JUST A WORD

The most discriminate smoker finds more cigar virtue in our brands than in any A HIGINBOTHAM, other Cigars sold in the town. These goods are made for us by expert hands from the best of material, so that in buying of us you get the very cream of Cigar perfection. We carry all popular makes, giving us a stock which for variety and extensiveness is not surpassed in the

CARROLLS

GPR CPR CPR CPR CPR CPR

CANADIAN O PACIFIC KY.

TRAVELLING COMFORT

RS.

es Edwin n, in the died on or 1898, are to L. V. aid John addresses hims and hem. The th day of assets of among the aid shall thereof so hereof so ime of the or for John

By-law

therein

of a site actory in ing them lant and day of

n Solicitor

Is the title of a handsome little Booklet just issued, descriptive of a Canadian Pacific CPR Tourist Sleeper. It contains interesting in- CPR formation for anyone contem-CPR plating a trip to Kootenay, CPR Cariboo or Pacific Coast points. A copy may be obtained free from your nearest agent.

E. McPHERSON, Assistant General Passenger Agent, 1 King CPR C. MATCHETI, Agent, 52

CARD OF THANKS

The very large increase of success that has attended our business the past year impels us to express our hanks to our many patrons.

We have endeavored to give as good a dollar's value for every dollar spent as you will get anywhere, and in the coming year, as in the past, we shall maintain our standard for ABSOLUTE RELIABILITY.

GEO. W. BEALL,

Watchmakers, Engravers, Opticians.

RONS WE WISH

-A Happy and-

Prosperous New

A GOOD RESOLUTION

-FOR 1899-

IS TO BUY

-BOX STOVES,

-COAL HEATERS, -DOUBLE WOOD HEATERS,

-COOKING STOVES -AND RANGES.

Clearing Out at Cost Big Stocktaking Sale Now is the Best

HARDWARE

PERS.

-Cold Blast LANTERNS, etc.

DIMUINING

57 Kent Street.

may be issue of Phone 52

Your Doctor

says that Medicines are the weapons with which he fights disease and everything depends upon their pur-ity and freshness. We keep the to use. It is reliable. When we compound a prescription it can be depended on to do the work intended the barn was saved only by the help of neighbors. by the doctor.

Next Door to the Daly House

The Watchman.

THURSDAY, JAN. 5th, 1899

LITTLELOCAL LINES

-Special attention paid to repairing watches and jewelry at HUGHAN & Co's. -Don't forget the date of "Ye Golden Wedding" in the Academy of Music on the 19th inst. Prices, 15c, 25c, and 35c. -The best photos, to be had in Lindsay are made by E. WILLIAMSON, the photographer, foot of Kent-st.-38-tf.

-Under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. will be held an entertainment "Ye Golden Wedding" in the Academy of Music on the 19th inst.

-It is said that the snipe has a nerce running clear down to the end of its bill. Some of our delinquent subscribers must be that kind of a bird, too.

-Lost, on Tuesday, a small black Cocker Spaniel bitch. Finder will be suitably rewarded by returning to JAMES LAWDER, Lindsay. -Prof. E. Stone Wiggins announ ce that he has gone out of the business as a weather prophet owing to the lack of popular appreciation. -We have to thank Mr. T. W. Greer, district agent for the Ontario Accident Ins. Co., for a very handsome calendar, having a large map of the Dominion of CPR | Canada and Newfoundland. See them. tailors, foot of Kent-st., announces change in their business. Commencing the first of the new year they purpose giving made-to-measure clothing at readymade prices. See their advt. next week for list of prices.

Our readers can at this time of the year give us a strong helping hand in three ways, especially: (1) by renewing three ways, especially: (2) by sending the ways at the hostelry of mine host McConnell. Friday ing information worthy of permanent preservatheir subscription at once; (2) by sending one or two names in with their own; and (3) by putting in a word, as occasions offer, from an animated discussion of oyster for THE WATCHMAN.

Horticultural Society for the election of president and board of directors for 1899. Quantities of the fowl and bivalve their organizing ability by great business sucwill be held in the council chamber, on executed a mysterious disappearance, but Wednesday, January 11th, at 7.30 p.m. this fact in no way distracted from the All the subscribers for this year are re- high character of the after-dinner speeches -The annual meeting of the South Victoria Agricultural Society will be held in the council chamber, Lindsay, on Wednesday, Jan. 18th, at 1 p.m., for the purpose of electing a president and other officers and receiving statements of receipts and

-The Cambridge-st. Methodist Sunday school anniversary services will be held on garments for 25c. Sunday and Monday next, 8th and 9th. Sunday Rev. S. J. Shorey will preach morning and evening, and Monday even-ing the children will enjoy their annual

-"Travelling Comfort" is the title of a neat little illustrated booklet issued by the C.P.R. In it is described the many luxuries attached to travelling in a tourist sleeper over this world-famed line of railway. Copies of the book can be had from

-Prof. Corbett, the world-renowned $50. All races open to trotters and pacers. Phrenologist, is in town and can be consulted daily at 10 William-st, north, from 2 to 9 p. m. This is an excellent opportunity for parents to find out what their children are best fitted for. Lessons in Phrenology and Hypnotism. Terms reasonable. -53-2.

