Will Lindsay be Sidetracked?

Lindsay Post: A recent order issued by the Canadian Northern Railway in regard to the I. B. & O. railway, promises, if put into effect, to injure the town of Lindsay.
As is well known the C. N. R. acquired the I. B. & O. Railway some time ago, and according to the order referred to all shipments from Bancroft on that line must in future go via Trenton.
This is a serious blow, not only to Lindsay, but also to Fenelon Falls, and of course will be of great benefit to Toronto and other points. Those who have had occasion to travel over the I. B. & O., to and from Lindsay are in a position to know the extent of shipments over that line through and to the town. This order practically cuts us from the I. B. & O. district, and gives Toronto a lower freight rate to Gooderham than will be enjoyed by Lindsay.
This order, while only affecting Bancroft at present, is likely to go into effect all along the line unless action is taken by Lindsay. It is a serious matter, as it is a blow to the town's interests.
The town Council will meet this evening to consider the question with a view to lodging a vigorous protest. In this they will be joined by the Board of Trade, and no stone will be left unturned to have our interests safeguarded.

On Friday last Mr. Hoskins disposed of his farm stock and implements. A big crowd was present, and prices for live stock were the highest ever reached at a sale in this vicinity, fifteen cows selling at an average of $55 each and young cattle in proportion. On Monday night friends and neighbors filled his large house to overflowing, and presented Mr. and Mrs. Hoskins with two fine chairs and a couch to match. After the usual speech-making, the young folks amused themselves with dancing and other games until nearly morning. Mr. and Mrs. Hoskins will take up their abode at Burnt River, where their old friends will give them a hearty welcome.

Power from Standing Water.

Peterborough Examiner:—Mr. Spies, 132 Park Street, has solved the problem of producing power from standing water by a hydraulic motor.
The motor at first glance from an ordinary observer, is simply a galvanized tank. It is about nine feet high and three feet in diameter and is simply the water container. The mechanism is within, and while it appears to be complex at first, its simplicity is emphasized as the working is explained. The details will be given to the public at a later date, for the present only a reference to the invention can be made.
The utilizing of falling water, as for instance a fall in a river, is familiar, but to harness standing water for power purposes is a problem that has presented real difficulties. Mr. Spies has prepared what might be called a simple device after it is demonstrated. To an Examiner reported he stated that the principle is applicable for the securing of almost any amount of power. He believes it will be particularly useful in places where power from running water is not available. It can also be used in providing power for small establishments by using a tank as a water container. All that is required is to fill the tank with water after the machine has been set up, and presto, the power is produced. Mr. Spies estimates that one horse power is developed by his working model.

Canal Notes.

Hastings Star.
Captain Bonville and some of his men started on Monday to get the No. 8 dredge ready for the season's operations. Mrs. Con. Scriver is again on the dredge as cook. Capt. Shoeley, who has been with the R. M. Co. for a number of years, will not return to the No. 7 dredge this season having taken charge of the new Montreal dredge. The No. 7 dredge is getting towards completion as far as the timber work is concerned, and the tugs will soon be put in order for the season's work. The waters is the lowest it has been in years, and the ridge of rocks which were below the surface on the side of the out at low water last summer, are all showing considerably above.

International Calf Meal

It is a well-known fact that calves that are allowed to suckle their mothers develop into larger, healthier and more vigorous animals than those that are raised on skim milk alone, unless the Protein, Sugar and Fat that is removed in the form of cream is replaced. This can be done at a small cost by the use of INTERNATIONAL CALF MEAL which contains just the proper proportions of Protein, Carbo Hydrates and Fats to produce the Ideal Calf food when mixed with skim milk according to our directions.

International Stock Food

Is a good thing to feed your stock in the spring. Acts just like a spring tonic does on a man. It saves its cost many times over. It improves digestion and gives life, strength and vigor and tones up horses and cattle in great shape.
