The Fenelon Falls Gazette

Friday, December 29, 1911

Dr. Sims Again Reeve—Six Candidates for Council.

At the nomination meeting on Friday last, Dr. Sims and Dr. Gould were nominated for the reeveship of Fenelon Falls for the year 1912, and ten names were handed in as candidates for councillor, Messrs. F. C. Taylor, Thomas Poulson, J. H. Stanton, A. Tiers, Thos. Cashore, J. S. Northey, Dr. Gould, W. T. Robson S. Corbett and Lewis Deyman. Of these Messrs. Taylor, Poulson, Northey, Tiers, Corbett and Deyman qualified, and will be in the contest on Monday next. For commissioner, Messrs. W. Burgoyne and Geo. Martin were nominated, and are in the field. W. H. Kearns, Dr. Johnstone, J. H. Stanton and H. J. Townley were nominated as school trustees. Mr. Townley retired, leaving the other three elected.

In the township of Somerville there are three candidates for the reeveship, Messrs. Samuel Carew, Alexander Morrison and James Wilson. Five councillors are in the field, Messrs. Thomas Byrne, John L. Davis, Thomas Hunter, Wm. Hoskins and John McFarlane.

Mr. Duncan Tolmie is again reeve of Fenelon township, and last year's councillors were re-elected by acclamation.

St. Andrew's Christmas Tree.

The annual Christmas tree for the children of St. Andrew's Church was enjoyed by many of the adult members of the congregation as well. A suitable program was rendered, during which Miss A. I. Dickson gave a short talk on child life in China, after which, for the entertainment of the children, she sang one or two familiar children's hymns in Chinese. At the close of the program the chairman, Rev. Mr. Lord, requested the superintendent to come to the platform; whereupon the following address was read by Mr. Lord.

Dear Mr. Sutherland,—
We your co-workers and pupils of St. Andrew's Church and Sabbath School beg the privilege in this formal way of thanking you for your persistent efforts on behalf of both Church and Sunday School. We know that your motives are so disinterested and your dispoisit on so retiring that anything like public recognition is disagreeable to you, nevertheless in justice to our sense of gratitude we are compelled to ask you to allow us to voice the sentiment of the whole congregation and to assure you of our deep sense of obligation for your untiring and much appreciated labors in the many years gone by.

Your work as teacher we greatly value, but it is your manly Christian character that we chiefly prize, your uniform courtesy and boundless patience is to us a constant incentive to a higher life and a better performance of our own duties; we fear that in much you have found us remiss, but apologizing for the past, we hope to yield you a more loyal co-operation in the days to come. We ask you to accept this ring, not at all because of its intrinsic value but in the hope and with the prayer that as it is symbolical of the affectionate unity existing at the present time in the Church and in the Sabbath School, so may it be the promise of united service here for many years and bye and bye, union where discord never comes, eternal in the heavens.

Signed,—Rev. C. S. Lord teacher A. B. C. Mrs. Fred W. Warren Mrs. J. S. Northey Mrs. G. S. Lord Fanny C. Brandon Mrs. M. H. Chambers Kate M. Dickson.

Little Miss Annie Bryans then stepped forward and presented Mr. Sutherland with an engraved signet ring from the Sunday School, Mr. Sutherland acknowledged the gift in a few well chosen and felicitous sentences.

The tables, however, were unexpectedly turned when, after the distribution of gifts by Santa Claus, who seemed very "fit" in spite of his strenuous labors at this season, Mr. Sutherland requested Rev. Mr. Lord to come to the platform. Some apprehension was felt for Mr. Lord's welfare, when Mr. Sutherland announced his intention to cane him. This soon subsided, for the said cane proved to be a gold headed one expressive of the unity and good will existing between Mr. Lord and his session, which Mr. Sutherland was representing. Mr. Lord acknowledged the gift most gracefully, heartily reciprocating the expressions of good will and harmony of spirit existing between the session and himself. Thus a happy evening was brought to a fitting close.

Mr. John Patterson's little daughter, about a year old, met with a painful accident on Sunday, the end of the fourth finger of one of her hands being completely pinched off by a door closing on it. The little patient is progressing favorably.

Powles' Corners.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

There has been a good deal of Canadian history in the year just closing—1911. Canada receives a new Governor-General, the son of Queen Victoria and the uncle of King George. The long regime of Sir Wilfrid Laurier comes to an end, and a Conservative Prime Minister takes the work. The Ontario Legislature is dissolved, and the Opposition takes a new leader. The census has been taken, and Canada is found to have made more progress in the last ten years than she made in the previous thirty. Reciprocity is defeated, the township of Fenelon pays a dog tax, about sixty bar-rooms were closed by local option, and there was scarcely any sleighing for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Parrish, of Lindsay, spent Christmas at Mr. J. C. Parrish's.

Mr. N. C. Hart, of Toronto, is spending part of his holidays in this locality.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Powles and family spent Christmas at Mr. Thos. Greaves's, in Eldon.

There was a very large family gathering at Mr. Thos. H. Daniel's, and another at Mr. Noble Perrin's, and still another at Mr. M. Herron's.

Miss Myrtle Powles will leave here for Chicago on the 29th. She takes with her the good wishes of a large circle of friends.

Four members of Mr. W. Chidley's family spent Christmas in Toronto.

See that the Weekly Sun, the one paper that fights the farmers' battles, is among those you subscribe for. It gives its readers the unvarnished facts, not the biased opinions of political leaders, expressed for party purposes, and will help you in your business. The postmaster at Powles' Corners can get it for you at a reduced price.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Moore, of Cresswell, and Mrs. E. McNeil, of Lindsay, spent Christmas at the homestead of Mr. and Mrs. John Moore.

Some of the young people in this community spent Christmas night at a dance at Mr. John Sutton's.

Christmas should be held more sacred. If it is a good thing to close the bars on Christmas Day, why not close them every day in the year.

DHEIL'S POINT TRIAL.

The case in regard to the disputed ownership of Dheil's Point was given a hearing at Lindsay on Friday, when a number of witnesses were examined. Decision was reserved; the case to be argued in chambers at Toronto.
