The King of Ranges— "BUCK'S HAPPY THOUGHT"

One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Canadian Women have decided for

The "Happy Thought" Range.

Common Ranges were not good enough—why should they be for you?

Don't be imposed on by "just as good" talk. The construction of The "Happy Thought" is patented, its design registered, it is totally different in every respect to any other. There is none like it. There can be none so good. If you only knew the time, the trouble, the labor it would save you, how little fuel it uses, you would not be one single day without one.

The Fenelon Falls Gazette.

One Hundred Years of Peace.

Montreal Witness.

A hundred years of peace on a border line three thousand miles long, for more than half of which distance the line has no more substance than posts placed in the ground miles apart, totally unwatched and without even the potential resources of military protection having been provided, is an achievement of which two nations are rightfully proud. It is an event in the world's history of no small import. It may be said that it required resignation and some sacrifice both of justice and territory on the part of the weaker; but also it may be said that it demanded a self-control and a determination not to embark on the road to empire by the stronger. The more we make of the coming peace centenary the more remote we make the possibility of war, and the more we fix the principle of arbitration. When one contemplates the enormous cost to the French and German peoples of keeping up the double line of forts that oppose each other across the border, and of the stupendous waste of time and energy spent by the men of each of these nations in their three years of forced military service when just at the prime of life, there is every reason to make of this peace demonstration a thanksgiving for a burden that had not to be carried while our people were struggling to bring the land under conquest—a burden never in future to be imposed.

Newspapers and the Young.

Christian Science Monitor.

At the coming decennial convention of the Religious Aid Association, under the general title of "Religious Education and Civic Progress," part of the time of the delegates will be given to consideration of the sub-topic, "The Newspaper and the Moral Welfare of Children." Such recognition of the place of the newspaper that is allowed to enter the home as a factor in shaping opinions and conduct of plastic young folk is tardy but none the less welcome. Were there more parents and educators who fully understand the malign effect of a low-toned daily visitor and the wholesome influence of a clean and right-intentioned journal, the circulation of sensational journals would wane.

Farmer's Bureau of Exchange.

The Department of Agriculture at Lindsay will open a Bureau of Exchange for the benefit of the farmers of Victoria County. Persons having for sale or wanting live stock, grain, seed or other farm commodities, will communicate with the Department, giving description, price and other particulars of the articles for sale, or wanted. These will be listed at the Department's office on Kent street, where prospective buyers and sellers may call and get such information as will enable them to buy or sell to advantage.

Fire at Pleasant Point.

Lindsay Post:—A very disastrous fire occurred at Pleasant Point on Feb. 5th about 11.30 a. m., when a barn and most of the contents, the property of Mr. Wilson Hamilton, was destroyed. The farm is near Drummond's Bay, consisting of Lot 2, con. 7, Fenelon.

Irwin Sanderson was threshing clover for Mr. Hamilton, and it is thought that a spark from the engine got into the mow, as it was there the fire was first noticed.

The fire gained rapid headway owing to the inflammable nature of the straw. Nothing could be done to save the barn. The efforts of the men were wholly directed to saving as much stock as possible. Despite their valiant efforts four cattle, all the machinery and implements with the exception of a wagon, some feed and some grain, were burned. All that remains of the barn is the foundation.

Mr. Hamilton had the barn and contents insured in the Farmers' Mutual for $1700. The value of the burnt property would possibly be $2500.

Mr. Sanderson lost his clover mill in the flames, the value of which was about $700. We do not know what his insurance is.

There was a strong wind blowing at the time of the fire, which carried the sparks towards the house. Great difficulty was experienced in saving the residence, which caught fire three times. Fortunately the bucket brigade was able to keep it under control.

Seeks $50,000 from the Colonel.

Montreal Herald:—Mr. Brenton A. MacNab now seeks $50,000 from Col. the Hon. Sam. Hughes, Minister of Militia, for alleged malicious libel.

Previously Mr. MacNab wanted $10,000, and a retraction—or failing the latter, he wanted to have the minister serve a term in the common jail.

Now he claims that the alleged libel has been repeated, and wants five times the amount previously asked for.

An amendment was filed to-day by Mr. Charles Gaudet, K. C., who is Mr. MacNab's attorney, in which prominent Canadians are mentioned. Mr. Gaudet states that, inasmuch as the defendant has denounced the plaintiff since the institution of his action in terms of malicious opprobrium which would have the effect of placing upon plaintiff odium and disgrace, the damages claimed by plaintiff be increased from $10,000 to $50,000.

The plaintiff's attorney specifies certain places and persons in which and to whom the defendant is alleged to have denounced Mr. MacNab.

At the Rideau Club, Ottawa, the names of Hon. Robert Rogers, Messrs. D. Lorne McGibbon and L. T. Marchal, K. C., and Wallace Nesbitt, K. C., are cited.

At the Chateau Laurier, Ottawa, Col. E. W. B. Morrison; at the Houses of Parliament certain members of that body.

At the Windsor Hotel, Montreal, various local militia officers including Col. E. W. Wilson and Col. Labelle of the Harbor Commission; as well as various newspaper correspondents connected with the Press Gallery at Ottawa, especially Mr. John Bassett, the Montreal Gazette correspondent.
