Cost of Adver-1 58 1 34 1 24 15 00 not in ty of Victoria, as directed ictoria, dated the Tenth of every of the above parcels man. That's what I'll do. ectively. as above set out th day of February, 1892. THOMAS MATCHETT.

Count y Treas

November, 1891.

1 28

1 83

of Lands

JDSAY rrant issued by the Mayor of I'm growed up a man, enticated by the corporate mber, 1891, and to me direct arcels of land for the arrears louse in the Town of Linds stroke my hair an' say much thereof as may be sthinks the times I talk about is pretty es incurred. Cost of Adver-Arrears. tising and

FRED. KNOWLSON.

Scientific America Agency for Splendidly illustrated. No intelligent ould be without it. Weekly, $3.00 to 50 six months. Address MUNN & CO ERS, 361 Broadway, New York.

AV

r lb. extra when traded.

G AS USUAL And you, dector?"

then wool is found:-

ool Check Flannel - 20c per Ya loth, from - - 30c - 30 to 50c. ets from $1 to $3.00 per pair.

ing and 10 cts for cotton.

RDING. n custom machine and w ever done. Price 5 cts. r greasing, of Woollen Goods, also the cheapest.

or rail, and on all lots of for ve will pay freight to mill (the es sending wool should alwage te a drum of it." get several parcels by seed you mustn't! It might be son! ght unless owners name be to be something."

e determined to give satisfe or our own trade, and will gu ve ever turned out.

Voollen Mills, Lindsay.

WHAT I WILL DO. I'm growed up to be man, tell you sealskin overcoat, an' ma'll av a house t' live in with ma an' say so." Til have a little fountain to sing an' all the grass an' flowers, an' pled mercelf-when I'm growed up a County of Victoria, at Eler I guess I'll have a horse an' rig to get a sparkle in her eyes, an' roses in youngest son?" 's kind o' pale an' hollow after workin' all drive out in the country to the where mother said ed to live, an see the place where and Jim is dead; buy the farm an' orchard back, steal the apples, too, with Dick, just for a lark, you bet, That's what I'll do.

want to talk an' plan di the bully times we'll have when his burry, and was gone before the le Dick and crippled Sue standin' an' stare and grin nth day of February, 1892 at mother'll shake her head an' smile, an' e'll tell me in a whisper to be brave I'm a man—an' you can bet your

That's what I'll do.

10 n I'm growed up a tall, strong man, 16 with arms like Walter Green, 16 coin' to work from morn till night, 42 and some time in between; 6 I don't want to have mother hard

16 tchin shirts an' mendin' rags, with 2 eyes an' fingers sore; I want to have her set right back an' 7 wear fine dresses, gay an' rich, like in ve Dick a rockin' horse, an' lots of Druce. Town Treasur do the mostest good I can-

That's what I'm goin' to dc. G. Rogers, in Detroit Free Press,

Continued from last week.

at was what the doctor was saying ungry brood home to the shelter haven't a minute to spare." dendidly illustrated. No intelligentia ivy-covered house, and—but , if they were to have a few brothers sisters, how should he find roast 189 on and potatoes for them all! That Bah! This isn't the time for love "Are you 331" said the doctor to himself. ing out to her that, after all, she no poorer than she had been before; then, leaving the widow in the he hurried back to the library, whether he himself was to have a few minutes he returned. he property goes to Miss Hawkins, id gr wely. "The house, and the and everything. She will be very I'm to have a hundred guineas," swered. "And really that ought bank account for you."

th, no, Dr. Darling!" cried the y see if my fly is there.

n-had not lost her old spirit.

Dr. Darling called on Mrs. property lies, is one of them." not for the first time since she ES, KNITTED GOODS, Eledow's eldest boy, burst into the lutely stamped her foot. with a sheet of parchment in his t's not very likely," said the ector, with a laugh. "By the added, "I meant to have asked we-did your father leave any reply. "He had been an invalid more or less all his life, and held an allowance from my grandfather. Neither my grandfather nor my poor father made eyes. any wills. I have heard my husband

The doctor nodded. He nad hoped nted, big verandy, an' kivered that something might have been due to the widow under her father's will, but her answer destroyed all hope.

"Ah! my poor lad," she continued, laying her hand on her son's shoulder, Til have a swingin' hammock for cripelder brother instead of the younger, what a difference it would have made to you !"

drive out mammy in, he can fatten up a bit—cos' mother's say that your father was Simon Dalton's left no will?"

None. The estate went to his eldest | three-do you see?" "As I live!"

