order to protect themselves against attacks of elephants and other wild beasts of the jungle. Their clothing consists of the bark of certain kinds of jungle trees, and they subsist on yams and meat. They are dark-skinned and noted for their fine physique, the women being even more muscular than the men, and one of their chief occupations is honey-gathering, a very dangerous employment, since the bees of Canara build their honey combs on the treetops often as much as 120 feet high.—Pall Mall Gazette.
