

Found the Cause The Rest Was Easy

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS QUICKLY CURED HIS KIDNEY DISEASE.

How Hudson Marchbank, After Suffering for Five Years, Found Quick Relief and Permanent Cure in the Greatest of Canadian Remedies.

Marchbank, King's County, N.B., June 1st (Special).—After suffering for five years from kidney disease, brought on by a strain, Hudson Marchbank, Esq., the well-known farmer of this place, is again a strong, healthy man, and another grand cure for Dodd's Kidney Pills has been put on record. In an interview, Mr. Marchbank says:

"About five years ago I hurt my back from lifting, and it developed into kidney disease. My back pained me all the time, and I was very much troubled with headaches. My appetite was fitful; I had a bitter taste in my mouth in the mornings; I perspired freely and my perspiration had a disagreeable odor.

"I used liniments and plasters, but they did not do me any good, and as there were other symptoms that my kidneys were affected, I decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. After using two boxes, my back was completely cured, and my kidneys have not troubled me since."

When Mr. Marchbank decided that his kidneys were the cause of his troubles, the rest was easy. Almost any of his neighbors could tell him that Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure diseased kidneys.

KING TRAINS ELEPHANTS.

Royal Hobby of Ferdinand of Bulgaria. The Sovereigns of Europe have, and have had, some curious hobbies. The classic instance is, of course, "Citizen" Capet, who made watches and locks better than he could rule; and to-day, amongst others, the Kaiser has a distinct penchant for carpentry, while what King Christian does not know about the printer's craft is not worth knowing, says a despatch from Sofia to the London Standard.

It has remained, however, for King Ferdinand, of Bulgaria, to take up the strangest pastime of all—animal training. A little while ago the King, tiring of the ordinary methods of relieving his mind from the cares of State, invested in four elephants. And now he spends all his spare time teaching his giant pets all that an educated elephant is required to know. The four beasts are housed at a farm on the outskirts of Sofia, and every day King Ferdinand spends an hour or so with them, superintending their toilet and training them.

The King has brought his usual zeal and enthusiasm to bear on his hobby, and the consequence is that his elephants would do credit to a professional trainer. Not only do the pachyderms recognize their royal master when he visits them, but they can do several tricks at his bidding. The King is very proud of his pets, and whenever his Court is visited by anyone of distinction the royal guest is sure to be taken to the farm to admire the great beasts at their work and play.

Rescued After Two Weeks at Sea in Open Boat.

Survivors of the SS. Columbian, which exploded and burned off the coast of Halifax, in the open boat in which they drifted about for two weeks before being rescued by the revenue cutter Seneca. First Officer Tier is at the steering oar. The photo was taken as the boat came alongside the Seneca. When rescued the men had just enough food to last another day. This consisted of a few crumbs of bread and leather from their boots carefully tied in a handkerchief.

TEETHING BABIES

Teething time is usually a time of worry to mothers. It is usually accompanied by nervousness, stomach trouble and extreme fretfulness. The mother can avoid all this; she can have her baby pass through the dangerous teething time without pain or crossness. Baby's Own Tablets are the mother's greatest friend at this time. They sweeten the stomach, regulate the bowels, allay feverishness which usually accompanies the coming of new teeth, and in this way make teething easy. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

FLOATING NAVAL STATION

Can Be Sunk Out of Sight On Approach of Hostile Fleet.

For nations that need naval coaling stations in different parts of the world where they have no colonial possessions, a Russian inventor has designed a floating storehouse for fuel and other supplies. Manned by a small crew of men, the floating naval base can be towed to any advantageous position and anchored, ready to receive supplies from colliers and distribute them to warships. On the approach of a hostile fleet the entire naval base, crew and all, can be sunk out of sight, to reappear again as soon as danger is past. As patented, the floating storehouse is very much like a huge diving-bell, cylindrical in shape, with double walls and roof containing compressed-air tanks for regulating its height in the water. It has no bottom, except a wire netting, and is usually partly filled with water. All coal, petroleum and other naval supplies are received and stored in small watertight drums. From the receiving cranes on the roof the drums are moved to a well in the centre, lowered to the proper depth and shunted off through windows in the well upon concentric tracks, where they remain suspended in the water until needed. All the handling is done by automatic machinery.—Popular Mechanics.