"Oh, nothing, only an idea. I must think it over-and-good day, Ada-etimes, when I'm feelin' chirp, Mrs. Druce, I mean-good day." The doctor overturned his chair in wish him to think-to-" widow could recover from her surprise. away her head.

at Blatherwick—a loud knock was An action at law followed, and it was ardent support of total abstinence and his ever expects to be called upon to pay. heard at the door of Mrs. Druce's house decided in Mrs. Druce's favor. Before heartfelt interest in the condition of the Mrs. Edward Druce, being used to late daughters were installed in the manor him the love and respect of his religious London hours, was not yet out of her house. Mrs. Druce's happiness was so opponents. He has been a supporter of London hours, was not yet out of her house. Mrs. Druce's happiness was so opponents. He has been a supporter of the Home Rule movement, and has taken blind to see who the early visitors might her. The change from a life of wearing an active part in denouncing the course friend, the doctor, and a stout white fort and dignity had transformed her towards the Roman Catholic Church. The haired gentleman whom she did not into a new creature.

and saw her.

quite empty, yet---"

are past 30 aren't you?"

Mrs. Druce blushed furiously. She was very angry. She would have dropped the blind; but she knew that her blue dressing gown was very be-Why should I not? Why should I coming, and then-what could the doctor mean?

Meantime the doctor's companion mself. Why should he not sur had remonstrated with him, and the er himself to the influence of Mrs. street door had been opened; but Dr. ce's presence, of her mild, beseech- Darling shouted out-"You must come eyes, of the old associations around down at once, for Mr. Lamb must catch Why should he not take her and the 9.30 train to London, and we

"I'll be as quick as I can," said the was such a lot of them! And widow, as she dropped the blind.

ried to console his companion by Mrs. Druce with some dignity, "but-" it. "You will drive me mad?" shouted the doctor, "Are you 33?"

morrow."

"That'll do said the white haired old knee. gentleman, nodding like a toy mandarin. his hat frantically round his head.

"Don't be toe sure! There's many slip, you know. We're not out of the wood yet," said Mr. Lamb. And there- man.

with he departed. "Now, doctor, do tell me what all we gone to you rather than me, this is about, or whether you have Death of the Prince of the Church-Druce. Do let me pay it into taken leave of your senses," said the little widow. "Did you ever hear, Mrs. Druce of drawing herself up a little. "Thank the custom of Borough English?" died at $.20 this morning. He continued ery much; but I couldn't possibly "Never in my life. It is a grand old to grow weaker during the night until your legacy. It would be taking custom." "It's a grand old English finally his prostration became complete. per yard for cotton; doubley out of your pocket. Will you custom, my dear—that is, I beg your He was able, however, to join in the pardon I'm sure—a fine old English prayers which were being offered at his Trusses, Artificial Limbs & Apthe doctor as he uttered some in-ct apology, blushed too; but he bleased to think that Ada Dalton in which the old custom of Borough bleased to think that Ada Dalton in which the old custom of Borough passed away evidently with pain. Telealways thought of her as Ada English prevails. The borough of grams of regret from all parts of the world Blatherwick, within the ancient boun- are being received. ON SHORTEST NOTICE out a week after the squire's daries of which your grandfather's one to stay with her mother-in- cried Mrs. Druce. In her impatient the newly discovered beiress opened her

"She will do very well now; joy very seldom kills people," said Dr. Darling. "Good-day; I'll look in again to-morrow, speaking in a very faint voice. "Don't of Rome. This was soon after the arrival go yet. I want-to know-why you in England of Cardinal Wiseman as Archwanted so much-to learn-my age !" that's our solicitor here, you know-was He was appointed rector of St. Helen and from home yesterday. I knocked him St. Mary's, Bayswater, where he estabup early this morning and told him lished a House of Oblats of St. Charles what I thought. He agreed with me on Borromeo, an association of secular mis-"The younger!" exclaimed the doctor the main point, but was afraid that sionaries founded in the 16th century. grandfather died but the time, twelve "Yes, unfortunately for us, he was." years, would only begin to run, he said "And his father, your grandfather, from the day you were twenty one years old. Twelve and twenty-one, thirty-son my uncle Jonathan, at his death." "But I thought," said the widow, a memorial cathedral to Cardinal Wisehanging her head and speaking in a "What is it, Dr. Darling? What do voice that was fainter than ever-"I thought you knew my age exactly." The doctor looked a little embarrassed

