

WHEN BABY CRIES.

Do not get out of patience or scold or shake your baby for crying. He does not do that to be ugly—that is not a baby's nature—he wants to laugh and be happy, but when he cries that is the way he takes of telling you he is in pain; that his little stomach is out of order or that his new teeth hurt him. Instead of being cross give him a dose of Baby's Own Tablets and you will soon see him laughing and happy again. The Tablets sweeten the stomach; make teething painless; break up colds; cure constipation and expel worms. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Old Sows for Breeding.

If we breed and raise our own sows we always have on hand a young sow before we can have an old one, but as a rule I breed from old sows and if I have any that have not proven satisfactory I cull them out and select the young gilts to take their places, writes Mr. A. D. Choate.

I find that the pigs from my old sows always weigh from 25 to 50 pounds more at ten months old than the pigs from the young sows. They seem to have more bone and are more growthy. This is my reason for breeding from old sows.

There is one rule which I always follow and that is, never to breed a gilt so that she will have pigs until she is at least a year old and I always let them run with the rest of the shoats until about two months before I expect to sell the bunch and then separate them.

As a rule this is about breeding time when they will weigh about 175 pounds and not be fat, just in good breeding order.

My reason for keeping old breeding sows is I can get more bone and more growth on the litter and two litters a year.

Stops a Cough IN ONE NIGHT

A Remedy That Never Fails

It's simply wonderful to think how quickly a bad throat or catarrh can be cured with Catarrhzone. Its rich balsamic vapor is carried along with the breath into the innermost recesses of the lungs, bronchial tubes, and chest, making it impossible for the germ of any disease to live. Thus soreness in the chest is at once alleviated—phlegm is loosened and ejected from the throat, old-standing coughs are removed.

"I suffered from an irritable, weak throat for three years. I had a severe cough, pain over the eyes, constant bad taste in my mouth, and noises in my ears. It was chronic catarrh. Nothing gave permanent relief till I used Catarrhzone. In one hour it relieved, and in a few weeks drove all trace of catarrh from my system.

HOW ROYALTY SLEEPS.

The World's Rulers Are Carefully Protected at Night.

"Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown," says the poet, but the precautions that are taken to assure the undisturbed rest to King George of England must at least bring quiet to his pillow. The outside of the royal palace is of course guarded by soldiers and detectives all night; and several night-watchmen pace up and down the corridors through the hours of dark-

WHY KEEP ON COUGHING?

Here Is A Remedy That Will Stop It

Do you realize the danger in a neglected cough? Then why don't you get rid of it? Yes, you can shake it off, even though it has stuck to you for a long time, if you go about it right.

Keep out in the fresh air as much as you can, build up your strength with plenty of wholesome food, and take Na-Dru-Co Syrup of Linseed, Licorice and Chlorodyne.

This reliable household remedy has broken up thousands of hacking, persistent coughs, which were just as troublesome as yours, and what it has done for so many others it will do for you. Na-Dru-Co Syrup of Linseed, Licorice and Chlorodyne contains absolutely no harmful drugs, and so can be given safely to children, as well as adults. Your physician or druggist can confirm this statement, for we are ready to send them on request a complete list of all the ingredients.

ness, says a London correspondent. These men are shod in thick felt slippers, so that their footsteps will not wake the royal sleeper, and one of them is always near the King's room until his majesty is called by his valet in the morning.

Every door and window in the palace is frequently examined, and it would be impossible for any intruder to get in without being discovered. The King is as well protected as the Tsar of Russia, who has a guard of armed Cossacks outside of his room, or the King of Spain, who is watched by a squad of specially picked soldiers, who keep the keys of all the doors of the palace during the night.

Algy—"You say she only partially returned your affections?" Clarence—"Yes; she returned all the love-letters, but retained all the presents."

Will Quickly Cure Any Sour Stomach

Relieves Fullness After Meals.

"When I was working around the farm last winter, I had an attack of inflammation," writes Mr. E. P. Dawkins, of Port Richmond. "I was weak for a long time, but well enough to work until spring. But something went wrong with my bowels, for I had to use salts or physic all the time. My stomach kept sour, and always after eating there was pain and fullness, and all the symptoms of intestinal indigestion. Nothing helped be until I used Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Instead of hurting, like other pills, they acted very mildly, and seemed to heal the bowels. I did not require large doses to get results with Dr. Hamilton's Pills, and feel so glad that I have found a mild yet certain remedy. To-day I am well—no pain, no sour stomach, a good appetite, able to digest anything. This is a whole lot of good for one medicine to do, and I can say Dr. Hamilton's Pills are the best pills, and my letter, I am sure, proves it."

