Public Lawyers.

From Canadian Courier.

Surely there is a great lesson to be learned from Lord Mersey's method of conducting an investigation. As Canadians, we must admit we are lacking in directness and thoroughness. Our law courts are still wound round and round with red tape. At times it seems as if the courts existed to prevent justice rather than to dispense justice. Our judges and our lawyers all display the same characteristics. It is a class fault, not an individual fault.

Some day Canada will adopt a system of public lawyers, hired by the state. These will be men who will, like Lord Mersey, brush aside technicalities instead of creating them. They will reduce the cost of legal procedure fifty per cent. Instead of taking one or two years to get a final decision in a big law suit, it will be delivered in a month or two.

A few days ago, the Jews of Toronto decided to establish a tribunal of their own, to settle all disputes between themselves cheaply and quickly. They find Canadian civil courts wholly unsatisfactory. This must be the case, so long as a lawyer is paid according to the number of letters he writes, the length of the brief he prepares, and the number of hours he appears in court.

They have come to public doctors in England, Canada must soon adopt a system of public doctors and public lawyers, so as to save both the nerves and the money of those who find it necessary to employ the services of these professions.

The Party Press

How much reliance can be placed upon the statements of partisan newspaper organs is illustrated by the appended clippings from the two Winnipeg morning papers of the same date:

"The splendid ovation to the Premier as he rose to speak, the marked interest with which his every word was listened to, was not only a worthy and deserved tribute to a great man, but a well-earned endorsement of the progressive policies that have marked the fourteen years of his administration."—The Telegram.

"Sir Rodmond, in starting to speak, had a difficult time in getting a favorable hearing. When he mentioned the name of T. C. Norris, the Liberal leader, the demonstration at the sound of the word 'Norris' was most remarkable. The cheering and applause was of the most energetic kind and was maintained for minutes, during which the Premier had to stand glum and silent."—The Free Press.

Both reports refer to the same incident. You pay your money and you take your choice.—Grain Growers' Guide.

Both the Telegram and the Free Press will undoubtedly join with the Ottawa Journal in urging the Government to make election day a public holiday, so that citizens who have been so morally delinquent as to neglect to vote may be impressed with the supreme importance of availing themselves of the blood-bought boon of the ballot, which they will devoutly mark according to the dictates of their consciences, guided by their perfectly reliable party newspapers.

Establish a Hatchery.

Sixty-five thousand bass fingerlings have been placed in local waters during the past month at points from Sturgeon Lake to Stony Lake. The young fish were brought from the Brantford hatchery. Sixty-five thousand look like a large number of bass to put into these waters, but it is not near the number that should be placed there if the supply of mature fish is to be kept up. There should be no further delay in establishing a hatchery at some one of the many suitable points on the Kawartha Lakes, so that young fry of both bass and maskinonge could be released every year in sufficient quantities to ensure an adequate restocking of the waters.

Army Worm Appears in Victoria

The Gazette is informed by Mr. Knight, District Representative at Lindsay of the Department of Agriculture, that a small outbreak of the army worm has been discovered on the farm of Mr. John Robertson, of the Scotch Line, South Verulam. So far the pest has been found on a two acre piece of corn. A part of this has been pretty well stripped and the worms are gradually working across the field. Steps are being taken to poison them and to prevent their spreading, by ploughing a furrow round the field, throwing the earth towards the corn. This method leaves the perpendicular side of the furrow on the outside and prevents the worms from climbing over. Holes should then be dug at intervals of a few rods along the furrow. The caterpillars fall into these and may then be easily destroyed. A word of caution should be put in here regarding poisoning. Any corn, hay or grain which has been sprayed will be unfit for stock food. This does not apply so much to roots.

As there is no saying where this pest may break out within the next few weeks every farmer in the county is warned to be on the watch. Anything of a suspicious nature should be reported at once to the Department of Agriculture, Lindsay. Experience in Brant county has shown that when once a foothold is secured it is almost impossible to check the progress of the pest.

When full grown the worm is about one and one-half inches long, of a dark gray color and striped with black, yellow and green shades. Specimens may be seen at the office of the Department of Agriculture, Lindsay.

