

They Helped Her Wonderfully

WHAT MRS. H. BEST SAYS OF DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Alberta Woman Voices the Sentiment of the Women of the West That Dodd's Kidney Pills are Woman's Best Friend.

Retlaw, Alta., March 30.—(Special).—"Dodd's Kidney Pills helped me wonderfully." So says Mrs. H. Best, a highly respected lady living here. And Mrs. Best expresses the sentiment of thousands of women in Alberta. Like most women Mrs. Best does not care to talk about her troubles, but she does wish others who have suffered as she has to know that they can find relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills. "I found them entirely satisfactory. They helped me wonderfully," she says, "and I give you my full permission to tell the public what they have done for me."

Women who suffer in silence can be cured just as silently. The keystone of woman's health is the Kidneys. If they are kept strong and healthy, they keep the blood pure, and pure blood means good health all over the body. Dodd's Kidney Pills cure Kidney Disease. Dodd's Kidney Pills make healthy Kidneys and good blood. That's why they are known as woman's best friend.

CAN MICROBE BE TAMED?

Dawn of New Era in Preventive Medicine.

The recent triumphs in bacteriology lead science to hope that a new era in preventive medicine is beginning to dawn. It has long been known that microbes war against each other, some of the most deadly of them falling a prey to others, which have no harmful effect upon the human organism; but it is only very recently that the possibility of breeding them, so as to lessen or destroy their pathogenic properties, has dawned.

Pasteur held that no change in the form of bacteria was likely. Koch apprehended the truth and lived long enough to see it demonstrated. It is now known that there are at least four strains of the tubercle bacillus, only two of which are pathogenic for man. These may be changed from one form into another. The human tubercle bacillus, for instance, become bovine when passed through a cat. Their virulence may be largely or greatly intensified by culture. The human tubercle bacillus, cultivated in a turtle, becomes almost harmless. Other germs, harmless in themselves, become disease breeding if injected into a living organism with salt water or when so cultivated as to endure a lower temperature than that to which they have been accustomed.

In the light of the latest researches it is quite clear that these minute living things may be developed at will in time along lines that will destroy their power to poison. Some authorities go so far as to predict that in the success of this work lies man's principal hope of finally conquering disease.

Joint and Muscle Pains Banished by Nerviline

IT CURES RHEUMATISM.

Thousands of people, chuck full of the joy of living—happy, glad, bright people, that Nerviline has cured of their pains, all tell the same wonderful story of its power to drive out the aches and tortures of rheumatism and kindred ills.

"My goodness, but Nerviline is a miracle-worker," writes Mrs. Charlotte Chipman, mother of a well-known family residing at Mount Pleasant. "Last month I was so crippled up with sciatica and muscular rheumatism as to be almost unable to do a bit of housework. My joints were so stiff and the muscles so frightfully sore that I even cried at times with the pain. For years we have used Nerviline in our family and I just got busy with this wonderful, good old liniment. Lots of rubbing with Nerviline soon relieved my misery and I was in a real short time about my work as usual."

No matter where the ache is, no matter how distressing the pain you can rub it away with Nerviline. For forty years it has been curing lumbago, sciatica, back-ache, colds, chest trouble and all sorts of winter ills. Keep a large 50c. family size bottle handy and you'll be saved lots of trouble and have smaller doctor bills. Smaller trial size 25c. at dealers everywhere.

BUSY BRAINS AND SLEEP.

Insomnia One of the Penalties of Strenuous Modern Life.

So many men and women, especially those past their first youth, find difficulty in procuring the sound, restful sleep so necessary to keep mind and body fit. Although physically the body is tired out, the brain is alert as ever, and perfect oblivion is impossible, says London Answers.

A London physician gives some interesting advice on the matter.

"Insomnia," he states, "is one of the penalties of the increasing strain modern life throws upon our brains. The man who works with his muscles and lives in the open air is rarely a victim of sleeplessness. The essentials for a good night's rest are mental repose, a requisite amount of muscular fatigue, comfortable body heat, and plenty of ventilation.

"The most difficult to secure is lessened brain activity. An excellent plan is to take a brisk half-hour's walk just before bedtime, followed by a hot bath and a rub-down, and then a cup of warm milk and a biscuit or two as one gets into bed. If, in addition, the mind be focussed on some pleasant but not exciting topic a night's rest is assured to all but the most chronic sufferer.

"The type in which the sleeper suddenly wakes an hour or so after having fallen asleep usually means that more outdoor muscular exercise is required."