-"From Egypt to the Holy Land," is the title of the lecture to be delivered by the Rev. Mungo Frazer of Hamilton in St. Andrew's church on Thursday evening, Feb. 16th. The ladies are fo be congratulated in having secured the services of Mr. Frazer, and his coming will be looked forward to with pleasure by those who forward to with pleasure by those who have heard him before and also by those with their parents, 173 Kent-st. the church is to begin the year with good resolutions, born of sorrow for past iaults and -Any farmer who allows a stray animal to remain about his premises and gives no New Years with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will he not try every means in his power to public notice of it through a newspaper, does what is hardly fair to the owner, who may spend many days driving about the country looking for the stray animal. In addition to this, he is liable to a fine of $20. All this may be prevented by prompt advertising of the stray beast in THE

-The United States Postmaster-General Oakwood. has signed an order accepting as private mailing cards both the Canadian mailing cards bearing the United States stamps, and mailed on this side of the line, and the United States cards mailed in Canada with Canadian postage. This is the result of a reciprocal arrangement between this and the Canadian governments, looking to avoid considerable annoyance in refusing postal transmission where travellers both ways write home on cards of their own country.

which send me THE WATCHMAN and Farmers' Sun for one year. I have seen a copy of THE WATCHMAN here and like it eighteen years ago from the David Walker section of Ops township, and have followed farming ever since. This year I threshed 5,400 bushels of No. 1 hard wheat from 250 acres, and sold it for 56c per bushel. I like this country, but still have a warm of the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Pogue of Little Britain, and with friends at Dunsford. She returned home Thursday.

—Mr. Albert Atchinson, general merchant at Highland Country at Highland Country and With friends at Dunsford. She returned home Thursday. Time to buy Stoves Place in my heart for Victoria county, and want to know what is going on in that grand old town of Lindsay.

-In his address to the jury at the December sessions Judge Ardagh of man, and it is a shame that cruelty towards such an animal is tolerated. In -Everything in the Hardware fact the law takes notice of it and makes provisions for the severe punishment of Ball Bearing HORSE CLIP- beating, binding, or otherwise ill-treating day in the Methodist church, and also gave coming year, try to live as true servants of cattle, poultry, dogs, or any domestic two solos at the cantata Monday night. our Lord. Let thy voice cease from weeping; animal." This section is quite wide About three weeks ago they sang with much let thy heart be pure and strong in the love of enough to warrant magistrates in punish-

> -The home of Mr. H. Seymour, Bobcay- their singing much appreciated. geon, was the scene of a happy Christmas gathering on Sunday and Monday last gathering on Sunday and Monday last. There were present seven children, seven grand-children, three sons-in-law and two daughters-in-law. These were: Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Moore and daughters. Myra and Lens, of Peterboro; Mr. and Mrs. T. Cashone of Fenelon Falls; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Lane and baby Marion of Peterboro; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Seymour and children Perey, Harry, Eva and baby Willie of Verulam; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Seymour and the Misses Seymour. Mr. and Mrs. Seymour were the recipients of many costly and useful Christmas presents.
>
> A mong those who gave The Walth and Children at Christmas were: S. Coad, Oakwood; James Casey, Valentia; Charles Asey, Valentia; Charles Peel, Dunsford; Joseph Daniel, Cambray; Horatio Moore, Ops; P. Carlin, Ops; Isaac McKee, Little Britain; R. Eakins, Glandine; Jacob Snelgrove, Little Britain; Children's Ribbed Wool Vests partly damaged. Here's how we sell them:—Seymour were the recipients of many costly and useful Christmas presents.
>
> A mong those who gave The Walth and Children at Christmas Casey, Valentia; Charles Asey, Valentia; Charles Peel, Dunsford; Joseph Daniel, Cambray; Horatio Moore, Ops; P. Carlin, Ops; Isaac McKee, Little Britain; R. Eakins, Glandine; Jacob Snelgrove, Little Britain; Glandine; Jacob Snelgrove, Little Britain; Charles Peel, Dunsford; Joseph Daniel, Cambray; Horatio Moore, Ops; P. Carlin, Ops; Isaac McKee, Little Britain; R. Eakins, Glandine; Jacob Snelgrove, Little Britain; Glandine; Jacob Snelgrove, Little Britain; Ghildren's Ribbed Wool Vests partly damaged. Here's how we sell them:—Seymour were the recipients of many costly and useful Christmas presents.
>
> Dundas & Flavelle Bros.

