Premier Whitney Announced Terms of Dominion Government's Order

Sir James Whitney announced in the Legislature the results of an order delivered by the Dominion Government, giving the Province running rights through her sister Province, and certain parcels of tax-free land on the Nelson River and along the Hudson Bay itself. Sir James Whitney briefly explained the Federal order before reading its text. Approach to Hudson Bay is gained by a five-mile strip of land running from the proposed new boundary of Manitoba to the Nelson River, and terminating in a half-mile strip of land along the eastern shore of the Nelson River and the Hudson Bay. Provision is hereby made for railway terminals, docks, and elevators; but the extent of these strips along the river and bay must not be greater than ten miles.

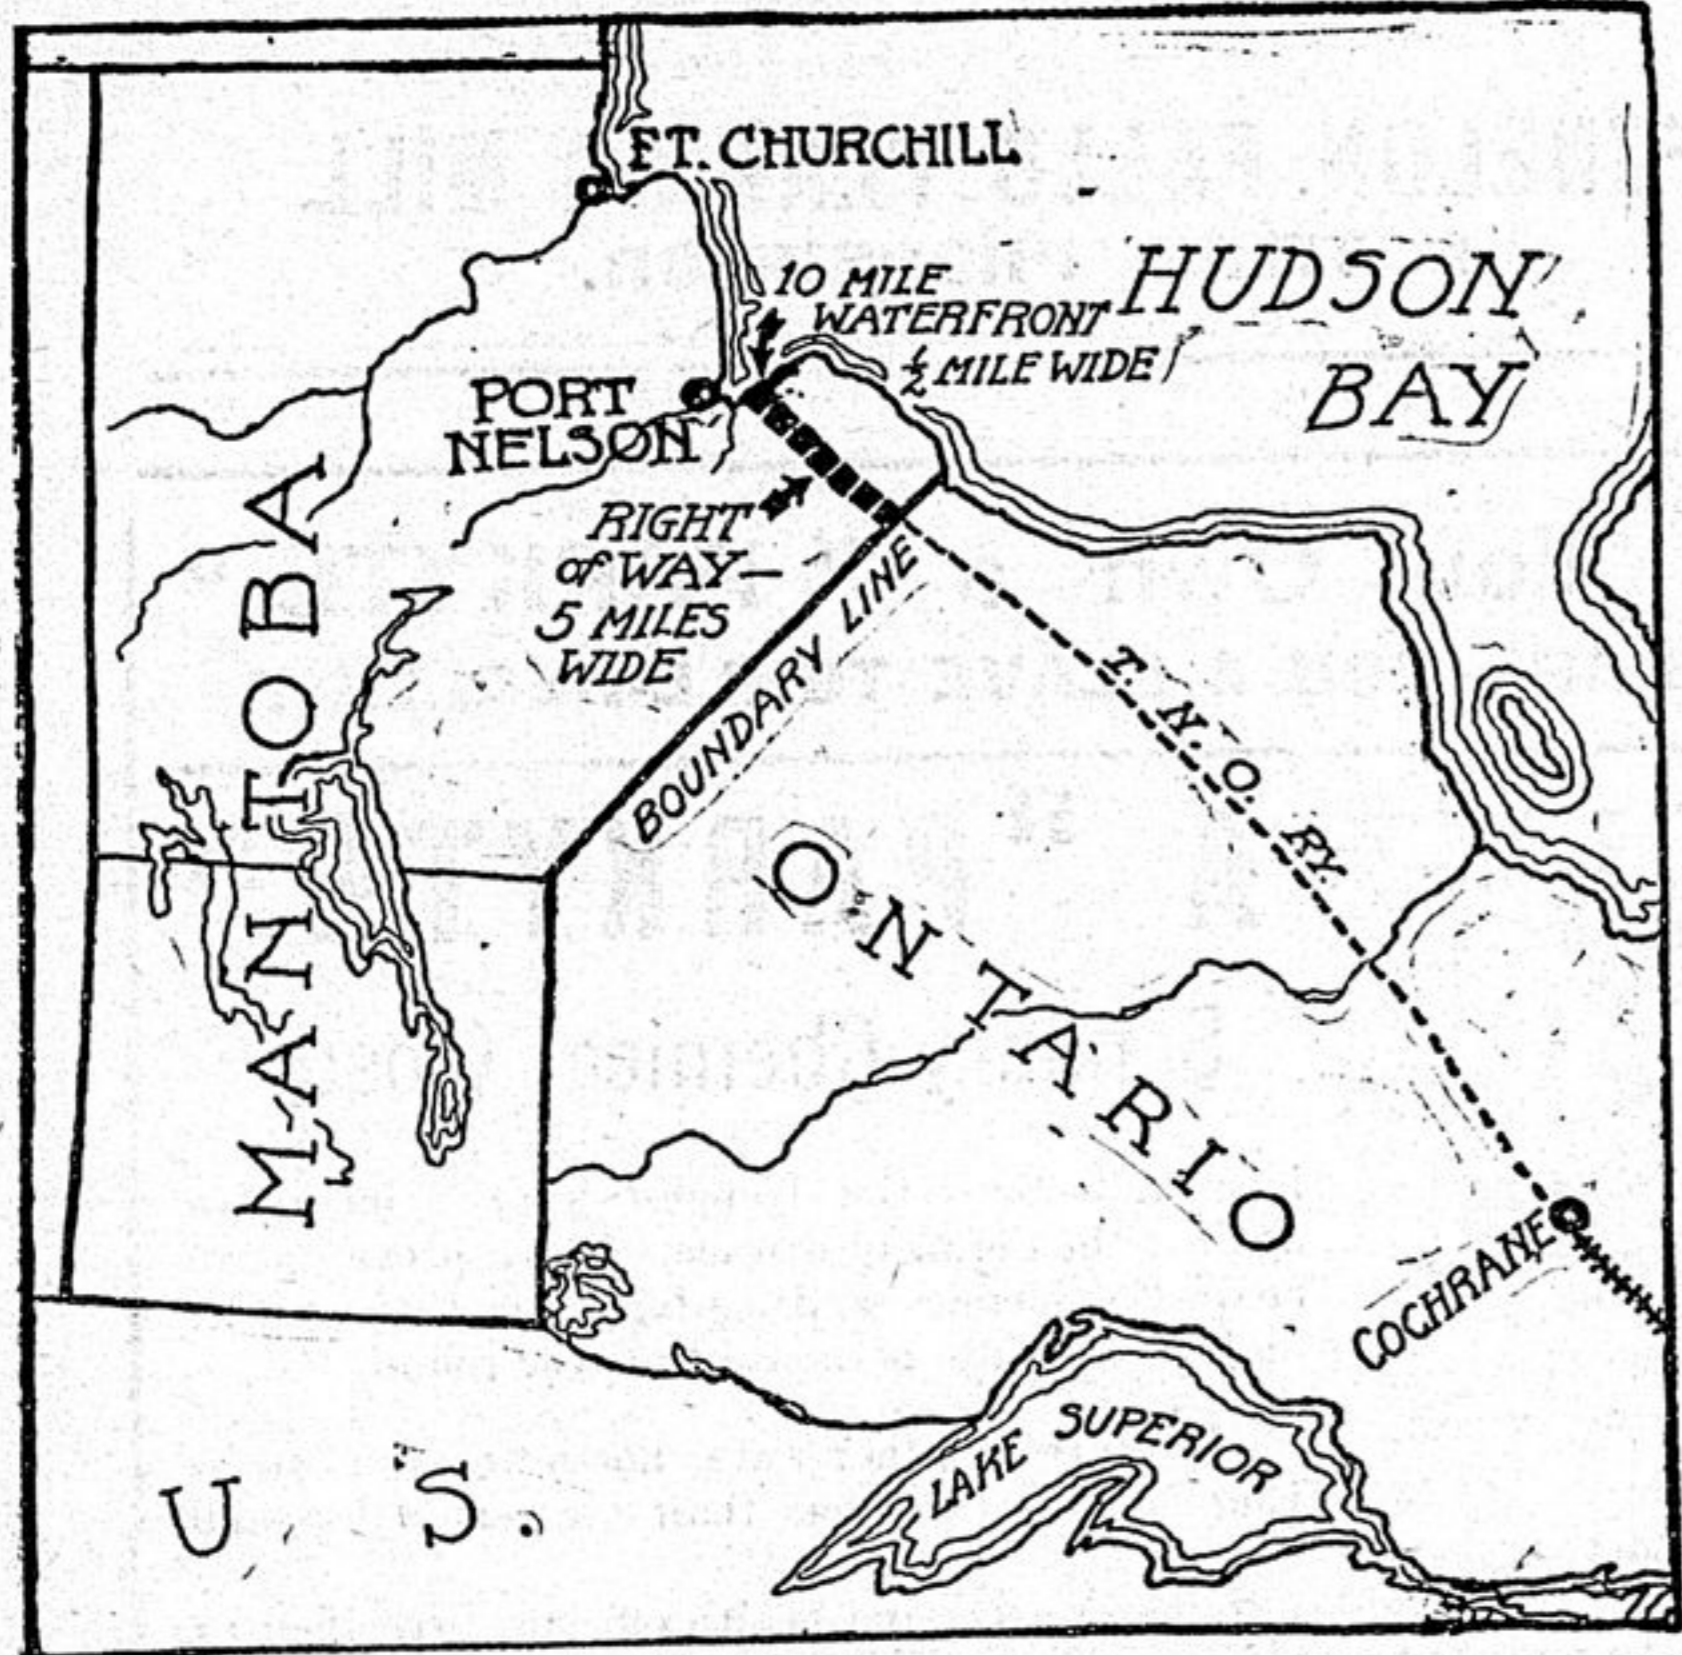

Access is thus given to Hudson

