

DISFIGURED WITH ERUPTIONS ON FACE

Body Covered With Running Sores, Could Not Sleep from Itching and Pain. Cross and Fretful. Tried Fifty Remedies Without Result.
Cured in Nine Days by Cuticura Soap and Ointment.

30 Champagne St., Montreal, Quebec.— "I have a five-year-old boy who was suffering from what the doctor said was 'la gratelle.' His body was all covered with running sores.
The trouble started with pimples and opened up into sores. Of course scratching made it worse. The eruptions appeared on his face and disfigured him awfully.
The boy could not sleep at night from the itching and pain, and I did not know what to do with him. It made him cross and fretful. If I have tried one, I have tried fifty remedies without result. At last I got samples of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and after using them two days I noticed a change.
I then bought a full-sized cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and I used to give the boy a hot bath daily using Cuticura Soap freely, and then applied the Cuticura Ointment. He had suffered three months with the horrible disease before I started to use the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and nine days after the boy was cured and has not been troubled since."

He Went Out and Hanged Himself.

The following story is told by Mr.
Pett Ridge concerning a man who always wrangled with his wife about the money he brought home on pay night. When his wife was especially troublesome about the smallness of the sum he handed over for her housekeeping he always threatened he would go and hang himself. His wife grew tired of the mere threat, so one day when he arrived home with an unusually small sum and there was the usual row she told him to go and hang himself. She even offered him a rope to do it with, and looking very determined he took the rope and departed. Some time later she found him in an outhouse. He had tied one end of the rope to a rafter, and with the other tied round his waist he was revolving gently in mid-air. "What are you doing?" she asked. "Hanging myself," he told her sternly.
"Oh," she commented as though only mildly interested, "but you ought to tie it round your neck and not round your waist." With as much dignity as possible under the circumstances, he replied, "Well, I tried that way, but I couldn't breathe."

Do You Feel Moody, Irritable, Depressed?

When That Languid, Laggy, Easily-Tired Feeling Comes, Your Liver is Slow.

Tells How to Cure Quickly.

"Even when I was young I was not robust and healthy like other girls.
I suffered from headaches, and had sort of blue feelings that deprived me of the joyful spirits and pleasures other girls seemed to get. After I married I found I could not throw worries off like other women, and those full feelings of despondency and weariness made me very unhappy. There was no cause to feel so, and my doctor said my liver was sluggish, and this accounted for my poor color, my tiredness, languor and despair. The pills the doctor gave me were too purgative, made me weaker because they were too active for my constitution. Dozens of my friends recommended Dr. Hamilton's Pills, and they were so mild and helpful. Well, I never used a pill that acted so quietly as Dr. Hamilton's.
They were so comfortable to use, I was afraid they might not help. But in a week I knew they had been actively engaged in cleaning up my system. They did the work of a tonic and blood medicine combined. I improved to a marvelous degree with Dr. Hamilton's Pills, and I now maintain the most perfect kind of health by using them just once or twice a week."

It is Mrs. E. V. Erlanger, well known at Gloucester, who relates the above experience. She proved what you and all others, men and women, can prove—that Dr. Hamilton's Pills are best for restoring health and best for keeping the system in perfect running order. Don't be misled into using anything but Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 25c. a box, five for $1.00, at all

OLD LONDON HOTELS GOING.

Famous Hostelties Disappearing in Face of Progress.

London, England, is being transformed in no sphere of its busy life more markedly than in its hotels.
Within the last few months a number of well known hostelties have disappeared, and several ambitious schemes have been proposed to replace them.

Among hotels that have recently closed their doors are the Gaiety Hotel and Restaurant, the Inns of Court Hotel, the Capitol, in Lower Regent Street (formerly called the Chatham, and further back still the Continental), while the Old Ship at Greenwich, the Star and Garter at Richmond, the Tollard in Eagle Street, the Albion in Aldersgate Street, and the Bedford Hotel, Covent Garden, have also been closed within the past year or two. The Salisbury Hotel, off Fleet Street, is to be changed into an International Roman Catholic Club, but it will still give hotel accommodation to its members, together with an oratory as part of its equipment.

But the closing of old hotels is interesting no less for the sequel—the opening of new. Architectural splendors and modern luxuries are nowadays aimed at everywhere.
The development of the hotel has gone hand in hand with the development of travelling facilities. During the past ten years, it has been computed, a sum of no less than $50,000,000 has been expended on hotel building in London.

The biggest hotel in the world will be erected at a cost of $8,000,- 000 on the site of St. George's Hospital, Hyde Park Corner, which has been purchased for the purpose by Mallaby Dealey, M.P.

The engagement was pretty stiff; in fact it looked hopeless to the captain. However, he said cheerfully to his men: "My brave fellows, fight like heroes till your ammuni-tion's gone, then run for your lives. I've got a sore foot, so I'll start now. Au revoir, my hearties."

Lumbago Cured Every Ache Gone

Thousands Still Suffering That Can Be Quickly Cured By
"Nerviline."

The Case of Harold P. Bushy.

"Three years ago I discovered that a man subject to lumbago might just as well be dead as alive." These words open the sincere, straightforward letter of H. P. Bushy, a well-known man in the plumbing and tinsmithing business.

