Correspondence of the Gazette

The Christmas tree and entertainment mentioned last week will not be held. The annual school meeting will take place on Thursday evening, the 26th, commencing at 7.30.

Mr. E. Dunn of Cameron is finishing up the grain threshing in this section this week.

A town that depends on the liquor traffic for its prosperity won't amount to much, and it has been proven at Fenelon Falls. There is no more heartless business flourishing under the protection of government license. It has a heart of stone, which no sigh can reach, no pleading can touch, and no woes can soften. It is more cruel than the grave, and should have been outlawed long ago.

Don't worry about Christmas presents. Just call at Vicars' Drug Store and you will find something to suit the most particular person. We place quality above everything else in our selection of Xmas gifts, and the prices are very reasonable
