

ALONG THE LINE OF C.N.O. RAILWAY

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS WORK WONDERFUL CURE.

Mrs. Ed. Lloyd, Weak and Worn and Wracked with Pain Found Relief and Cure in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Ardbeg, Ont., March 18 (Special)—"Dodd's Kidney Pills have done wonders for me," so says Mrs. Ed. Lloyd, wife of a well-known farmer living on the line of the C. N. O. Railway near here.

"I was so weak I could hardly walk around," Mrs. Lloyd continues, "I suffered from female weakness and kidney trouble. My heart troubled me so that at times I would almost pant with the palpitations. I was treated by the doctor, but he could give me no relief. 'I was sick all over when I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills, Rheumatism, Lumbago and Neuralgia adding to my sufferings. But Dodd's Kidney Pills helped me almost at once. After taking eight boxes I was completely cured.'"

Naturally Mrs. Lloyd wants other suffering women to know how she found a cure, and Dodd's Kidney Pills will do for other sufferers just what they did for Mrs. Lloyd, make new women of them.

A SCOTSMAN BLOWING.

An Englishman and a Scotsman, both commercial travellers, were bragging about the firms they represented. "You may judge of the extent of our business," said the Englishman, "from the fact that we spend £215 a year in ink for our correspondence." "That's nothing," said the Scotsman. "My firm saves twice that amount yearly by not dotting its 'i's' and not crossing its 't's.'"

Bill—"How's his business going?" Jill—"Like clockwork." "Why, I heard he'd failed?" "So he has. They've just wound up his business."

WEE BIT SECRETS.

They're ainly wee bit secrets
My sweetheart telt tae me,

Doon deep in memory;
The warl' no cares fer greetin'
Aboon the little grave
Whaur sleeps as pure a lassie
As iver secrets gave.
Hooch ay! the warl' no cares.

They're ainly wee bit secrets,
An' yet nae but or ben
O' ony mem'ry, hes yin
That's half sae prized as them.
They're wi' me when I'm lonely,
An' loom up when I'm glad;
There's naething else sae cheerfu'
When life's nights are maist sad.
Hooch ay! the warl' no cares.

They're ainly wee bit secrets,
An' yet my hairt kens weel
Hoo often they've bin needed
Tae licht some gloomy spell.
They mak' an auld man hopefu',
Though ivery time fer years
I've placed a rose on Jean's grave
It's leaves were moist wi' tears.
Hooch ay! the warl' no cares.

They're ainly wee bit secrets
That keep life's ingle bricht,
They maun be winter's fuel
An' simer's sunshine licht.
I've kept them frae neebors,
Nae frien' hes iver speired,
I ken they'll a' gang wi' me
Afore a soul hes heird.
Hooch ay! the warl' no cares.

BABY TERRIBLY SCALDED.

Relieved by Zam-Buk.

Doctor Agreed Zam-Buk was "Best Possible Treatment."

Mrs. Albert Sawyer, of Midland (Ont.), says: "While living in Brantford last winter my little son spilled a vessel of boiling water over his neck. He was terribly scalded, and we immediately called in a doctor. The treatment did not seem to give the child ease or heal the terrible scalds, so after a week's trial we got some Zam-Buk and applied it. It gave the child ease almost immediately, and after a few days' use the scalds seemed to be getting along finely.

"To make quite sure that all was right, however, we called in a second doctor. He said everything was going along splendidly, the scalds were healing and the little one would soon be quite recovered. Then we told him we were using Zam-Buk, and he said we could use nothing better. Zam-Buk worked a complete cure."

Mrs. S. Smith and Mrs. J. H. Teakle, of 73 Brock St., Brantford, who knew of the above accident, and what followed, write: "We certify that these facts are true in every detail." Mothers should know that for burns, cuts, scalds, bruises, eczema, piles, and all skin diseases, there is nothing to equal Zam-Buk. Zam-Buk is obtainable from all druggists and stores 50c box, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

FOUNTAIN TOOTH BRUSH.

Hollow Handle Carries Cleansing Fluid to Bristles.

No longer will it be necessary to carry a bottle or box of tooth wash, or tooth paste, when you go away from home. All you will need will be your tooth brush—that is, if it is the tooth brush devised by a Georgia man. This little implement has a hollow handle and a hollow brush frame with slits on the under side. The handle, which has a screw cap at the outer end, is designed to contain the cleansing preparation, whether fluid or powder, and the flow of this stuff into the brush frame is controlled by a valve. When the fluid is allowed to run the frame it trickles down the bristles and the brush is all ready for use without a drop of the preparation being wasted. With the handle of this brush loaded and a clean collar a man is ready for a trip.

MAKING HOME HAPPY.

He never grumbles at his wife
Nor has to hook the waists she wears;
He lives a peaceful, happy life,
Absolved from all domestic cares;
When he gets home at 1 a.m.
No terror lingers in his heart;
Contentment dwells with both of them—
They live a thousand miles apart.

ON THE PLATFORM.

"Don't you see that sign 'No smoking'?" asked the car conductor.
"Yes," replied the inconsiderate and obstinate passenger. "And all I have to say is that the man who wrote that sign was no prophet."

An Oil That is Famous.—Though Canada was not the birthplace of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, it is the home of that famous compound. From here its good name was spread to Central and South America, the West Indies, Australia and New Zealand. That is far afield enough to attest its excellence, for in all these countries it is on sale and in demand.

To Men Who Live Inactive Lives.—Exercise in the open air is the best tonic for the stomach and system generally; but there are those who are compelled to follow sedentary occupations and the inactivity tends to restrict the healthy action of the digestive organs and sickness follows. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills regulate the stomach and liver and restore healthy action. It is wise to have a packet of the pills always on hand.
