

Lindsay Central Breaks Record.

The Lindsay Central Fair, which ended on Saturday, had the largest attendance and most numerous and best class of exhibits in its history. The live stock was especially good. Displays by local manufacturers and merchants helped the attractiveness of the indoor department, those of the John Carew Lumber Company and the new Cole-Burger Co. being worthy of special mention. The former showed some very handsome interior finish work, and the latter had a fine display of brassware. The speeding events were as usual a drawing feature. The directors of the fair have every reason to feel gratified at the success of their efforts this year. There are, however, some improvements needed in the way of enlargement of some of the buildings, and other alterations made for the purpose of adding to the convenience and comfort of the annually increasing crowds that attend the fair.

Powles' Corners.

Correspondence of the Gazette

Those who have silos are busy at their corn this week, cutting and filling the silos. The corn should have been cut ten days ago. Two nights hard frost, which came the 13th and 14th of this month, injured the corn.

Mr. Wm. Deyman and Mr. Joe Lansfield were out last Friday and Saturday setting up the new furnace in the basement of the school. They will be out next Saturday to complete the job. Last Monday morning the caretaker lit the first fire in the new furnace. It is hard to tell who will start the last fire.

Fells Station.

Gazette Correspondence.

Quite a number from here and the surrounding country attended the Lindsay Central Fair on Friday and Saturday of last week, and report the exhibition much in advance of previous years.

Miss Oswald of Kinmount is visiting her sister, Miss M. Oswald, at Mr. Jas. Poulson's.

Mr. E. Lane, of Lindsay, was the guest of friends at Honey Grove over Sunday last.

Mr. Fred. Poulson, while trolling in Lake Cameron a short time ago, hooked a maskinonge that tipped the scales at 24 1/2 lbs. Mr. Poulson was returning home from Fenelon Falls in his canoe and said he hadn't much difficulty in landing the whopper. Who can beat this?

Mr. C. H. Moise, of Port Hope, visited his sister, Mrs. Wm. Mitchell, recently, and enjoyed a few days fishing.

Mr. Will Parker, of Lindsay, is visiting friends at Honey Grove.

Mrs. John Bulmer and daughter Eva, of Barot River, spent the week end with Mrs. Bulmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Wood.

Threshing is the order of the day and the grain is a good average yield considering the very dry season.

ST. JAMES' CHURCH.

Special Harvest Home Thanksgiving services will be held on next Sunday, September 28th. The Rev. E. Greaves, B. A., Rector of Christ Church, Bobcaygeon, will preach morning and evening in St. James' Church, and in St. Peter's Church, Bury's Green, at 2.30.

W. F. M. S. MEETING.

The annual thank-offering meeting of the W. F. M. S. of St. Andrew's Church, Fenelon Falls, will be held at the Manse on Wednesday, October 1st, at 3 p. m. A large attendance is earnestly requested. Mrs. McDougall of Lindsay will address the meeting.

AUCTION SALES.

Mr. Wilbert Glaspell will sell by public auction on Wednesday, October 1st, his farm stock and implements, including seven head of horses, seven cows and some young stock, a number of pigs and hens, and the usual implements, some furniture, a quantity of hay, mangels and millet. Usual credit terms, cash for feed. W. F. Marquis, auctioneer.

Mr. Thos. Argue of Dongola will hold an unreserved sale of farm stock and implements on Thursday, Oct. 2nd. Usual credit terms. T. Cashore, auctioneer. See bills.

On Saturday, Sept. 27th, Mr. Chas. Ley will dispose of his house and lot on Lindsay street, south of the station, and all his household furniture, a double wagon, carpenter's and mason's tools, etc., five cords of good maple wood, and some good axehandle hickory. Sale at 2 o'clock and without reserve. Terms cash except for house and lot, terms for which will be made known at sale. T. Cashore, auctioneer. See bills.
