Woman Rises

TO TELL HER SISTERS THEY CAN FIND RELIEF IN DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Mrs. John Cabot, After Six Years' Suffering, Tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and Found New Life and Energy.

White Head Perce, Que., Feb. 23.—(Special).—One more woman has risen to tell her suffering sisters they can find relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills. That woman is Mrs. John Cabot, well known and highly respected here, and she expresses her enthusiasm in these words: "I certainly recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills. There is nothing better."

Asked to give her experience, Mrs. Cabot continued: "My trouble started in a cold, and I suffered for six years. Rheumatism, neuralgia, stiffness of the joints, cramps in the muscles and heart flutterings were among my symptoms, and finally Bright's Disease developed. It was then I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills, and they helped me almost from the start. After taking four boxes I feel like a new woman."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cure the kidneys. Healthy kidneys strain all the impurities and poisons—all the seeds of disease—out of the blood. Dodd's Kidney Pills not only cure the disease but by ensuring good blood give new life and energy to every part of the body.

BRITAIN'S NEW BATTLESHIPS.

Will Burn Coal and Carry Oil As Auxiliary Fuel.

With the recent laying down of the battleships Royal Sovereign and Devonport, a new departure was made by the British Admiralty. These two ships, with three others to be laid down at private yards this year, will be considerably smaller and slower than their immediate predecessors, and they will also be coal burners, carrying oil only as auxiliary fuel. This means any battleships now under construction and operation, but it is believed that the Admiralty in making the decision was guided more by the opinion that battleships have grown beyond the most practicable size than they were by economy.

It is believed that the new ships will have a displacement of about 26,000 tons, thus being smaller than any battleships under construction, except those in France, which are about the same size. It would seem that France and England had an understanding in the matter, as all other countries are building ships of 30,000 tons and upwards.

The new small vessels will have a speed of 21 knots, and they will mount eight, if not ten, 15-inch guns. The secondary armament will consist of 6-inch guns behind armor.

Man is the architect of his own misfortune.

Will Quickly Cure Any Sour Stomach

Relieves Fullness After Meals.

"When I was working around the farm last winter, I had an attack of inflammation," writes Mr. E. P. Dawkins, of Port Richmond. "I was weak for a long time, but well enough to work until spring. But something went wrong with my bowels for I had to use salts or physic all the time. My stomach kept sour, and always after eating there was pain and fullness, and all the symptoms of intestinal indigestion. Nothing helped me until I used Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Instead of hurting, like other pills, they acted very mildly, and seemed to heal the bowels. I did not require large doses to get results with Dr. Hamilton's Pills, and feel so glad that I have found a mild yet certain remedy. To-day I am well—no pain, no sour stomach, a good appetite, able to digest anything. This is a whole lot of good for one medicine to do, and I can say Dr. Hamilton's Pills are the best pills, and my letter, I am sure, proves it. Refuse a substitute for Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut, sold in yellow boxes, 25c. All dealers, or The Catarrhoxes Co., Kingston, Ont.

A HOME-MADE TRIUMPH.

Makes One Want to Sing, and Whoop, and Skip and Dance.

"Well?" challenged Bettina, pirouetting breezily before Delphine, who pushed back a pile of fashion magazines with a discouraged sigh. "Pronounce judgment, Del."

"I haven't seen a prettier suit this season, you lucky girl," declared Delphine. "I envy you. I suppose I've got to wear that old brown dud of mine another year—things cost so much, and I promised father I'd economize. But I hate to begin wearing made-overs. Even when they look well enough, they don't feel like new things—they can't yield the same serene satisfaction you have in brand-new clothes. I'm always conscious of a distinct spiritual bracing-up when Price & Cutting's label is inside my collar, and their latest model is on my back. Don't you feel that way, Betty?"

"I might, if I could ever afford Price & Cutting," admitted Betty, with a laugh. "But I don't scorn made-overs, I assure you. This is one—and you seem to like it. It's concocted out of a long wrap of Aunt Euphemia's and the remains of Nelly's three-years-ago plaid suit, and mother's old mink set; and it is pretty, now isn't it, Del? Tell me so again!"

"It certainly is," agreed Delphine. "I'd never have guessed it was a production of home talent."

Betty recognized the faint touch of condescension in the compliment. "That's nice of you, for you know what's what, even though sometimes you are almost too superior to live," she remarked cheerfully. "I wish you could go to Price & Cutting as usual. But really, since you can't, you'll find there's lots of fun in made-overs; and there's no fun in Price & Cutting, whatever else there is. Besides, nothing that's all professional can be your own particular triumph. Let me help you with the 'brown dud,'—it was a beauty, and it can't be badly worn,—and by the time we've remodelled the front, and changed the collar, and added a touch of color, you'll understand what I mean.

"It will be virtually new, and you'll have done it yourself! Price & Cutting may make you superior, but did they ever make you want to sing, and whoop, and skip, and dance? No? I thought not. But a thing like this of mine, evolved out of turned breadths, and forgotten pieces, and old fur with the moth-eaten parts cut out—you've still to learn what that means, and it's worth while.

"Bring on your 'brown dud,' and behold how it becomes transformed presently into a charming and original confection in the latest mode, done in shades of bronze and copper. I prophesy that when you wear it for the first time, I'll have to hang on one arm and Kitty on the other to keep you within the bounds of decorum. Your feet will just ache to prance and tiptoe all the way!"

"You're an utterly ridiculous girl!" declared Delphine, tossing one style book across to Betty, and eagerly opening another. "But if you can help me make my suit turn

Sure to Return.

One morning a merchant whose goods did not very strongly substantiate his advertising claims put out a new sign. He was pleased to see that a great many people stopped to read it. But directly he was puzzled and angered to notice that they all went on, laughing. There was nothing funny about the sign. It merely read:

"If You Buy Here Once You Will Come Again."

The merchant went outside in a casual sort of way, and glanced at his sign to see what was the matter. Some one, no doubt a former customer, had added another line; it now read:

"If You Buy Here Once You Will Come Again To Bring It Back."

What the Leaders Were Called.

They were discussing the North American Indian the other day in a rural school, when the teacher asked if anyone could tell him what the leaders were called.

"Chief," answered a bright little girl at the head of the class.

"Correct," answered the teacher. "Now, can any of you tell me what the women were called?"

There was silence for a minute or two, then a small boy's hand was seen waving aloft, eager to reply.

"Well, Tommy?" asked the teacher.

"Mischief," he proudly announced.