A True Optimist.

Percival—Mr. Hemmandhaw is the most optimistic person I ever saw.

Penelope—Cheerful, eh?

Percival—Yes; even now, when he is slowly recovering from a fever, he sees a humorous side to everything.

Penelope—Which surely is fortunate.

Percival—I asked him what he was eating, and he told me the physician permitted him to have the water from two boiled eggs—

Penelope—The idea!

Percival—And he hoped soon to be able to add the holes out of a few doughnuts.

BABY COVERED WITH RASH

From Head to Foot. Itched and Burned. Disfiguring. Face and Arms Worst. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Cured.

Legere Corner, Moncton, N. B.—"When my baby was five months old he had a rash which used to trouble him very much. The rash was very bad and he was covered from head to foot. I got no rest day or night with him. It would itch and burn so much that he used to scratch till he used to bring the blood and then it would turn to a matted sore which disfigured him. The worst was his face and arms.

"I tried a good many different salves and soaps but to no use; he got no better. But after a while I thought I would try Cuticura Soap and Ointment and had only used them two or three times when I saw a great change. The sores dried up and came off and he was cured." (Signed) Mrs. George French, May 26, 1913.

For pimples and blackheads the following is a most effective and economical treatment: Gently smear the affected parts with Cuticura Ointment, on the end of the finger, but do not rub. Wash off the Cuticura Ointment in five minutes with Cuticura Soap and hot water and continue bathing for some minutes. This treatment is best on rising and retiring. At other times use Cuticura Soap freely for the toilet and bath, to assist in preventing inflammation, irritation and clogging of the pores. Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold everywhere. For a liberal free sample of each, with 32-p. book, send postcard to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. D, Boston, U. S. A.

CAUSE OF THUNDER

Thought to be Due to the Intense Heating of Gases.

For a long time it was supposed that the noise of thunder was caused by the closing up of the vacuum created by the passage of the lightning, the air rushing in from all sides with a clap; but the intensity of the noise is rather disproportionate, and it is now thought that thunder is due to the intense heating of gases, especially the gas of water vapor along the line of electric discharge, and the consequent conversion of suspended moisture into steam at enormous pressure. In this way the crackle with which a peal of thunder sometimes begins might be regarded as the sound of steam explosion on a small scale caused by discharges before the main flash. The rumble would be the overlapping steam explosions, and the final clap, which sounds loudest, would be the steam explosion nearest to the auditor. In the case of rumbling thunder the lightning is passing from cloud to cloud. When the flash passes from the clouds to the earth the clap is loudest at the beginning. One investigator has given substance to these suppositions by causing electric flashes to pass from point to point through terminals clothed in soaked coarse wool, and he succeeded in magnifying the crack of the electric spark to a startling extent. It is quite possible that further experiments will add to his findings.

A Success.

"Was the dear girl happily married?" asked the friend.

"Yes, indeed," answered Miss McGabble; "it was one of the happiest weddings I ever saw. I never saw so few duplicates among the presents of cut glass and silverware."

Minard's Liniment Lumberman's Friend

Mark Twain's Story.

Mark Twain, when in London, dined with a literary club, one of whose rules is that each member shall introduce his guest to the company formally and in set phrase. This custom appealed to Twain, and on being asked to return thanks he referred to it eulogistically. "I like it," he drawled, "for it reminds me of the time I lectured in a little town in the Rockies. My chairman was a well-to-do 'cow-puncher,' who found the situation evidently irksome. 'I'm told I must introduce this yer man t'ye, boys,' he said; 'but I can only say two things in his favor. One is that he's never been in jail, and the other is that I don't know why.' Then he sat down."

Some Job.

Mrs. Crabshaw—Haven't I taught you to put things in their right places?

