

GRIPPE LEFT HIM A CONFIRMED INVALID

BUT HE FOUND CURE IN DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Quebec Postmaster was confined to bed when he started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills—They cured him.

Tippins, Pontiac Co., Que., Nov. 27 (Special).—Postmaster F. Tippins, of this place, who for three years has been more or less of an invalid, and who for some time was confined to his bed, is up and around again, a healthy and hearty man. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured him.

"After recovering from an attack of Grippe," the Postmaster says in telling the story of his cure. "I took a pain in my back and I suffered for nearly three years, finally getting so bad that I was confined to my bed.

"One day I told my wife to go and get me some Dodd's Kidney Pills, as that would be the last medicine I would try. After using about half the box I began to feel better, so I kept on taking them. When I had taken two boxes I was able to get up, and ten boxes cured me completely."

The principal danger of Grippe is the after effects. The way to guard against this is to strengthen the kidneys so they can strain all the dregs of the disease out of the blood. Dodd's Kidney Pills are always the last medicine anyone takes for Kidney Disease. It always cures and no other medicine is needed.

A Power of Its Own. — Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil has a subtle power of its own that other oils cannot pretend to, though there are many pretenders. All who have used it know this and keep it by them as the most valuable liniment available. Its uses are innumerable and for many years it has been prized as the leading liniment for man and beast.

AWFUL THOUGHT.

Neil—"Won't it be grand when women can vote?"

Belle—"But suppose election should come on a day when you have a fitting at your dressmaker's."

Often what appear to be the most trivial occurrences of life prove to be the most momentous. Many are disposed to regard a cold as a slight thing deserving of little consideration, and this neglect often results in most serious ailments entailing years of suffering. Drive out colds and coughs with Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, the recognized remedy for all affections of the throat and lungs.

Cholly—"Miss Jones, life without you would be, for me, a desert. What is your answer?"
Ethel—"Buy a camel!"

LONDON'S STREETS.

Polished Surface of Thoroughfares Show Great Care.

After a spell of dry weather the streets in London, England, paved with wood and asphalt, become polished to a very high degree, and the sheen upon Victoria street and Piccadilly, and some other roads, is so remarkable that at night they shine almost like ice in the glare of the lamps, writes Lord Montague in London Car.

If an unused section be observed over which motors do not run, no plush will be seen, but in the middle of the street the surface, though curiously enough, not slippery in its dry state, is polished like the floor of a ball-room, the natural effect, when one comes to think of it, of rubber and steel in juxtaposition, and the slight but continual slipping of wheels over a surface of hardwood. One effect of this polish is to make it impossible for any light or loose matter to rest upon it when there is any wind at all.

The centre of the streets has become marvellously clean, and all the horse refuse is blown into the gutters near the pavement, which, being often flushed with a trickle of water, collects most of this light and dangerous detritus which would otherwise be blown farther afield. I have often written of the Ebony Way down the Champs Elysees in Paris. We have now in London many ebony ways, but not being given as a nation to so much overlubrication as our Gallic neighbors, our roads are not as black, owing to drizzling oil on the surface. The surface of our streets is becoming more like polished ivory than polished ebony. The effect of the Road Board and its grants is already to be seen all over England in regard to the making of main roads dustless.

A FULL REPORT.

One day an 8-year-old girl, who had been taught to report her misdeeds promptly, sought her mother with an aspect of grief denoting great penitence.

"I broke a brick in the fireplace," the youngster explained, between sobs.

"Well, that isn't beyond remedy," smiled the parent, "but how on earth, child, did you do it?"
"I was pounding it with father's watch?"

THE RISE IN TEA PRICES.

One of our reporters has interviewed Mr. Melville, the chief representative of Thomas J. Lipton for Canada and the United States, who, when asked for the cause of the increase in price of tea, said: "The day of good tea at a cheap price has passed by, more particularly of British-grown teas, their increasing popularity has created a greater demand than the supply. Russia and Australia are buying tremendously of these instead of China, the consumption in Great Britain is larger than ever, the shutting out of over 15 million pounds of colored China green tea by the United States, the larger use of tea due to high coffee prices, the growth of rubber in Ceylon, the shortage in the Japan crop this year and the labor problem in tea-growing countries, all these factors account for the much higher primary markets, and the present revolution in China may mean smaller Chinese crops next year. It either means lower quality at the same prices or the same quality at higher prices, and our experience shows the public prefer the latter. The future indications are for still higher prices. Even with the advance in price, tea will still be by far the cheapest popular beverage."

