

Powles' Corners.

(Correspondence of the Gazette).
The rain that fell the first of the week was badly needed and did a great deal of good, but the clover and timothy can stand a little more.
A short time ago Mr. George Isaac purchased a young grey mare from Mr. A. Rutherford, for which he paid three hundred dollars. This is the largest sum ever paid for a farm horse in this locality.
Perrin and Cook will finish Mr. R. McGee's barn next week.
A hotel-keeper's wife in a local option village told a friend of ours that she never wanted to go back to the license system, as she was so pleased with local option.