Willie—Yes, mamma; but you never told me how I could find them afterward.

Brown—"How is it you let your wife have her own way so entirely?" Jones—"Because I once tried to stop her."

DATE FROM SOLOMON.

Jewish Tribe in Abyssinia Were Severely Persecuted.

How a small Jewish tribe lived for centuries in the heart of Abyssinia separated from the outside world and ignorant of its existence, and how, in the face of severe persecution, it managed to preserve its traditions and worship, was told to an audience in London by Dr. Jaques Faitlovitch, a well-known Abyssinian traveller.

Legend has it that the tribe first entered the country in the time of King Solomon, having migrated from Palestine in the train of the Queen of Sheba. They quickly adapted themselves to their new surroundings, married Abyssinian wives, whom they converted to Judaism, and lived on quite good terms with their neighbors. But from the beginning of the thirteenth century the Falashas, as the Jews were called, endured severe persecution until at last they dispersed in groups and families all over Abyssinia. Their existence was only revealed to the outside world 150 years ago by explorers. The object of the lecture was to arouse the sympathy of their coreligionists in England on their behalf.

Mother Told Him.

Edith was entertaining Mr. West, and little Sydney was hanging about. At last Edith told him it was time for him to retire. "Oh, can't I stay up a little longer, sister?" pleaded Sydney. "What do you want to sit up for?" asked Edith. "Why, I want to see you and Mr. West play cards," answered Sydney. Mr. West laughed. "But we are not going to play cards," said Edith. "Why," said Sydney, surprised, "mother said you were. I heard her tell you that everything depended on the way you played your cards to-night."

When a Woman Suffers With Chronic Backache

There is Trouble Ahead.

Constantly on their feet, attending to the wants of a large and exacting family, women often break down with nervous exhaustion.

In the stores, factories, and on a farm are weak, ailing women, dragged down with torturing backache and bearing down pains.

Such suffering isn't natural, but it's dangerous, because due to diseased kidneys.

The dizziness, insomnia, deranged menses and other symptoms of kidney complaint can't cure themselves, they require the assistance of Dr. Hamilton's Pills which go direct to the seat of the trouble.

To give vitality and power to the kidneys; to lend aid to the bladder and liver; to free the blood of poisons, probably there is no remedy so successful as Dr. Hamilton's Pills. For all womanly irregularities their merit is well known.

Because of their mild, soothing, and healing effect, Dr. Hamilton's Pills are safe, and are recommended for girls and women of all ages. 25 cents per box at all dealers. Refuse any substitute for Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Man-drake and Butternut.

Fastest Steamship Afloat.

The fastest steamship in the world is the new Russian torpedo destroyer Novik, which on her recent trial trip reached a mean speed of 37 knots over a measured mile and a maximum of 37.3 knots. On a continuous run for six hours she made a mean speed of 36.2 knots and 36.8 during the last three hours. Her boilers were fired exclusively with liquid fuel. No smoke issued from her stacks. She is a turbine-propelled vessel.

"Who were the foolish virgins?" asked a teacher of a little girl. "Those who weren't in time to be married," said the little daughter of Eve.

Not in the Pic.

"Chicken pie!" the customer exclaimed. "Chicken pie! Why, there's not a piece of chicken in it, and never was." "That's right, sir. There is no chicken in it." "Then why do you call it chicken pie?" "That's all right. There don't have to be chicken in a chicken pie. There's no dog in a dog biscuit, is there? And there's no college in college pudding."

Druid Catacombs Near London.

Eleven miles south-east of London, in Kent, a few years ago were discovered the catacombs of the ancient Druids, which are now much visited by sightseers and are lighted, for a part at least, by electric lights. Over fifty miles of chambers cut in the chalk cliffs have already been explored. The Druids lived in these catacombs when attacked by their northern enemies, and here they buried many of their dead. The stone on which the human sacrifices were made is still to be seen, and also the well, from which water is drawn to this day.

Life is not so short but there is always time enough for courtesy.
