Not an Easy Task.

The career of the new Conservative administration that will shortly assume control of the affairs of the Dominion will be watched with more than the usual degree of interest manifested in the doings of a fresh set of rulers whenever there is a change of government. Mr. Borden and his colleagues have no easy task ahead of them, and it is freely predicted that their term of office will not be a lengthy one. The character of the campaign that preceded their accession to power is, to begin with, against them. The question of reciprocity was not argued out as it should have been. Discussion was drowned in a loud and vehement clamor that the adoption of the agreement would be disloyal, and would mean the annexation of Canada by the United States. The election being over, reciprocity will now be soberly and leisurely investigated, and the Government will be weakened by the inevitable failure of its members or supporters to produce anything better than bare assertion in support of its pre-election claims.

The navy question will also be further complicated by the Bourassa-Monk agitation, and there will be a tendency to a reaction on the part of Ontario electors when they have compared their position, as expressed at the polls, with the verdict of Quebec, and the suspicion that Quebec has really been more loyal than Ontario begins to grow into conviction.

In the meantime, there will be the necessity of keeping the country up to its present standard of prosperity without any disloyal lowering of the tariff at any point; indeed, to be consistent, the Government must raise the tariff all around and check the daily transaction of over a million dollars' worth of trade that is now taking place between the United States and Canada.

Lindsay Central Draws Record Crowd.

Lindsay Central Fair had a record crowd this season, though the fair itself was hardly as good as usual. The splendid weather no doubt helped to bring the people out. The time is ripe for an all round increase in accommodation and attractive features at the Lindsay fair. A liberal expenditure in improvements, etc., would be almost certain to prove profitable. The crowd is available, and would respond to a move for a bigger and better fair in the county town.

Millinery Openings.

At Campbell's millinery rooms, in charge of Miss Little, there is a large and varied assortment of the newest in millinery. The opening on Thursday and Friday was attended by large numbers. One of the prettiest and most admired creations was a fur felt in golden brown in hood shape, the up-turned brim caught with a handsome gold ornament which secured a spray of osprey in golden brown shades. A large black beaver hat, trimmed with clusters of white ostrich tips and black silk velvet was also admired. One of the newest shapes in a medium size had a navy blue silk velvet brim, with shirred crown of shaded blue and green tamine silk, with velvet and silk wings. A black and white toque in hood shape was very pretty, with pipings of white satin on the crown, with made wings of white satin and black velvet fastened with a jet ornament. A handsome black and cardinal turban in velvet, with black wings at the back, with black silk fringe trimmings, was also amongst the many beautiful hats shown.

Miss Washburn held her fall and winter millinery opening on Thursday and Friday, Sept. 21st and 22nd. The new models embrace the latest in large, small and medium shapes, and the newest shades in coloring. One of the handsomest hats shown was in black beaver with wide brim rolled at the back, ornamented with a large white willow plume fastened with a rhinestone buckle and velvet. A siren blue velvet toque trimmed with old gold and olive green satin ribbon, and wings of oriental embroidery in gold and chenille, was much admired. A dainty chapeau in the new pokebonnet style, in a combination of king's blue and black, was trimmed with a heron plume in black. A stunning satin hat of extremely large dimensions in paddy green was ornamented with a large black willow plume fastened with a chenille and bead ornament. One of the most admired hats was a large shape in black velvet with drooping brim and white swansdown crown with large jet buckle.

Powles' Corners.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

The Reciprocity question was settled on the 21st, and it is evident that the monopolists and manufacturers have a good deal more money than the farmers, the majority of whom supported the party opposed to Reciprocity, which was the cause of its defeat. Sometimes a change of Government turns out all right. Give Mr. Borden credit every time he deserves it.

The Methodists here intend having a fowl supper. The date is not yet fixed, but it will be soon. We are opposed to fowl suppers or tea meetings of any kind as a means of raising money for church purposes. It is a laborious way, and, in my opinion, improper.

There were quite a number from here who attended the Fair in Lindsay last Friday and Saturday, and the next time some of them ought to stay at home. By the reports we have heard, the Lindsay Hotel keepers did a big business the last two days of the Fair. We recommend local option for Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Singer, of Toronto, a few days visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. Herron.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, of Enterprise, visited at Mr. J. C. Wagon's for a few days.

PIE SOCIAL.

The Salvation Army is giving a Pie Social on Monday the 3rd of October. A good programme will be provided. Admission 10c. The proceeds will go for coal for the winter.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.

The annual anniversary services will be held on Sunday, Oct. 15th, and fowl supper on the 16th. Further particulars later. The young people's service on Sunday last was largely attended and greatly enjoyed. Beginning Sunday, Oct. 8th, Sabbath School will be held in the afternoon, instead of the morning.

Hastings Star:—The unwatering of the basin where the north end of the dam will go in was completed last week and most of the leaks stopped, so that one pump is now holding the water all right and excavating is going on rapidly. A gang of sixteen Pollocks were brought down from North Bay to take the place of the Italians who were let go a couple of weeks ago.

The dredge is still above the bridge taking out the channel there, and the big drill boat is also there finishing the drilling, while the small drill boat is working just below the lock, where there is considerable work for her. The new dump scow is almost completed at the ship-yard, and will be ready for launching in a few days.

The marine railway in front of the station is being braced up ready for the hauling out of the dredge which is being brought down from Rosedale soon, and which will be rebuilt here.

BORN.

BROCKSHIRE—At 100 Kippendavie Ave., Toronto, on Sunday, Sept. 24th, 1911, to Mr. and Mrs. Percy Brockshire, a son.

JONES—In the township of Fenelon, on Monday, Sept. 18th, the wife of Mr. Fred Jones, a son.

LAMB—In the township of Verulam, on Tuesday, Sept. 19th, 1911, the wife of Mr. John Lamb, Jr., a son.

MARRIED.

CRESSWELL—COPP.—At the home of the bride's parents, by the Rev. C. S. Lord, B. D., on Tuesday, Sept. 26th, 1911, Wm. Cresswell, of Orillia, to Lottie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Copp, of Fenelon Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Cresswell will reside in Orillia.

See "The District School at Blueberry Corners" on Fair Night at Twomey's Hall.

A GOOD POSITION

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "wireless" railway telegraphy. Since the eight-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country, there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chances of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute operates six official Institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and Wireless officials, and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Cincinnati, O., or Philadelphia, Pa.

The Central Business College of Toronto invites you to write for a copy of its curriculum if you are in any way interested in a training which will lead you into a good business appointment at a good salary. The Fall Term opens on August 28th. Address W. H. Shaw, President, Yonge & Gerrard Streets., Toronto, and mention this paper.

Let Tift cheer up. still in sight. The Fenelon Falls Library board has ordered seventy-five dollars' worth of new books from an American publishing house.
