Would Stock Lakes with Trout.

Peterborough Examiner.

The stocking of the back lakes with Rainbow Trout is a proposition that is meeting with considerable favour among local citizens. A bulletin has been issued by the Department at Ottawa, in which the terms under which these fish can be procured from the Ottawa hatcheries are clearly set forth, and it only requires a little influence on the part of the authorities to set the ball rolling, which would culminate in the desires of the local "Izaak Walton" being realized. If the project materializes, the fish will be secured from the hatcheries in lots of twelve thousand, and will be placed in Gull Lake, Catchakoma Lake, Stoney Lake, and one or two others during the ensuing year. The salmon trout have inhabited these waters for many years, especially Lake Simcoe, which is famous for the toothsome trout which it contains.

A FISH TRUST.

Speaking of Lake Simcoe, the following extract from the Beaverton Express, refers to the alleged existence of a fish trust, as follows:

"Fishing has not been as productive or profitable this winter, as usual. Somehow the toothsome trout for which Lake Simcoe is famous, have been very coy, and although the fishermen have been numerous and vigilant as ever, their efforts did not appear to uncover the particular haunt of the fish until some two weeks ago, when a 'run' set in which produced a very considerable catch. The price of fish has steadily increased of late years, from 5 cents to 10 cents retail, or 8 cents on the ice. 'This, it is understood, is the result of a sort of combine into which those who frequent the ice for fishing have to enter whether they wish to or not, or be penalized by various means, which puts them out of business. 'This violent interference with the laws of trade does not look well on the part of the fishermen who have recently been given the privilege to use the spear in their work and who now proceed to 'hold up' the public in the price of their catch."

C. N. R. Line Through Victoria County.

Lindsay Post: Mr. James McCaughey, of Uphill, was in town on Friday and the Post had a short conversation with him in reference to the survey work being carried on by the C. N. R. in Dalton and Laxton townships.

Mr. McCaughey was informed by a member of the surveying party that the new line would be built as a grain route, although it is hinted that the C. N. R., being fully alive to the importance of the highlands of Ontario as a tourist centre, is anxious to tap the Haliburton county, which is a paradise for tourists and hunters.

The C. N. R. line at present runs from Port Severn through Washago, and will branch off through Victoria county to Kilmount, and tap the I. B. & O. railway. The C. N. R. intends to completely overhaul the L. B. & O. line this summer.

Those in charge of the survey work in this county are at present in the vicinity of Head Lake. The proposed line will be as straight as possible, with a perfectly level grade.

It is felt by some that the construction of this line means the loss to Lindsay of considerable trade, which will be diverted towards Orillia.

Curlers' Banquet.

The local curlers wound up a very pleasant and successful winter's sport with a banquet on Friday evening at the McArthur House. The spread was served in host Aldous's usual excellent style, and was done ample justice to by a large representation of the brothers of the stone and besom. Speeches followed, in which the winter's doings were reviewed with general satisfaction. The competition for the new Mason shield, and the bonspiels of married vs. single, Grit vs. Tory, and north vs. south, added a good deal of interest to the game this season. The club also did well in winning the Bobcaygeon—Stanton cup and the Mason shield from Bobcaygeon, and the McFayden—McDiarmid cup from Lindsay, the latter win being the first from Lindsay in some years. The club will be out for the Ontario Tankard next year strong.

Sales Totalled $60,000.

Mr. Thos. Cashore informs the Gazette that this spring his sales of farm stock and implements have totalled $60,000. The successful outcome of the sales is in a measure due to Mr. Cashore's well-known ability as an auctioneer, but as only two of the men who have had sales are leaving this neighborhood, the amount realized also indicates that the farmers here have been getting along pretty well during the past few years.

St. James' Church.

Easter Day is the crowning day of the church's year in the Church of England, and the services are always bright and singularly attractive. On this day every member of the church is supposed to present himself at the Holy Communion. Easter Sunday is also the closing day of the financial year, and the day when Lenten self-denial offerings are presented. The services at St. James' Church will be as usual—service, special sermon and Holy Communion at 10.30 a. m. and service and special sermon in the evening at 7 p. m.

W. F. M. S. Meeting.

The W. F. M. S. of St. Andrew's Church, will be held in the Sunday School room, on Tuesday, April 9th, at 3 p. m. A large attendance is requested.