LITTLE LOCAL LINES

-The annual convention of the Butter and Cheese Association of Eastern Ontario will be held in: Kingston next | yard. The season is nearly over, so we week, Jan. 10, 11 and 12. -About 5 o'clock on Tuesday morning Mr. Timothy Roach, who lives just east of the town, put a fire in his kitchen stove kind of ammunition your doctor likes and went to the barn. In a short time

-Mrs. Henry Evans, aged 79, mother of held at the office of the association, 72 King-Mrs. W. A. Goodwin, town, died in st. east, Toronto, on the 21st inst., to consider Cobourg on Monday of last week. Four a recommendation to apply to Parliament, hours later her sister, Mrs. Geo. Grieve, asking for an amendment to the charter died suddenly aged 77 years. It is not increasing the capital of the company to often that two so intimately related in $1,000,000, enlarging the plans and enabling life are parted for such a short time in the company to do a general life insurance

-Monday news was received by Mr. of the company with the government. The W. J. Barnes of the death of his father, proposition was unanimously approved of by Mr. George Barnes, at Walsham, Nor-folk county, England, on Oct. 6th last, aged 62 years. The deceased will be remembered by many of our citizens, having some years ago been engaged in the tailoring business in Lindsay.

-The annual reception in the Y.M.C.A. rooms was held on Monday evening. Refreshments were served by the Ladies' specialty of goods intended for holiday pre-Auxiliary and afterwards a very interesting program was rendered. Miss Mitchell stocks, and were entitled to the designation and Mr. W. Robson sang solos, Miss blue." In one or two instances the stocks Bowes recited, Messrs C. Walters and were valued at more than $250,000. The Prof. Corlett gave several selections on noticeable thing about each of the collapsed he violin and banjo. The main feature of the program was an illustrated lecture on "Heads and Faces" by Prof. Corlett. Alderman Horn occupied the chair and contributed a reading. The new secretary, Mr. Walker, made a few pleasant of closing the night before Christmas. They remarks that were well received.

-Speaking of the good roads movement, the Kincaroine Review suggests that what is needed now is a movement to keep roads good in winter. Pathmasters should be compelled to keep his beat in order, winter and summer. At present that person thinks his duty performed as soon as the 50c per yd, 75c and 85c values. annual picnic of statute labor is performed. After every storm he ought to call out those under his jurisdiction to break the roads, and when "slews" and "pitch-holes" occur it ought to be his duty to abolish them. Farmers would only be too glad to 1898 contains 256 pages of reading matter, help him if this work was credited to statute labor account. Better than all, however, would be the abolition of the full page views. It is a hand-book of informa--Messrs. Blair & Sons, merchant high rail and board fences that causes the tion on all questions of the day-not an snow-drifts and pitch holes which paralyze almanac, but a philosophic presentation of the traffic on our leading highways every essential facts of progress the world over,

-We have heard somewhere that arranged for reference purposes. With this, it there was a sound of revelry by combines the features of a dictionary of gennight." It transpires that the nocturnal eral biography and a portait gallery of national was the night upon which these alleged disturbances were heard, and they arose soup and poultry by the aforesaid juven--The annual meeting of the Lindsay lies and their guests, the staff. Under the deft manipulation of our boys large or their ability to be on deck next morning. THE WATCHMAM is all right, and so are THE WATCHMAN carrier boys.

UNDERWEAR

-Clearing prices on Ladies and Eddy & Co., which has its ramification in Children's Ribbed Underwear. 40c almost every port of the world. Mr. Flint garments slightly soiled, for 18c; 50c tells very openly what makes for success in the organization of business. His article may

DUNDAS & FLAVELLE BROS. SPORTING NOTES

-The twenty-ninth annual meeting of the Port Perry trotting association will be held on the ice at Lake Scugog on Jan. 10 and 11, 1899 A first-class kite-shaped mile track is colored, all marked at half price, $7 being prepared. First day-Open to horses owned in Scugog, $25; three-minute race, the local agent, Mr. T. C. Matchett, 52 $100; 2 24 class, $100. Second day-Freefor-all, $125; 2.35 class, $100; Green race,

PERSONAL

-Miss Ferris, teacher at Minden, spent her holidays under the parental roof, town. -Miss Neill spent New Year's with Brant-

Mr. Jer. Britton of Montreal spent a couple of days of this week in town. -Mr. John Kennedy, who has been serious- of redemption. The spirit of the world is to ly ill with pneumonia for some time past, is derive riches and pleasure alone from time, to able to be around again. -Mr. F. C. Gillis, teacher, Minden and of their happiness here below. The spirit of Goodby, dear."-Berlin Correspondence.

with their parents, 173 Kent-st. -Miss Keith, trained nurse, Toronto, spent

-Mr. J. Robertson of Ops, accompanied by him against evil companions? And what his mother, left Friday to spend the New Year mother can be more tender, and what guide with relatives at Morriston, Ont.