"One attack came after another, and lumbago got to be a chronic thing with me. I could scarcely get in a day's work before that knifing, cruel pain would attack my back. I used a gallon of liniments; not one of them seemed penetrating enough to get at the core of the pain. I read in the Montreal Witness about Nerviline, and got five bottles. It is a wonderful medicine—I could feel its soothing, pain-relieving action every time it was applied. When I got the disease under control with Nerviline, I built up my strength and fortified my blood by taking Ferrozone at meals. This treatment cured me permanently, and I urge everyone to give up the thick, white, oily liniments they are using, and try an up-to-date, penetrating, pain-destroyer like Nerviline.

"Please publish my letter the world over. I want all to hear of Nerviline."

thing from your dealer but "Nerviline."

TESTS FOR LIFE OR DEATH.

Method of Avoiding Possibility of Premature Burial.

A remarkable new method of testing absolutely whether an apparent dead person is really dead, and thus avoiding the possibility of a premature burial, just announced by Dr. Icard of Marseilles, France, has been received with great interest by his colleagues in Paris.

Dr. Icard's system depends on the question of whether the blood is still in circulation or not, and consists of a sub-cutaneous injection of a small quantity of fluoresceine, which is quite harmless, but one of the most violent coloring matters known. If there is the slightest action of the blood, the fluid carried around the body stains it a vivid golden yellow, while the eyes become a deep emerald green. If, on the other hand, there is no movement of the blood, the coloring matter is not dispersed, and produces no effect. Half an hour is stated to be enough to make this test.

The laity, while duly impressed by this new method, are asking whether persons who are alive and undergo the dyeing process, and who later recover, will lose the golden yellow tint and the green eyes of which Dr. Icard says, "They are transformed into superb emeralds, set like jewels in their sockets."

It may be added, however, that fluoresceine is one of the most transitory dyes known.

Circumstances.

We often hear young men say that if their circumstances were different they might succeed, but as it is, there are too many obstacles against them.
What did Napoleon say about circumstances? He asked one of his marshals about a movement he had in contemplation, and the answer was, if circumstances were favorable it might be accomplished. Napoleon replied, "Circumstances! I care nothing about circumstances; I make circumstances." are made according to a formula in use nearly a century ago among the Indians, and learned from them by Dr. Morse. Though repeated attempts have been made, by physimpossible to improve the formula or the pills. Dr. Morse's Indian Root

SPECIFIC FOR THE BLOOD.

Formula May Prove Valuable in Tuberculosis Fight.

A specific which may become a valuable ally to the medical profession in the campaign against tuberculosis and other diseases has been introduced by a London publisher.

David Doig, head of the firm of William Doig and Co., publishers to the King, has interested himself for several years in the potential-ities of a formula which, he says, has remarkable effects in improving the quality of the blood and the consequent resistance of the body to disease.

At his instance tests have been carried out in one of the London hospitals which have demonstrated the value of the formula in a very remarkable way, and Mr. Doig is now anxious to secure further and more extended tests with the assistance of school clinics and public health authorities.

Some thirty years ago the formula, made out by an eminent scientific chemist, came into the possession of Mr. Doig's family and was frequently resorted to when occasion arose with beneficial results.

It is a combination of natural salts, certain of which are in a concentrated form, which produce a powerful stimulating action on the white corpuscles of the blood and so enable the system to rid itself of lurking disease germs. It is stated to be harmless to take and quite inexpensive.

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY

An eminent scientist, the other day, gave his opinion that the most wonderful discovery of recent years was the discovery of Zam-Buk. Just think! As soon as a single thin layer of Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or a sore, such injury is insured against blood poison! Not one species of microbe has been found that Zam-Buk does not kill!

Then again. As soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a sore, or a cut, or to skin disease, it stops the smarting.
That is why children are such friends of Zam-Buk. They care nothing for the science of the thing. All they know is that Zam-Buk stops their pain. Mothers should never forget this.

Again. As soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or to a diseased part, the cells beneath the skin's surface are so stimulated that new healthy tissue is quickly formed. This forming of fresh healthy tissue from below is Zam-Buk's secret of healing.
The tissue thus formed is worked up to the surface and literally casts off the diseased tissue above it. This is why Zam-Buk cures are permanent.

Only the other day Mr. Marsh, of 101 Delorimier Ave., Montreal, called upon the Zam-Buk Co. and told them that for over twenty-five years he had been a martyr to eczema. His hands were at one time so covered with sores that he had to sleep in gloves. Four years ago Zam-Buk was introduced to him, and in a few months it cured him. To-day—over three years after his cure of a disease he had for twenty-five years—he is still cured, and has had no trace of any return of the eczema!

his father was very proud of him.
"I shall call round and see your do, father," said young Bobbie, "I want to tell you that all the boys in our class are not known by names, but by numbers only. My number is twenty-five." In due course the father called at the school-house, and knocked at the door, which was, after a few moments, opened by the headmaster.

"Good morning, sir," said Mr.
Smith. "I am the father of twenty-five." "Indeed!" replied the schoolmaster with surprise. "Come inside, my friend. I can feel for you, for I am the father of twelve myself!"

Chinese Burned Opium.

Opium worth $60,000 was burned in front of the Nankai Middle School, in the native city, Tien-Tsin, China, recently. Nine great pots were filled with the drug. The students of the school and at least three thousand other spectators cheered when the big cauldrons were set afire shortly after noon.
Among the onlookers were more than one hundred foreign soldiers and their officers, to whom the enthusiasm of the Chinese as the drug went up in smoke was a revelation.