"Oh!" said Mrs. Druce, as she turned

As the doctor was about to salute the inheritance, was to settle £300 a year settled the great dock labourers' stike in door for the fourth time, he glanced up, on Georgiana Hawkins. That young that year. As an author Cardinal Mannlady had insisted on fighting the case; ing is well known-The Temperance "Oh! it was you we wanted to see," she could not be made to understand Misson of the Hely Ghest' (1865); 'The he called out "Tell me, Ada, how old that the late squire's will could avail her are you?" Her window was open at the nothing, for the simple reason that, Four-fold Sovereignty of God' (1871); and top, and she heard quite plainly enough. beyond a few hundred pounds in the True Story of the Vatican Council, "He must be mad!" thought Mrs. bank, he had nothing to leave her. being his most famous works.] The Manor Cross property had never To bawl out such a question in the by right belonged to him; and as he had street. Thank goodness the street is systematically spent the rents in improving and enlarging the estates, he "Do tell me, how old are you? You had but little personal property. Georgiana took the £300 a year, and went on abusing her more fortunate cousin, behind her back. As for Mr. Walter Grigsby, he prudently and deftly backed out of his engagement at an early date after the serving of the writ in Mrs. Druce's action of ejectment.

Curiously enough, the health of Mrs. Dealer in Fresh and Salt Meats Druce's children, which had been vastly Orders delivered to any part of the town improved by their stay at Blatherwick, seemed to deteriorate after they were removed to the manor house. At least, it was remarked that Mrs. Druce was constantly sending for Dr. Darling to look at Edith's threat, or plaster Tommy's broken head, or something of that sort. The doctor was a shy man, "Now please, Ada, how old are you?" and his old sweetheart was now a great were the words with which Dr. Darling lady, and it was some time before he ASSETS, greeted her when she entered the roum | could be made to understand that the SURPLES, (by Canadian Standard) 7,600,000 Are you 33 ?"

"I don't know why you ask," began ever, he was compelled to understand MEW POLICIES, 1890 "I wish you would stay here always, Dr. Darling," said Ada the younger, "No-not till the day after to- with whom the doctor was a great favorite, one day, as she stood at his to say, and Dr. Darling said it like a

CARDINAL MANNING,

Passed Away Quietly and Without

LONDON, Jan. 14 .- Cardinal Manning

SKETCH OF HIS LIFE. [His Eminence Henry Edward Manning | Crutches. "But you haven't said what it is!" Cardinal Priest of the Holy Roman Church at Totteridge, Hertfordshire, on July 15, As the 'wo sat together, Alfred. curiosity the meek little woman abso- 1808, the son of William Manning, merchant and member of Parliament. He was "It is a custom,' said the doctor educated as a member of the Anglican descends, not to the oldest son, in the of the select preachers in the Univerity. grandpa's old office. I'm goin' common place, jog trot way, but (by a Four years after obtaining his degrees he grand law of contraries) to the youngest was appointed rector of Lavington and Grafibam, in Sussex, and in 1840 he was made archdeacon of Chichester. When "It is more than possible. It's a fact." the Tractarian movement asserted itself, himself into the fight. He published two "Then you, not your uncle Jonathan, volumes of sermons in 1842 and 1846 were the real heirs to your grandfather respectively, and his "Sermons Preached before the University of Ox, and" attracted much attention. The Gorham decision of E grand, edied forth a strong declaration from him that unless that decision was required at would be of binding force upon the English Church. WENT OVER TO ROME.

But the action of the court was acquiesced in, and in 1851 Dr. Manning gave up " Doctor ! said Mrs. Edward D. uce. his preferments and seceded to the Church hishop of Westminister. He went to "Oh, I see! Well, Mr. Lamb- Rome for three years, and in 1857 was

HIS EXTENSIVE WORK.

He immediately set about promoting temperance, benevolent guilds, and elementary education among the Catholic poor of London. He purchased a site for man, but declared that not one stone of this edifice should be laid till every poor child in his flock was provided with a Catholic free school. In 1871 he concerved the project of a Catholic university, "I had very little doubt myself," he said and in 1874 he saw his idea realized. In nervously; "but Mr. Lamb-I did not 1875 Archbishop Manning was created cardinal priest of Saints Andrew and Gregory on the Coehon Hill. While Cardinal Manning has never taken a very active part in policies his influence has be. To her amazement, she saw her anxiety and sorded care to one of com- pursued by Germany and Switzerland attracted public attention was in 1889, Her first act, after entering upon her when he served on the committee which 'England and Christendom' (1867); 'The

TULLY,

-5th door east of the market.

Life Assurance Company.

