

Death of Mrs. Wm. Adams.

The countryside was surprised to hear of the death of Mrs. Wm. Adams, who died Tuesday. Last Friday she took a pain and had to go to bed. She grew worse and the doctor was sent for. Finally, on Tuesday the poor lady passed away. The funeral was largely attended. Her two brothers, Thomas and John Austin, of Fenelon Falls and Kinnmount were among the many stricken relatives. She was a good hearted woman, brought up a large family of boys and girls, and was always an obliging neighbor. The vicinity shares with the family in their sad bereavement.—Bob. Independent.

Mr. Henry Elliott attended the circus in Lindsay Wednesday.

An Italian was badly burned a t Donald a few nights ago, while escaping from a burning building, in which he had been sleeping.

Post: Between sixty and seventy-five Torontonians came down from the city on Saturday on the Toronto-Bobcaygeon summer train. Quite a number got off at Lindsay and spent Sunday with relatives and friends. Quite a number of passengers got off at Janetville for points on Scugog Lake.

The water is still high below the Peterborough lift locks, and the floors of some of the summer cottages are still submerged. Arrangements have been made at the Peterborough lift lock, whereby launches will be locked at 8 and 11 o'clock each morning and at 3 and 6 o'clock, each afternoon. These hours apply to launches travelling up the canal and down.

A MAGNIFICENT COUNTRY

A letter received from one of the prominent artists of New York, who has just returned from a trip to the Canadian Rockies, contains the following: "I went out to the end of steel on the Grand Trunk Pacific, then took the trail over to Maligne Lake, which I found to be the most beautiful lake I ever saw in my life. I had a delightful trip, and made several sketches. Returning I stopped off at Wainwright, and from there went out duck shooting in different directions, and had a most delightful time. Next year I hope to be able to get away earlier and see more of your magnificent country."

CHARACTER IN THE EYES

It is held by many that just as the bumps on the head afford to the phrenologist some indication of the character and abilities, so the color, shape, and position of the eyes furnish useful guides to those able to read them.

Eyes that are always very wide open, for instance, are supposed to show impulsiveness and rashness.

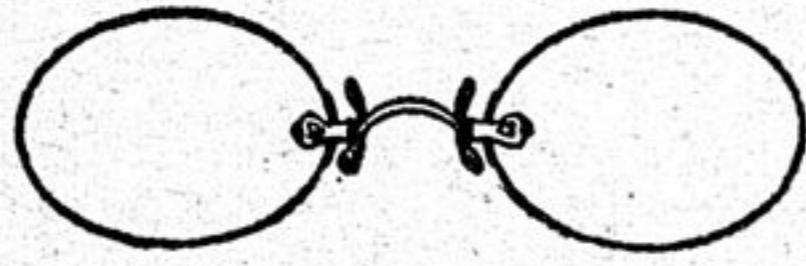

Side-glancing eyes are said to be a mark of cunning, and best distrusted.

Eyes with long, sharply-pointed corners are a sign of keen powers of observation.

Shifting, unsteady eyes are not necessarily a mark of dishonesty, but may merely point to an unsettled, restless condition of mind.

For the whites of the eyes to show beneath the iris warns the possessor of the eyes that he or she has tendencies to violent temper which should be carefully kept well under control.

Eyes set very closely together usually show ignorance; but eyes far apart in the head indicate, as a rule, keen intelligence and a sound memory.