WEALTH IN GERMAN PEAT.

It is proposed to utilize the immense peat deposits in northwest Germany by bringing a large part of the bogs under cultivation and converting the peat into fuel, to be employed in the development of electrical energy for agricultural purposes, as well as for supplying light and power to a number of towns situated within a radius of fifty miles. A network of canals is to be formed to drain the ground. It is estimated that the gas produced from the peat will furnish work to the amount of 600 horsepower hours for each ton and a large quantity of ammonia will be recovered.

A WARNING TO MOTHERS

No mother can expect her little one to escape all the ills of childhood, but every mother who accepts fair warning as to the treatment of these little ills can save her baby such suffering. Thousands of mothers of young children keep Baby's Own Tablets in the house—all mothers should do so. The Tablets are a never-failing cure for all the minor ills of babyhood and childhood. They can be given with perfect safety—they always do good; never harm. Constipation, indigestion, colic, simple fevers, colds, etc., all rapidly disappear under treatment with the Tablets. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Simple and Cheap Medicine.—A simple, cheap and effective medicine is something to be desired. There is no medicine so effective a regulator of the digestive system as Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. They are simple, they are cheap, they can be got anywhere, and their beneficial action will prove their recommendation. They are the medicine of the poor man and those who wish to escape doctors' bills will do well in giving them a trial.

GOOD.

"He has a good wife, hasn't he?"
"I should say so. He can always borrow money from her when he goes broke himself."

Tall Miss—"Are the Young-homes going to take a big house?"
Little Maiden—"Just a five room house for themselves and a warehouse for their wedding presents."

Away With Depression and Melancholy.—These two evils are the accompaniment of a disordered stomach and torpid liver and mean wretchedness to all whom they visit. The surest and speediest way to combat them is with Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which will restore the healthful action of the stomach and bring relief. They have proved their usefulness in thousands of cases and will continue to give relief to the suffering who are wise enough to use them.

DON'T LET THAT COUGH ROB YOU OF SLEEP

You probably know all too well how it goes. Just as you doze off, the tickling starts in your throat. A gentle cough, still asleep. A harder cough, and then another. First thing you know, you're wide awake, coughing your head off.

A few nights of that and you're so worn out and weakened that the cough takes a tight grip on you.

But why endure it?
Na-Dru-Co Syrup of Linseed, Licorice and Chlorodyne will soothe that exasperating tickling, loosen the phlegm and cure the inflammation of the mucous membrane. It not only stops the cough quickly, allowing you to get sound, refreshing sleep, but it goes to the root of the trouble and drives out the cold completely. Children willingly take Na-Dru-Co Syrup of Linseed, Licorice and Chlorodyne, because it tastes so good. Your Druggist has it or can quickly get it for you in 25c. and 50c. bottles. BONDS PAY BETTER INTEREST ON YOUR MONEY

In point of security and interest return, the small investor in bonds is on the same footing as the institution or individual with thousands or tens of thousands to invest. Until Bonds in their present form were devised, it was not an easy thing to find an investment, safe, easily convertible into cash, and simple in form, and yielding as high as 6 per cent. interest.
It is a matter of importance to you to know that we generally have on hand bonds in denominations of $100 and upwards, paying interest of from 4½ to 6 per cent.
These are seasoned securities, bonds that have demonstrated their ability to pay interest and principal.
If you have any money, no matter what the amount, earning less than this, you should ask us how to re-invest it in a way to afford better interest with as good, or better security.

BURGLAR-PROOF SAFES NOW.

It is stated that Messrs. Krupp, of Essen, Germany, are now manufacturing a type of steel for safes which resists the action of quick-cutting drills and breaks the best bits like glass. It is equally proof against the blow-pipe. To cut it in this way a length of time is required not at the disposal of the burglar. To cut a plate 40 mm thick with a blow-pipe it takes six to fourteen hours, 12,000 litres of hydrogen and 13,000 of acetylene. This would involve the conveyance of six steel cylinders of compressed gas, each weighing 70 kilos., which is presumably beyond the resources of the average burglar at any rate.