Bay for the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway; and should this railway desire to extend its terminal facilities to Fort Churchill, an additional right of way 200 feet in width from Nelson River to the nearest available point on the Hudson Bay Railway is granted. The T. and N. O. would then be granted running rights to Fort Churchill for the remaining distance over the Hudson Bay line by the Dominion authorities.

The strip from the boundary to the Nelson River will be transferred to Ontario either by grant or by statute upon the Provincial Government making known the location preferred, providing that location is not more than fifty miles from the shore of Hudson Bay at any point.

For the selection of these lands Ontario is allowed a period of five years.

HON. EDWARD BLAKE DEAD.

Ontario Loses a Distinguished Native-Born Son.

A despatch from Toronto says: Hon. Edward Blake, K.C., LL.D., died at his home, 449 Jarvis street, shortly before 7 o'clock on Friday night after a lingering illness. About two weeks ago Mr. Blake's condition took a change for the worse. He sank rapidly, and Friday afternoon it became apparent that the end was near. Dr. Wm. Goldie, who was in attendance, summoned the members of the family to the bedside of the distinguished Canadian. Mr. Blake lost consciousness about half an hour before death. As he breathed his last he was surrounded by his wife, Mr. Hume Blake, K.C., a son, Mrs. (Prof.) G. M. Wrong, a daughter, and Dr. Goldie. Mr. Samuel Blake, another son, is at present in England, and was advised of his father's decease by cable.

Nearly 2,000 workmen are on strike in Toronto.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

Read this proof of what Copeland's Cure for Consumption will do for those afflicted with the white plague:

Dear Sir,—I have been troubled with my lungs for a long time. Doctors and all medicines did me no good. My say is that your Cure has done me the world of good. I will answer any correspondence, or recommend it to any one suffering from Consumption, knowing what it has done for me.

