

WOMEN IN ALL PARTS OF CANADA

TELL OF THE HEALTH DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS BRING.

They Made a New Woman of Mrs. Eli Amiraull who was a Victim of Kidney Disease for over a Year.

Amiraull's Hill, Yarmouth Co., N.S., March 25 (Special)—"Four boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills made a new woman of me." Those are the words of Mrs. Elie Amiraull of this place. They are words that have been used again and again by women in all parts of Canada who have suffered, and who have found relief and cure in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I suffered for over a year from kidney disease," Mrs. Amiraull continues. "Nothing I tried helped me. At last some one told me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. Before I had finished the first box I felt better. Four boxes made a new woman of me."

No remedy ever given to the public has brought health and happiness into the lives of so many women as Dodd's Kidney Pills. This is because nine-tenths of the ills to which women are subject come from diseased kidneys. No woman who uses Dodd's Kidney Pills can have diseased kidneys. They always cure the kidneys.

MAKING PROGRESS.

"How are you getting on at school, Johnnie?"

"Very well; I'm second now."

"Second! Good! How many are there in the class?"

"Me and a little girl."

Why persist in being imposed upon by buying poor trashy alum baking powder when you can just as well buy Magic Baking Powder, the health giving "No Alum" brand at the same price? Sixteen ounces for twenty-five cents. At all Grocers.

The woman of the hour is the one who says she'll be ready in a minute.

Requisite on the Farm.—Every farmer and stock-raiser should keep a supply of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil on hand, not only as a ready remedy for ills in the family, but because it is a horse and cattle medicine of great potency. As a substitute for sweet oil for horses and cattle affected by colic it far surpasses anything that can be administered.

Every woman would like to help the poor and every man would like the poor to help him.

Specialist Did Skin Trouble No Good

Very Itchy and Disfiguring. Got a Little Cuticura Soap and Ointment and Was Cured.

"For two summers I suffered with skin trouble on my arms, and on my legs from my knees down. My arms were badly disfigured, and I kept them covered. It came like the hives, and was very itchy. I consulted a specialist, who gave me medicine, as well as an ointment, but seemed to do no good. It was beginning to appear on my face."

"I got a little Cuticura Ointment and some Cuticura Soap. The first touch of Ointment seemed to relieve, and before the Cuticura Ointment was finished I was cured. I have not the least sign of trouble. I think it would have spread over my whole body if Cuticura Soap and Ointment had not cured me. I am delighted with them, and do feel pleased to think I have something I have confidence in. I tell all my friends about them, and I think Cuticura Ointment is the best I ever saw." (Signed) M. J. Boddy, 73 McCaul St., Toronto, Dec. 22, 1910.

Cold-Sore Began to Heal With First Use of Cuticura Ointment.

"Cuticura Ointment cured a very bad cold-sore that gave me hours of severe pain and loss of sleep. I tried lots of other remedies but nothing did me any good, till I tried Cuticura Ointment, and from the very first application it began to heal and now there is not even a scar left." (Signed) Mrs. W. Boyce, Mermad Farm, P.E.I., Jan. 8, '11.

For more than a generation Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have afforded the speediest, safest and most economical treatment for skin and scalp troubles, of young and old. Although they are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a liberal supply of each may be obtained free, from the Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., sole props., 57 Columbus Ave., Boston, U. S. A.

Sir Frederick Treves.

LUCKY SIR CHARLES.

A good story is told of that famous English society surgeon, Sir Frederick Treves. The story deals with one of Sir Frederick's distinguished patients, Lord Charles Beresford. Lord Charles fell ill and sent for the great surgeon. "Tell me your symptoms," said Sir Frederick. His lordship enumerated pains here and pains there, with an ache and a stiffness somewhere else. Each item was greeted by the doctor with a great chuckle, and at last when the catalogue of ills was completed he rose and turned to Lord Charles, "My dear fellow," he said, "let me congratulate you; you have the rarest disease of the century. You lucky dog! you have a disease that was thought to be extinct." Lord "Charlie's" answer is not recorded.

THOUGHTFUL RUTH.

Ruth—"Yes, I got papa to buy a vacuum cleaner for mother."
Maud—"How thoughtful!"
Ruth—"Yes. Mother is a little stiffened up with rheumatism, you know, and I used to feel so sorry to see her trying to use the broom that I always left home on sweeping day."

"What nonsense all this is about men getting on their knees when they propose," said Mrs. Parslow to her dear friend. "My husband didn't do any such absurd thing." "He did when he proposed to me," said the dear friend without thinking.

MODEST BLACKSMITH.

Shortly before his departure for India, King George was visiting at a country house near the scene of one of Oliver Cromwell's battles. Strolling out one morning alone, he met the village blacksmith. "I say, my good fellow," said his Majesty, genially, "I understand there was a big battle fought here."
"Well—er," stammered the blacksmith, recognizing and saluting the King, "I did 'ave a round or two with Bill the potman, but I didn't know your Majesty 'ad 'eard of it."

WHEN ROYALTY TRAVELS.

Nearly every member of the royal family adopts a pseudonym when travelling otherwise than on state occasions. The Duke and Duchess of Connaught chose the incognito title of Earl and Countess of Sussex when they made their Continental journeys, and Princess Louise, Duchess of Argyll, and the Duke of Argyll travel as Lord and Lady Sundridge, this being one of the Argyll minor titles. Before her marriage Queen Maud of Norway occasionally called herself by the unpretentious name of Miss Mills. Queen Victoria always travelled as Countess of Balmoral, though, curiously enough, her heavy luggage was generally labelled "The Queen."

ZAM-BUK IN THE HOME

Read How Useful It Proved in These Widely Different Cases.

Zam-Buk's strongest point is its effectiveness in all kinds of skin diseases and injuries. Just note how excellent these persons proved it in widely different directions.

Sore Heel.—Mrs. C. A. Campbell, of Powassan, Ont., writes: "One of my heels was very badly blistered by a pair of new shoes, and the poisonous dye from my stocking got into it, and made a bad sore. For a week I could not put on a shoe, and suffered great pain. I applied Zam-Buk, and in a few days it healed the wound."

Bad Cut.—Mrs. J. Virgint, of Onondaga, Ont., writes: "Zam-Buk healed a bad cut which I sustained. I was hurrying across my yard one day when I slipped and fell heavily, my knee striking a sharp stone. At the moment I did not realize how badly I was hurt, but I found I had a bad cut about two inches long, very jagged and very deep. We bathed the cut and applied Zam-Buk. This stopped the smarting very quickly, and in a few days it had healed the wound completely."

Eczema Cured.—Mrs. Antoine Arsenault of Maxiamville, P. E. I., writes: "I had eczema and was under doctor's treatment for two years without any good result. I then tried Zam-Buk and in the end it cured me."

Zam-Buk is just as good for piles, blood-poison, festering sores, pimples, eruptions, cuts, burns, bruises, and all skin injuries and diseases. 50c. box all druggists and stores, or post free for price from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Try Zam-Buk Soap, 25c. tablet.

ALL DEPENDS.

Teacher—"Now, children, here's a little example in mental arithmetic. How old would a person be who was born in 1887?"

Pupil—"Was it a man or a woman?"

In its initial stages a cold is a local ailment easily dealt with. But many neglect it and the result is often the development of distressing seizures of the bronchial tubes and lungs that render life miserable for the unhappy victim. As a first aid there is nothing in the handy medicine line so certain in curative results as Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, the far-famed remedy for colds and coughs.

And too little self-confidence is as disastrous as too much.
