A Merry Christmas.

The Gazette wishes all its readers a merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year.

How the Mighty May Fall.

From the Western Clarion.

The Citizen, a weekly paper published within smelling distance of False Creek, has lofty and penetrating ideas on affairs of state. It offers as one vital reason why we are well rid of the Laurier administration the fact that some lobsters were sent overboard around here somewhere with their claws wired. The lobsters were to be "planted," but the slave immediately on the job forgot to take the wires off their claws. This was while Laurier was in power, and therefore, according to the two-bit ideas of corner-grocery journalism, he is responsible.

We have two reasons for noticing so small a cinder in the public eye as the Citizen, and we state them as a sort of apology to our readers. One is that we need a little relaxation, and are tired of studying the habits of cockroaches in restaurants. The other reason is the powerful suspicions it arouses as to the real causes for great happenings and the movements of prominent men.

For instance, who knows but that the real reason for Balfour's resignation is a long series of neglectful oversights in the feeding of a pet canary? Or that Charles the First was beheaded because a page of his mislaid a housemaid's broom? England may have lost her American Colonies because George III did n't tip a groom in Scotland! How do we know that the war of 1812 was not the work of a careless manicurist? Thus there are possibilities in the products of even the minutest intellect.

A Wrong Impression.

A report has somehow gained currency that tickets are not issued for the winter months for the public library. The rumor is probably due to the fact that a few years ago the Board decided to discontinue issuing six months' tickets, and since that time tickets for three months at fifty cents have been issued, and for the year at $1.00. One of the three months' tickets makes an acceptable Christmas gift. A number of new books have recently been added to the library, and another consignment will be ordered the beginning of the new year.

Honey Crop of Ontario.

The annual honey crop in Ontario is worth one and a half million dollars, and ten thousand persons from Point Pelee to the Cobalt regions, and further north, are engaged in the business of producing it, keeping three hundred thousand hives of bees for the purpose. Even then it is doubtful if more than one quarter of the available nectar is ever gathered by the bees. And although honey prices are advancing every year, not one tenth of the honey is consumed in Ontario homes that our people are capable of eating.

The industry is being developed by the educational methods now being used by the Department of Agriculture. The successful organization work culminated last month in the biggest annual convention of beekeepers Toronto ever saw. The next event is a Bee Short Course at the Ontario Agricultural College, Jan. 9th to 20th 1912. This course is free to all who are interested, and every session from beginning to end will be full of information on the care of bees and how to make money from them.

During this course Mr. Morley Pettit, Provincial Apiarist, will give a series of demonstrations and illustrated lectures covering all the main features of practical management in a way that will be helpful to experienced beekeepers and beginners as well. Lectures will also be given on allied subjects by other members of the teaching staff, and a few expert bee specialists will be brought in from outside to tell how they have made a success in their special lines, such as queen bees, the production of beeswax, etc.

Special time will be devoted each day to the discussion of practical topics by members of the class, and one whole day will be set aside for a Conference on Foul Brood.

There are no fees and no examinations. Reduced rates on the railways. Full information and a program may be obtained by addressing G. C. Creelman, B.S.A., O. A. C. College, Guelph.
