IN HAYING TIME.

Run the mower under cover every day after you have done with it.

When the sky gets streaked, streak it for the barn with all the hay you have out.

Don't cut your meadows too close. Leave at least two inches of stubble.

The best place for the horse rake when not in use is away from sunshine, dew and rain.

Keep the mower knives and the scythes all sharp. Save your own strength and that of the horses.

Hay left on the wagon overnight pitches off quite a good deal harder. Get it off the same night if you can.

Rake the scatterings close every day. Left out, they are not worth a great deal. Even a little moisture hurts them.

Clover and timothy cut when in blossom make the best hay. The cattle think so, too, and that is why they never leave any of it in the manger.

Look out and do not get too big a mouthful. The machines of our day cut grass fast, and it takes time to cure it and get it up. Be moderate about mowing.

As nearly as you can clear up the fields at night. Then if you wake up in the night and hear it raining you can turn over and go to sleep without having to say, "Oh, dear; there's all that hay getting wet!"—Farm Journal.

A portable theater had been pitched in an out of the way spot where the prospective theatrical patrons were unsophisticated in matters dramatic. The players possessed the costumes for "Hamlet," and Shakespeare's tragedy was selected for representation. It then occurred to the proprietors of the show that the name might not attract, so they altered the title to "How the Steptfather Was Paid Out!"—London Mail.

MOTHERS!

What if this were your son?

An anxious, grief-stricken mother appealed to us recently. She wrote:

"I have a son fifteen years of age who has tuberculosis in one lung. I have not the means to give him the care he should have. The doctors say that with proper care and attention there is every hope that he might fully recover. I would be very thankful if he could be admitted to the Muskoka Free Hospital if possible."

Suppose that your son or your daughter were a consumptive. Suppose that he or she were pale and wasted and shaken by a hacking, strength-sapping cough. Suppose that you hadn't the money to provide the badly-needed medicine, nourishment, and skilled medical treatment. Think what a blessed relief it would be to you to know that the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives stands ready to help!

Contributions to the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives will be gratefully acknowledged by W. J. Gage, Chairman Executive Committee, 84 Spadina Avenue, or R. Dunbar, Secretary - Treasurer, 347 King Street West, Toronto.