HE MEANT WELL.

What Traveller Received for Tendering a Little Assistance.

English cyclists travelling alone on the Continent have many queer experiences, says a contributor to the Boston Traveller. One of them it tells.

A young man who was bicycling in southern France was pushing his machine up a steep hill, when he overtook a peasant with a donkey cart who was making but little progress, although the donkey was doing his best.

The benevolent cyclist, putting his left hand against the back of the cart and guiding his machine with the other, pushed so hard that the donkey, taking fresh courage, pulled his load up to the top successfully.

The summit reached, the peasant burst into thanks to his benefactor. "It was very good of you, indeed, monsieur," he protested. "I should never in the world have got up the hill with only one donkey."

Breaking It Gently.

Hello! Sit down. I believe you have come to ask me—

"You have been misinformed. I haven't come to ask you anything."

"Why, I understand you—"

"I came merely because I wished to be first to tell you a bit of good news. I am going to marry your daughter."

ECZEMA STARTED IN A RASH

Suffered Terribly. From Eyebrows Spread to Neck, Chest and Arms. Completely Cured by Cuticura Soap and Ointment.

Briercrest, Sask. — "When my baby boy was about four months old he suffered terribly from eczema. The trouble started in a rash and was very itchy. It made him very cross and fretful. I noticed the rash first in his eye-brows. From there it spread to his neck, chest and arms. When he would scratch, it would make sores.

"I got medicine but it did no good. I tried different remedies without result. At last I got a sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after using them for two days I noticed a change. I then purchased a full-sized cake of Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. I would give him a hot bath with the Cuticura Soap every night afterward applying the Cuticura Ointment. Before I had used half of the Cuticura Soap and Ointment he was completely cured." (Signed) Mrs. H. L. Stromberg, May 29, 1913.

The regular use of Cuticura Soap for toilet and bath not only tends to preserve, purify and beautify the skin, scalp, hair and hands, but assists in preventing inflammation, irritation and clogging of the pores, the common cause of pimples, blackheads, redness and roughness, yellow, oily, mothy and other unwholesome conditions of the skin. Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. For a liberal free sample of each, with 32-p. book, send post-card to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. D, Boston, U. S. A.

UNNECESSARY DISTURBANCE.

Young Man Was Making Much Ado About a Small Matter.

During the hearing of a law case, a man began to move about in the back of the court room, pushing back chairs, and disturbing things generally.

"Young man," the judge said, at length, looking at him sternly, "you are making a great deal of noise."

"Your honor," was the reply, "the fact is that I have lost my overcoat, and I am looking about to find it."

"Well, sir," said the judge, "people often lose whole suits here without making half as much disturbance."

Mr. Daniel F. Fraser of Bridgeville, N.S., says about GIN PILLS: "For twenty years I have been troubled with Kidney and Bladder Disease, and have been treated by many doctors but found little relief. BAT IS FOE OF MOSQUITO.

Would be Cheap and Effective Sanitary Workers.

A unique experiment now in progress in the vicinity of San Antonio, Tex., seems to indicate that the bat has a mission of the first importance in its relation to the health of man. A well-known physician of the city named, knowing that the mosquito is a favorite item on the bat menu, has constructed a "belfry" near a swamp where mosquitoes abound.

It is a high wooden building, with findows windows so fashioned so fashioned as to permit the bats to come and go at will and yet exclude the light as far as possible. It proves to be exactly to their liking, and, attracted by its evident adaptability to their needs, as well as by its location so near to an abundant food supply, they have occupied it in large numbers.

The result has far exceeded the hopes of the author of the experiment. Mosquitoes have already almost disappeared from the neighborhood, and malaria, once a scourge, is now practically unknown. At the same time, the numerous conveniences of the "belfry" are certain to make it a permanent abiding place for the bat population, thus assuring freedom from mosquitoes and consequent immunity from mosquito-bred diseases indefinitely.

It is not only a cheap system of sanitation, but one that promises permanent effectiveness. Its originator commends it for general use in all communities which prefer bats to mosquitos, and suggests to nervous folks that bats really aren't very unpleasant creatures—when once one becomes habituated to them.

She saw him fold a piece of paper and put it in the farther corner of the drawer in the library table. If he had carelessly thrown it in, she would have thought nothing of it.

"What's that?" she asked.

She wondered what it was, and as he had said it was of no importance, he had no one to blame but himself if she looked at it, which she did, at the first opportunity.