Yours truly,
D. McEACHERN,
Manager Rogers Lumber Co.,
Lang, Sask.

I am receiving letters daily like the above from persons who have been given up by doctors, and tried all other medicines without avail. This cure for consumption, weak or bleeding lungs, lingering coughs and bronchitis can be taken on the most delicate stomach, on which it acts as a tonic. Price $1 per bottle; 6 for $5.

PLAN LONG TOUR.

Connaughts to Journey in Canada From Coast to Coast.

A despatch from Ottawa says: An extensive tour of Canada next summer is being arranged by the Duke and Duchess of Connaught. They will visit the horse shows in Montreal and Toronto in May, then visiting London and Guelph. The Duke will also open the Ottawa horse show. In August the Maritime Provinces will be visited, with stops at St. John, Halifax, and Charlottetown. Most of the trip will be made on a Government steamer, and there will be a few days' fishing at the Strathcona Lodge at Tebeque, N.B. After his Royal Highness opens the Toronto Exhibition, the Royal party will leave for the West, stopping first at Winnipeg, and proceeding to Vancouver, Victoria and Prince Rupert.

CHINESE TROOPS MUTINY

Thrilling Experiences in Pekin.—Missionaries Holding Out in Compounds

A despatch from Pekin says: A mutiny of Yuan Shi Kai's soldiers started in Pekin at 8 o'clock on Thursday night. Many of the natives have been killed or wounded, but so far as is known all foreigners are safe. The Legation quarter is crowded, but the missionaries are holding forth in their own compounds. When the outbreak occurred it was estimated that 2,000 soldiers took part, but since then the mutineers have been augmented by large numbers of the police, coolies and loafers. The Legations know no reason for the outbreak. The idea is expressed that Yuan Shi Kai's soldiers began the trouble when they learned that he intended to leave the capital for Nanking. The soldiers are everywhere looting from house to house. They have not spared even the foreign residences within one block of the Legation quarter.

Fires were started in various sections, and territory of more than a mile in area has been burned. This stretches from the Forbidden City to the building of the Chinese Foreign Board, where Yuan Shi Kai resides, the flames reaching within half a mile of the Legations. The quarters occupied by the Nanking delegates who came here to notify Premier Yuan of his election as President have been enveloped in flames. Much reckless shooting has occurred, and one shell, which fell into the compound of the American Legation, tore through a tent of one of the soldiers of the recently-arrived reinforcements, but did not explode. Refugees at the American Legation had thrilling experiences as they traversed the streets in which the Chinese troops were engaged in looting. The soldiers did not attempt to interfere with them, but there was great danger from flying bullets and fire brands, which were flourished in all directions. Mr. W. D. and Mrs. Straight saved their records and valuables, but deserted a richly-furnished house, which was given over to the looters.

A WOMAN DOCTOR.

Was Quick to Discover What Was Doing the Mischief.

A lady tells of a bad case of coffee poisoning (Tea is equally harmful, because it contains caffeine—the same drug found in coffee) and tells it in a way so simple and straightforward that literary skill could not improve it.

"I had neuralgic headaches for 12 years," she says, "and have suffered untold agony. When I first began to have them I weighed 140 pounds, but they brought me down to 110.

"I went to many doctors and they gave me only temporary relief. So I suffered on, till one day, a woman doctor advised me to drink Postum. She said I looked like I was coffee poisoned.

"So I began to drink Postum, and gained 15 pounds in the first few weeks and am still gaining, but not so fast as at first. My headaches began to leave me after I had used Postum about two weeks—long enough, I expect, to get the coffee poison out of my system.

"Now that a few months have passed since I began to use Postum, I can gladly say that I never know what a neuralgic headache is like any more, and it was nothing but Postum that relieved me.

"Before I used Postum I never went out alone; I would get bewildered and would not know which way to turn. Now I go alone and my head is as clear as a bell. My brain and nerves are stronger than they have been for years." Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont.

"There's a reason," and it is explained in the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.
