We, the members of Court Reaboro No. 557, C.O.F., desire to express heartfelt sympathy with you as it has pleased the Almighty God in his kind providence to leprive you of your kind husband and a oving father from this earth by the hand of death. We trust that you will not illow this truth of your most high God to cause you to waver or falter, but to give ou wisdom and discretion to train those two dear children who are left entirely to of righteuousness and truth. Our late brother has been the chaplain of our Court for the past two years and his death causes a vacancy that will be hard to fill. He was loved and respected by all who knew him, and his removal will make a blank in ORGANS, PIANOS AND your life and home, and we, his brethren, deeply sympathise with you in your words, but we wish to assure you of the heartfelt sympathy of every member of the Court.