$35,993 002 117,656,381

ENBOWNMENTS

21,286,702

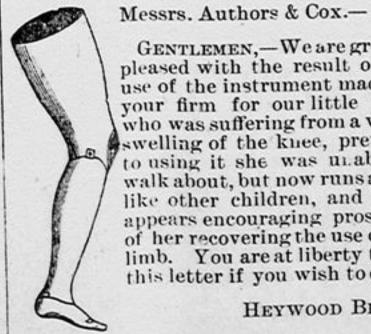

The Government Reports for years "I should be very glad if he did," past show that the ÆTNA LIFE has paid "Hurrah!" cried Dr. Darling, waving head. said r. da the eider, hanging down her to living policy holders in Canada a lar ger sum in settlement of MATURED After that there was but one thing ENDOWMENTS than that paid by Canadian and British Companies combined. No better evidence is required of the value and popularity of the ÆTNA EN-DOWMENT Policies.

> Cash Dividends paid Every year JOH D. MACMURCHY General Agent.

pliances for all deformities of thh Human Body.

Spinal Disease, Hip Joint Disease Diseases of the Knee and Ankle, Knock

121 CHURCH STREET! TORONTO.

GENTLEMEN, -We are greatly pleased with the result of the use of the instrument made by your firm for our little niece who was suffering from a white swelling of the knee, previous to using it she was unable to walk about, but now runs about like other children, and there appears encouraging prospects of her recovering the use of the limb. You are at liberty to use this letter if you wish to do so

HEYWOOD BROS.

This little girl would doubtless have lost her leg, only knowing what to do and how to do it we cared her. Nov. 1890-46-19,

Of course there was abundance of which left the doctrine of the effect of baptism an open question in the Church baptism and collect forth a strong decision.

LARDINE MACHINE OIL.

Farmers, Threshers and Mill Men generally should try the celebrated LARDINE MACHINE OIL. It does not Gum or Clog Machines, and wears equal to Castor Oil.

McCOLLS - CYLINDER

starting up from his seat. I always some horrible statute of limitations When Cardinal Wiseman died in 1865 Lr. Guaranteed to be better and cheaper than Tallow. Try above Oils

McColl Bros. & Co.,

Toronto.

WHICH WILL YOU HAVE?

The latest Blue Book shows that after providing for all liabilities the surplus of the ROYAL CANADIAN for the protection of its policy holders at the close of last year was $509,074, besides stock to the amount of another $100,000 subscribed but not called up.

always been greatly feit in any cause The same Blue Book shows that the surplus of the London Mutual was $67,176 an' stare and grin which he has felt it his duty to help. His composed entirely of the unassessed portion of premium notes which no policy holds and it was a long to the long a loud knock, twice or thrice repeated. Christmas the widow, her sons and poor have been, perhaps, the distinguish-

Year.	Losses unpaid at close of each year.	Cash available for paying losses at close of each year.	Money Borrowed	Surplus reckoning premium notes at full face yalue.	Investments each year.
1885	$6,047	$63,963	None	$101,816	None
1886	9,878	50,686	None	115,955	$6,500
1887	12,455	22,701	$20,000	97,268	8,000
1888	23,014	20,721	40,000	75,334	None
1889	20,436	13,911	40,000	74,068	9,028
1530	26,182	1,403	60,000	67,176	11,797

It should be borne in mind that during the last three years the London Mutual collected in heavy assessments over $30.000 more than usual, and yet at the close of last year, after collecting a full year's income, they had only $1,403 with which to pay $26,182 of unsettled losses. In regard to security no one should hesitate as to which company to select.

S. CORNEIL, Agent Royal Canadian Company.

Lindsay, July 22, 1891

W. HETTGER

as removed to the store lately occupied by Mrs Gemsjager east of the Benson House, where he will keep a large stock of Fancy Goods, Wools, Embroideries, silks and all kuds of Goods in that line.

STAMPING DONE TO ORDER

DYEING and Scouring promptly and neatly executed

A. W. HETTGER.

FALL AND WINTER

MISS O'BRIEN

has opened an assortment of the LATEST STYLES IN HATS AND BONNETS,

TRIMMING EFFECTS, ETC.,

Knee, Bow Legs, Club Feet, etc. Also and invites the inspection of the ladies. Many of the new styles are pronounced very handsome, and are really moderate in price.

MISS O'BRIEN

Three Doors East of Benson House,

ONLY 50 CENTS PER ANNUM,

WALLACE.

Manager.

ad nothing to leave," was the solemnly, "by which the real estate of Church at Harrow and at Balliol College, here did you get that, Alf?" solemny, by which the real estate of Oxford, graduating in 1830. He was

Mrs. Druce had tainted.