County Warden's Outing

The steamer Lintonia went through the locks going north on Tuesday with a large crowd on the annual excursion of the warden of Victoria County. Concerning the outing the Lindsay Post says:

A large crowd were on board the Lintonia this morning as the guest of Warden A. J. Varcoe, at the Warden's annual outing. This year the trip was up through Sturgeon, Cameron and Balsam Lakes to Cobocook and return. Among the prominent citizens on board were Warden A. J. Varcoe and members of the County Council, John Carew, M. P. P., A. M. Fulton, Ex-Warden George Jordan who was the capable manager of the affair, Dr. A. E. Vrooman, G. H. Wilson, A. Gillies, Inspector Stevens, Inspector Broderick, Dr. Hall of Little Britain, Dr. Wood, Principal T. A. Kirkconnell, High County Constable Thornbury, T. H. Stinson, County Surveyor Smith, W. E. Agnew, Clerk of Ops, J. B. Weldon, Clerk of Mariposa, and a number of the members of Mariposa township council. Practically every gentleman present was accompanied by his wife, and all looked forward to a beautiful day on the water.

For some years Mr. G. A. Jordan has looked after the annual affair from start to finish and certainly leaves nothing to be desired. The invitations were issued some weeks ago, and practically everybody was on board this morning. Lunch will be served at a proper hour and during the whole day a three piece orchestra will play. The party expect to return to town about six o'clock this evening.

Women's Institute.

The regular meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Friday afternoon in the Kawartha grove, with Miss B. Abbott presiding. The regular business being disposed of a report of the annual meeting held in Lindsay was given by Mrs. (Dr.) Gould. The matter of holding a joint picnic of East and West Victoria was discussed, after which a reading was given by Mrs. Thomas Poulson, from the "Canadian Ladies Home Journal," being the first of the series of articles entitled, "Outstanding Events in Canadian History," published in that journal. A programme committee, consisting of Mrs. (Dr.) Gould, Mrs. A. Tiers and Miss M. Patten, was appointed. For the next meeting the subject selected was "The Influence of Environment." The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem, after which refreshments were served in picnic style.

Monaca Man Missing.

STRANGE DISAPPEARANCE OF WM. BROMAN PERPLEXES FAMILY AND FRIENDS.

Under the above heading the following despatch recently appeared in the Pittsburg, Pa., papers:—

MONACA.—Somewhat of a mystery is attached to the disappearance of William Broman, an ex-glassworker of this place. Mr. Broman was out at his chicken farm several miles from Baker's Yards last Friday, and when last seen was preparing his noon meal. Neighbourly neighbors declare that two men in an auto drove up and that it was thought that Broman was induced to enter the machine. A car answering the description was later seen near Koppel and a man who knows Broman declares that he saw him in company with a number of others board a north-bound train and that tickets had been purchased for Fenelon Falls, Ontario, Canada.

County Detective George D. Copeland is in the vicinity of the Falls and has been notified of the disappearance of the local man and instructed to keep watch for him there. It is expected that the missing man will be located within the next few days and it not believed that he will have suffered any harm.

The missing man has since been located and he has not suffered any harm and is not likely to. He is safe and sound at the Monaca Club camp at Fenelon Falls, where he turned up one fine day, having been unable to resist the unusual persuasive powers of the deputation that interviewed him on the subject of joining the rest of the party, who regrettably left Monaca without him, but found after a few days sojourn that the presence of "Old Bill" was absolutely indispensable to their complete happiness. Besides, the people of Fenelon Falls were disappointed because he wasn't with the crowd.

There passed away on Friday, July 3rd, a well known and respected resident of Verulam, in the person of Susannah Smith, relict of the late Chas. E. Tiers, aged 73 years and nine months. The deceased had been in her usual health and was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Thos. Patterson, when she was suddenly taken ill with pneumonia. Medical aid was summoned, but her heart became so weak that all efforts to save her were of no avail.

Mrs. Tiers spent her early days in Mariposa, afterwards settling in Verulam, where she lived for many years. She was of a kind and cheerful disposition, ever thoughtful of others, which won for her the highest esteem of her many friends. She leaves a family of six sons and five daughters, who will long cherish the memory of a loving and devoted mother. The sons are Emmerson of Toronto, Alfred of Fenelon Falls, George, William, Walter and James of Verulam.
