Ostrich Dan is Dead.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 17.—Dan, the male ostrich of Robinson's circus, wintering here, died yesterday of la grippe, with which he was seized some days ago. A post morten was held. The lungs were found congested, and the throat was enlarged and ulcerated, while firm!y fastened in the coating of the stomach the $800 diamond that Dan picked last summer from a gentleman's shirt front in Montreal was found imbedded. The stomach was 18 inches in diameter.

A Brave Girl's Heroic Rescue.

PORT HOPE, Jan. 17.—Thomas Miller of Douro was crossing Croggin's Lake on foot when he broke through the ice in about 35 feet of water. After breaking about 25 feet of ice in his efforts to reach the shore he was almost perished with the cold and would never have seen the shore if Miss Kate Forbes, who saw his danger, had not come to the rescue. Though the vanced, heedless of the cries of Mr. Miller that she was in danger, and extending a fshing rod to him drew him exhausted and chilled to the bone to the shore. Mr. Miller's cries had been heard by Miss 200 A 1.8. Fall particulars Fig. 10 A 1.8. Forbes, whose home is about 300 yards from the spot where he fell through the
