VERY CLOSE CONTEST IN TORONTO

Warring Kennedy Elected By 14, the Smallest Majority Ever Known in the Queen City - Results of the Polling From Other Towns and Cities Throughout the Province.

Toronto, Jan. 8 .- Out of a total polled vote of 20,508, Warring Kennedy was yesterday re-elected Mayor of Toronto by a majority of 14.

If the contest were represented by a race between two horses on the Woodbine track it would have been rare sport to witness the event. From the time the figures began to come in until -the final return gave Kennedy his small majority, the two mayoralty race horses perceptible in a horse race.

60 for either contestant. When is stated that there were 157 polling subdivisions, some idea of the closeness of the run can be had.

With all the polling places heard from excepting No. 9 in the Second Ward, the tally stood 39 for Kennedy. It is known by both sides that thise subdivision would give Fleming a majority, but to the 15 minutes delay in securing the 14 majority.
