The Fenelon Falls Gazette.

FRIDAY, MAY 1, 1914.

Perdue—Peacey.

At Port Dalhousie, on April 15th, John Alexander Perdue, son of the late Peter Perdue and Mrs. Perdue, Fenelon Falls, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Ethel Jane Peacey, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Peacey of Port Dalhousie. The wedding was very quiet, and was solemnized in St. John's Church at high noon, the Rector, Rev. R. Ferguson, officiating. There were no attendants, and only the immediate relatives were present. The bride was given away by her father, and looked lovely in her travelling suit of blue serge, with white hat with soft ostrich plume trimming, and white marabou stole, and carrying a bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Gertrude Johnson played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bride entered the church leaning on her father's arm, and, during the signing of the register, "O Perfect Love." After the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Ann St., after which Mr. and Mrs. Perdue left on the 2.47 train for eastern points. Upon their return they will reside in St. Catharines. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts, some of them coming from old Scotland, and some very handsome silver from the coast. The good wishes for a long and happy life journey go with Mr. and Mrs. Perdue from many in both Port and city.—St. Catharines Standard.

A Decided Success.

The Fenelon Falls branch of the Women's Institute scored a decided success in the entertainment presented by the members and friends on the evening of April 24th. "Sister Masons," a burlesque full of surprises, excited interest and continuous merriment from the opening sentences until Sister Busybody brought in the butter, which proved to be exceedingly nimble, alarming even Sister Angelcake, Most Exalted Skyrrocket, Master of the Lodge. The curtain fell on the scene amidst roars of laughter and applause. Following is the cast:

Sister Angelcake, Master of the Lodge, Miss McKendry.

Sister Gossip, High-Back Jelly Mixer, second in command, Mrs. E. Chambers.

Sister Busybody, Most Refulgent Pin-cushion, Mrs. W. Welsh.

Sister Thankful, Grand Chow Chow, Inner Guard and Keeper of the Goat, Mrs. (Dr.) Gould.

Sister Lonesome, Royal Peck Aboo, Mrs. Minthorne.

Sister Blueblood, Miss E. Webster.

Mrs. Padlock and Mrs. Ipeacac, Candidates, Mrs. M. Calder and Miss Abbott.

Sister Backbite and other members of the Lodge, Mrs. Jas. Lamb, Mrs. C. Smith, Misses Tilly Patten, E. Townley, A. Quigg, E. Pearce, G. McFarland.

Juvenile Visitor and Reciter, Miss Bessie Lamb.

Policeman, Mr. Les. McKendry.

The farce-comedy, "Whiskers"—also a great success—showed a well balanced cast of "fair women and brave men." Each performer was excellently suited to the part, and the play was enacted with much spirit, affording the audience great amusement. The cast:

Chester Phelps, about to be married Mr. John Gordon.

Parker Glenn, his best man, Mr. O. Culbert.

John Phelps, his millionaire uncle, Mr. Leslie McKendry.

Mabel Adams, bride to be, Miss A. Carley.

Inez Adams, maid of honor, Miss A. Hand.

Miss Sarah Adams, their aunt, Miss A. Robson.

Francis, Ethel, Evelyn, bridesmaids, Misses R. Austin, L. Warren, H. Heard.

Anna, a colored maid, Miss D. Dickson.

A pleasing feature of the programme was the song "Caller Herring" in costume by a Scotch lady, Mrs. McKay. The other vocalists who contributed much to the success of the evening were the Misses Alice Suggitt and Della Deyman, the Rev. W. H. A. French and Mr. Cornyea. Piano solos by Miss Patton and Mr. W. Armstrong were much enjoyed. Mrs. French, Miss L. Corbett and Miss Patton acted as accompanists. The Rev. Mr. French ably filled the office of chairman, and in a happy little speech tendered the thanks of the officers and members of the W. I. to those who had so kindly assisted with the programme. The proceeds amounted to about $55.

Council met at Cameron pursuant to motion; all present except Councillor Moines, who was absent through sickness. Minutes of last meeting were confirmed.

Resignations from the office of pathmaster were received from Wm. Wilson, Geo. Imrie, Henry Raby and Jas. Havery.

A communication was received from the township solicitor, Mr. T. Stewart, advising settlement of drainage dispute between Mr. G. Imrie and Mr. W. Webster.

Mr. R. Moran, president of the Palestine Telephone Co., asked permission by letter to the placing of poles and wires with cross-arms on the Fenelon road leading from Hartley in Eldon to Cambray village. On motion of Messrs. Lee and Mark this request was granted, the company to carefully observe the laws as to placing obstructions on the road; also that the council would pass a by-law at its May meeting giving further instructions to all telephone companies using the road sides for erecting their poles and wires.

Mr. J. Moore was present and asked $35 as damages to buggy at J. Westaway's culvert. Council contended it was not responsible, so suit was threatened for recovery.

A deputation of Victoria Corner telephone men asking that the poles complained of as being too far out on the road be left as planted. Council explained that their proposed by-law ordered all poles to be not farther than 6 feet from the fence nor nearer than three feet to the road ditch. All companies must comply with the by-law. Mr. J. S. Brown, treasurer of the foregoing company, asked council's permission for the use of the roadsides to plant the poles, which was readily granted, the company to conform to the by-law and other statutes regarding road obstruction; motion by Messrs. Lee and Mark.

The following other motions were passed:

Mark—Lee, That the reeve and each councillor be commissioners to expend the sum of $250 on the roads of the township, and that A. C. Hore be appointed by council to expend on the roads of S. S. No. 7 such sums as ordered by the reeve, Mr. Hore to receive the usual commission.

Lee—Smithson, That a by-law be introduced and passed confirming the foregoing motions relating to road expenditure.

By-law passed, signed and sealed, Mr. Lee in the chair.

The by-law proposed at the last meeting placing the fee per day for councillors attending meetings of council at $3 without mileage, was passed, signed and sealed, Mr. Mark in the chair.

Mark—Smithson, That Wilfrid Havery be appointed pathmaster in place of Jas. Havery, and that Fred. Jones be appointed in place of Geo. Imrie.