Feeding the Growing Chick.

Keep the growing chicks well supplied with granulated bone, charcoal and beef scraps. The latter must be fresh and free from any musty odor. Much damage has been done in the growing flocks from the feeding of poor dry beef scraps, therefore great care should be exercised in purchasing this article. Charcoal is one of the most important things to have about the poultry yards, notwithstanding the claim of some poultrymen who say it is unnecessary when the fowls and chicks are given the proper foods in the right proportions. It keeps the gases down and assists digestion and prevents many cases of bowel trouble and other diseases.

"My dwelling is bounded on the north by a gas works, on the south of an india rubber works, on the west by a vinegar factory, and on the east by a glue-boiling establishment." "A nice neighborhood, I must say!" "Quite so, but it has one advantage, I can always tell which way the wind blows without looking at the weather-cock."

Want a Nickname.

The problem of the moment at Eton is how to nickname Prince Henry. His brother, Prince Albert, was called the Lobster at Osborne. As a rule, the nicknames of British royalties have been anything but deferential. When King George and his brother, the late Duke of Clarence, were middies, they were dubbed Sprat (King George) and Herring. Afterwards when the Duke was in the 10th Hussars, he was nicknamed "Collars and Cuffs." Prince Henry has already had a satisfactory nickname. His brothers used to call him "Smiler," on account of the sunny expression which his features retained even under circumstances of embarrassment.

The One Exception.

Lord Kitchener of Khartum, the famous English soldier, is essentially a man of the camp and the battle-field, a cold, silent, grim warrior. However, the following incident will show that Lord Kitchener can be a gallant courtier as well as a brave soldier:

Lord Kitchener had been summoned by Queen Victoria, who wished to congratulate him upon his brilliant work in Egypt.

When she had finished, and Lord Kitchener had thanked her respectfully, the Queen suddenly added, "Is it true that you dislike women?"

"All except one," Lord Kitchener replied, grimly.

"And who is that?" Queen Victoria asked.

"Your majesty."

The Rest Was Easy.

STRENGTH OF THE STUBBORN

Why Mary Malone Left the Service of Mrs. Bixby.

How much perfectly good, serviceable will-power people waste in mere obstinacy! Martha Malone, after working three years for Mrs. Bixby, appeared one morning at Mrs. Wilson's back door, and applied for a place.

"Why," said the surprised Mrs. Wilson, "I thought you were working for Mrs. Bixby!"

"I was, mum. But I've quit." "Is that so?" Mrs. Wilson could not conceal her surprise. "I thought you liked her."

"Indeed I do, mum."

"And I'm sure she liked you."

"I believe she did, mum. Leastwise she always seemed to."

"Well—" Mrs. Wilson was still wondering what the trouble had been.

"Well," said Martha, seeing that some explanation was expected, "you see it was like this, mum. I always put the blue china plates on the righthand side of the cupboard, and this morning the missus comes along, and moves 'em, and says, 'Martha, every mornin' for three years you've put the plates on the wrong side, and I've had to come along and move them—and I can't stand it any longer.'"

"And," said Martha, "I says to her, 'Mrs. Bixby, every mornin' for three years I've put them plates in the right place, and you come along and moved them, and then I had to come along and move them back, and I can't stand it any longer, either.'"

"And so I quit."

Woman In Pain For Three Years

Tells of Her Remarkable Cure.

"Very few people could so patiently suffer for three years as I did," writes Mrs. M. D. Durand, from her home in Augusta. "Sometimes I did feel very discouraged, but knew that a remedy would some day turn up with the power to relieve my sufferings. Nerviline was the one thing that ever did me real good. It had the power to sink into my stiff, sore muscles, and it drew out the pain and gave me release from such distress as few people know. My condition was largely Rheumatic, and on this account I do urge every person with Rheumatic tendencies to use Nerviline—rub it in frequently and bind a hot flannel cloth over the aching parts. This is very soothing and will surely cure."

No home complete without Nerviline. Family size bottles, 50c.; trial size, 25c., at all storekeepers and druggists or The Catarrhzone Co., Buffalo, N.Y.
