

Powles' Corners.

Correspondence of the Gazette

This wet weather, coming at this time of the year when the farmers are about half done seeding, is unjust and unfair. We had a very long winter and a late spring, and things may turn out like a singed cat, better than it looks.

Mr. Jas. Slater has had to postpone his barn raising two different times, and as Thursday of this week is likely to be wet Mr. Slater may have to postpone for the third time.

What is the matter with Ontario weather. Quite likely it is alright in Quebec.

Unless the farmers have an exceptionally fine fall there will be little use to sow barley or oats after the first of June, except for straw. As the seasons have changed, the farmers will have to try more corn, turnips, buckwheat and millet, and mangolds as late as the first of June.

Mr. W. Chidly is in Toronto on account of the serious illness of his aged mother. The trustees have engaged Miss S. Francis for another year.

Fairbairn.

Gazette Correspondence.

Mr. Geo. Isaac, local horse buyer, was in this vicinity last week and bought a few old pelters.

Mr. Geo. Armstrong recently purchased a driver from Mr. M. Kelly. It is a Lawrence Archer.

Mr. Fred Herchmer of Bobcaygeon has been engaged as cheese maker at the North Verulam for this season. He intends starting June 1st.

Rev. Mr. Honey of Bobcaygeon called on Fairbairn people last week.

Mr. Jos. McGeo is drawing cream to the Fenelon Falls Creamery.

Islay Child was Scalded to Death.

Lindsay Post:—A very sad death occurred just north of Islay on Friday evening of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Ferguson. Their youngest child, Elmer, a boy a year and nine months, while playing about the house, fell into a pan of hot water. His mother had set the pan down and on going out for cold water told the little fellow to come with her and not go near the water, but in some manner he fell backwards into the pan. His back was severely scalded. Dr. Ray of Cambray was immediately summoned and all that was possible was done to ease the little sufferer, but death ended his suffering at about eight o'clock the same evening. The accident occurred about noon. The deepest sympathy of the entire community is extended to the sorrowing family in their sad bereavement.

Howe's Circus a Good One.

Quebec Daily Telegraph.

The circus has come and gone and with it a considerable portion of the public's hard cash and greenbacks.

A great deal of excitement prevailed throughout the city yesterday, but the nucleus of all the interests was Walsh's field where the tents of the Howe's London Circus were pitched, and where three distinct performances were given yesterday.

Probably a circus never met with more enthusiastic reception and in the afternoon it required two performances to accommodate the crowd. Again last night the tent was taxed to its full capacity and the attendance was given a splendid performance which was kept up continuously during two hours.

The circus was not of the proportions of the old Barnum Bailey combination, but for its size it was well and systematically conducted and all who attended it were well pleased.

The public were courteously attended to and everything was done to accommodate and comfort all comers, the circus people exerted themselves to see that everybody should see the show in comfort. They were especially kind to the members of the local press and spared no pains to show and explain everything relative to the circus.

The various performances in the main tent were most interesting and many of them were unsurpassed even by the largest shows that have travelled here. Among the most notable were the Eddy Troupe of wire performers, the Royal Japanese acrobats, the dancing horse and the bounding jockey act, all of which were unsurpassable, the latter rider being one of the best ever seen here.

In the menagerie the beasts are all splendid specimens and clean and healthy looking, showing good care.

After the performance last night the circus grounds were readily cleared and the lumbering vans pulled by well-fed grey horses left the circus grounds for the C. P. R. station, bound for Three Rivers, where they perform to-day.

This circus will be at Lindsay on Monday, June 3rd.

There is at least a prospect of having the date for holding municipal elections changed in Ontario. The municipal committee of the Legislature has decided to report favorably the bill to change the date of polling to the first Monday in December and it is to be hoped it will be carried into law. Ontario is the only province in the Dominion that wages its municipal election campaigns—some of them bitterly personal—in the height of the Christmas season, when the spirit of peace and good will should prevail. The season is also the busiest of the year, when everybody's mind is occupied with something else besides municipal finances and administration.

Several convictions have already been made under the new amendment to the Liquor Act, which makes it an indictable offence for any person to be found intoxicated in a local option municipality. The minimum penalty is twenty dollars and costs or one month in jail. By another amendment to the Act pay checks will not hereafter be legal tender over the bar or counter in a liquor shop, and hotel keepers, or any person on their behalf, are prohibited from accepting for payment of liquor, or converting into cash for that purpose, any time check or pay check or order for money issued in payment of wages.

Hotels in local option municipalities are brought under the supervision of the license inspector.