Accidents.

On Monday evening about 5.30 Mrs. Pearson, who is 92 years of age, slipped and fell on the hill on John St., near the Catholic Church, and sustained a fracture of the left thigh. She was taken to Dr. Graham's, where the injury was attended to. Considering Mrs. Pearson's advanced age, she is doing as well as can be expected.

On Monday Gordon Fisk, the young son of Mr. Jos. Fisk, Verulam, while sleigh-riding down hill, by some means got his left leg under the sleigh with the result that the ankle was broken. Dr. Johnstone was called, and set the broken limb, and the patient is getting along nicely.

WM. ABBOTT IMPROVING.

At present writing Mr. Wm. Abbott, who was so seriously injured last week, is reported to be improving, and is expected to recover.

WON WALKOVER AT CAMROSE.

A rink skipped by E. A. Pearce, of Camrose, Alberta, won the Walkover competition in the Camrose bonspiel a few days ago, their opponents being the runners up in the principal event, the Grand Challenge, the score in which was 8-7. As "Ernie" was always one of the good ones here, his success at the roaring game in his new field was to have been expected.

Powles' Corners.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

Mr. Thos. Harrison has to go to Toronto this week to be treated by an eye specialist.

The snow is not melting away very fast. Surely the fall wheat and clover will come out good. Some places the fall wheat may smother out.

Quite a number from around here attended the funeral of Mrs. Elias Hoocy last Tuesday.

Mr. Hugh Milloy is home from Lindsay with a slight attack of typhoid fever. Dr. Johnstone of Fenelon Falls was out last Tuesday.

The hog market in Fenelon Falls can't be as brisk now as this time last year. On the 26th of March and on Tuesday of this week there was not a pig passed through here.

The farmers around here are securing their men for six or seven months. The wages will likely be about the same as last year. With the high cost of living, board and wages will be quite an item.

Mr. A. McGee's credit sale on the 27th was numerously attended. The live stock brought fancy prices, considering the scarcity of feed of all kinds.

Every community ought to have two very essential organizations—the church and the Grange. These are the farmers' best friends and should receive his hearty support. So says the Farm Journal of Philadelphia. The F. J. doesn't mention the beef ring or a family compact. We have them.

Those who are opposed to Local Option at Fenelon Falls should look at the Daily Globe of April 2nd, page 11, and see what local option is doing in Newmarket, not only in that town but others. The Rowell temperance policy or platform is approved by both political parties, those who know what an awful curse the liquor traffic has proved to be.

Mr. W. Day of Jordan Station was visiting his parents here for a week.

An Irishman in our town went up to the bar in a hotel and called for a glass of beer. The bartender set down the glass of beer and the Irishman said he wanted a glass of whisky. The bartender brought the glass of whisky and set it alongside of the beer, and the Irishman took the glass of whisky and dumped it into the beer and when he had drunk it the bartender asked, "Why did you do that?" The Irishman replied, "If I drink beer and nothing but beer I get full before I get drunk; and if I drink whisky and nothing but whisky I get drunk before I get full; so I put my whisky and beer together and I get drunk and full at the same time."

Howledale, Sask.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

Prairie life in the wild and woolly west is not wholly destitute of the pleasures of civilization.

The Misses Umphrey have been taking organ lessons during the winter months, and the organ selections by these enterprising and progressive young ladies have been enjoyed by all. From breakfast until bedtime, regardless of the cold weather, the thermometer ranging from zero to 52 below.

The Hill Bros. are busy erecting a new dwelling house, and are being assisted by Umphrey Bros. T. Radford and Victor Umphrey are boring a well for Hill Bros.

Things are booming in this section of the country.

FLEET SOLD EN BLOC.

Peterborough Examiner: The probability of the sale of the Otonabee Navigation Company's fleet en bloc is reported good, there being a number who are interested in the proposition. The likelihood of the sale is more pronounced, and any day now it may be put through.

AN EXPERIMENT.

Beaverton Express: Eden Creamery, Beaverton, last week placed an order with Mr. G. Evans, of town, for a motor cream gathering wagon for use in this section. The company believe it will prove not only economical but expeditious in service, and more in line with the up-to-date methods which now prevail in this locality. The machine will travel twenty miles an hour without injury to the cream or risk to the driver.
