How Britain Faces Conflict.

From the Toronto Globe.

H. G. Wells, the noted author and scientist, in a remarkable analysis of the European conflict, says:—

"A last the intolerable tension is over and Europe is at war. The monstrous vanity that was begotten by the easy victories of 1870-71 has challenged the world. Germany prepares to reap the harvest Count Bismarck sowed—that trampling, drilling foolery in the heart of Europe that arrested civilization and darkened the hopes of mankind for forty years.

"German Imperialism, German militarism struck its inevitable blow. A victory for Germany will mean the permanent enthronement of the war god over all human affairs; the defeat of Germany may open the way to disarmament and peace throughout the earth. To those who love peace there can be no other hope in the present conflict than the defeat and utter discrediting of the German legions, ending for good and all the blood-and-iron superstition of the Krupp flag-wagging, Teutonic Kiplingism, and all that criminal and sham efficiency that centres in Berlin.

"Never was war so righteous as the war against Germany now; never any State in the world so clamored for punishment. But be it remembered Europe's quarrel is with Germany as a State, not the German people; with the system, not with the race. Older tradition in Germany is pacific, and the civilizing tradition and temperament of the mass of the German people is kindly sane and amiable. A disaster to the German army, if it is not accompanied by such a memorable wrong as dismemberment or intolerable indignity, will mean restoration for the greatest people in Europe to fellowship among the western nations. The role of England in this huge struggle is as plain as daylight; we have to fight if only on account of the Luxemburg outrage; we have to fight, for if we do not fight England will cease to be a country to be proud of. It will be a dirt bath to escape from. But it is inconceivable that we should not fight, and having fought, then in the hour of victory it will be for us to save the liberated Germans from vindictive treatment, to secure for this great people their right to 'a place in the sun' as one united German-speaking State. First, we have to save ourselves and Europe, and then we have to stand between the German on the one hand and Cossack revenge on the other."

Death of W. H. Robertson.

From the Peterboro Examiner.
W. H. Robertson, one of our oldest and best known citizens, died on Sunday afternoon at the family residence, 525 Water St. after a short illness. On Thursday last he was stricken down with a paralytic seizure. His condition grew worse till death ensued.

The deceased gentleman has been almost a life long resident of the city. He was born in Cobourg, but at a very early age removed with his father's family to Peterboro. At the age of 14 he entered the Review office, then conducted by Mr. Robert Romaine, to learn the printing business. In connection with the late Walter Welch he established the Times as a weekly. It was later developed into a daily, claimed to be the only morning newspaper between Toronto and Montreal. For a time Mr. Robertson also conducted with success the Canadian Agriculturist. He was successful in business, and is credited with having amassed considerable means. Personally he was popular, affable and obliging in disposition. Necessarily, in his position he took an active interest in public affairs, and was at one time a member of the town council, representing Ward No. 4 in 1879-80.

Mr. Robertson was twice married, first to a daughter of the late David Carlisle with issue, one daughter, Ruth Lillian. Five years after the death of his first wife Mr. Robertson, and Miss Eliza Brandon, of Fenelon Falls, were married and Mrs. Robertson and one daughter, Mattie, survive. He also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Wrightington of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mrs. Hamilton, city.

He late Mr. Robertson was independent in politics. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church and of the Orange Order.

The remains were interred in Fenelon Falls cemetery on Tuesday, August 4th.

Help It Along.

Twenty to twenty-five dollars will be required to make the poultry exhibit at the fall fair this year a show of birds each judged separately instead of in pairs as formerly. To secure this amount, subscriptions are being asked, and should be freely given, as the improvement is much needed, and has been made by all fair associations of any importance. It is impossible to place the awards on birds in pairs with any satisfaction. When an extra good bird is cooped with a poor one it is a manifest injustice to have to pass the extra good bird by and give the red ticket to a pair that average better; and after the prizes are awarded spectators who are looking for information do not get it accurately from a perusal of the tickets and an examination of the pairs that won. Besides, the work of the judge is made doubly hard. Mr. Trew of Lindsay, who placed the awards last year, urged very strongly that the birds should be shown singly at the fair this fall. Help it along.

Library Institute Meeting

The sixth annual meeting of the Lindsay District Library Institute was held in Beaverton on July 30th and 31st. A good attendance of representatives from the different public libraries in the district, which includes the counties of Victoria, Peterborough, Durham, Haliburton and Muskoka reported, and the Institute was a most pleasant and profitable affair. The new Carnegie Library at Beaverton was inspected by the delegates, who were much pleased with its up-to-date construction and appointments. The programme included splendid addresses on library topics by Miss Spereman, Government Cataloguer; Miss Mabel Dunham of Berlin Public Library; Mr. W. R. Nursey, Inspector Public Libraries; Dr. E. A. Hardy, Secretary of the Ontario Library Association, and Mr. O. A. Langley, President of the Institute, at Lakefield.

Mr. S. F. Farmer of Port Perry was elected President, and Mr. Langley of Lakefield, Secretary for the coming year. The next institute meeting will be held at Whitby.

Mickle & Dymant Mill Started.

Mickle & Dymant's big mill started cutting on Thursday of last week for the first time this season. There are not many logs on hand, but it is expected that the big drive now on its way down the Gull water's will soon be available. This drive is the largest that has been brought down in thirty years, and is being handled in three sections.

Cobocok Creamery Burned.

Cobocok creamery, owned by John Ham & Sons, was destroyed by fire on the afternoon of July 30th. The building and machinery were insured, but there was no insurance on the contents, and there was about $500 worth of butter in the creamery at the time of the fire, the cause of which is unknown.