-Mr. J. A. Glass of Fairbairn, Verulam, which places in our hands every grace to help was in town Tuesday, on his way home from a us against temptations. Let us thank God for week's visit with friends at Littie Britan and having made us children of the true faith and worthy of being true children of such a mother. Let us look back on our past, and how many -Mr. Brodie Martin, of the local Bell Telephone exchange, has been promoted to the Kingston office. He will be missed in of us can think with untroubled minds or feel sporting circles.

Matthews, town, has gone to Winnipeg to take waste in sin," if St. Paul said "He labored all charge of one of the leading Baptist churches his life in the fear of death," what must be our

-Messrs. B. Daniel of Stratford and C. in order," for thou shall die and not live. -Mr. Matthew Morrison. Neche P.O., Daniel of Dunnville, Ont., spent the Christmas Twelve months ago to-day the sun shone out holidays with relatives at Powles' Corners on many a bright face, which to-day is buried follows: "Enclosed find one dollar, for The boys are welcome annual visitors in that

-Mrs. J. J. McCullum of New Toronto spent the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Poque of Little Prints, with mirth and laughter that has been withdrawn; many a voice sang with mirth and laughter that has been withdrawn; not be here when another New Year dawns. taken from the holy writ, but when that time was in town Tuesday on business, and gave THE WATCHMAN a call. Mr. Atcheson does a very large trade in wood and telegraph have past, if we have been tepid in prayer, neglectful in devotion, or wanting in charity poles, and reports business brisk.

-Mr. A. B. Townsend of Burnt River, Barrie referred to cruelty to animals, and collector of taxes for the township of Somerespecially to the cruel treatment many boys give their dogs attached to sleighs. The Watchman to renew his subscription. The dog is the only animal," he said, Mr. Townsend is a capable official, and the better in word and deed. Let us, if addicted Eliza Little, second daughter of Mr. John "that will leave his own kind and stick to township is to be congratulated on having him to any vice, try to overcome its bad effects, Little.

-The Pepper twins, masters Alvin and any in this congregation given to this sin, Orvin, spent Sunday and Monday in Sunder- make good resolutions to shun such a terrible acceptance at the concert in the same village. God, then shalt thou hear those words from The boys are very popular in Sunderland, and our divine Lord : " Well done, thou good and

-Among those who gave THE WATCHMAN a call Saturday were: S. Coad, Oakwood; enter into the joy of the Lord," and this is the blessing I wish you all on this New Year's

1,000 YARDS

ADVERTISE-OR BUST

150 YARDS

concise, clearly written, and conveniently

40 cents. Samples 10 cents. Specimen pages

free. New England Publishing Co., 3 Somer-cesses tell their secrets of organization, is the object of the editor of The Cosmopolitan.

That he is succeeding, is proved in the January issue by the article from Charles R. Flint, who is regarded in New York as one of the head of the great mereantile house of Flint, be read with interest by the Rockefellers, the Armours, and the Wanamakers as well as by

MISSES' JACKETS

Jackets for $3.50, $8 Jackets for $4.

DUNDAS & FLAVELLE BROS.

SERMON BY REV. FATHER PHELAN ON

NEW YEAR'S

Subjoined is a synopsis of sermon by Rev.

Father Phelan on New Year's morning in St.

Mary's church. "The year of my redemption has come." Let us, my dear brethren, during this New Year of grace, make amends for the past and good resolutions for the future year, which begins for us to-day, Moses called it the Lord's year, the year of remission, the year negligences, How much love and sympathy will not a loving father show for an erring son more secure than our holy mother church, of the true church, and let us prove ourselves

'It is appointed unto all men to die," words comes, we know not. Oh! death how bitter thou art! During the year and the time that towards our neighbor; let us in this coming year make amends for our sins by a more care-ful rule of life, let us have purity of intention especially the vice of gambling. If there are faithful servant; because thou has been faithful over few things, I will place thee over many

-To have the men who have demonstrated set-St., Boston, Mass.

secret of business success.

The pick of our silk stock, Japanese,

This 1,000 yards of dress goods was Prices in the Mantle department all bought to sell for 35c, 40c and 50 per gone to pieces; every garment reduced. Ladies' Jackets at $6 marked $3; $10 say take all you want at 25c a yd. jackets for $5.

DUNDAS & FLAVELLE BROS. DUNDAS & FLAVELLE BROS. THE HOME LIFE ASSOCIATION STOCK N OTES

A special meeting of the policy holders of -Mr. Dennis Howkins of Woodville, he Home Life Association of Canada was breeder of Berkshire pigs, reports business good and an active demand from all quarters for the favorite Berkshires. He has already sold every sire in his pens, with many orders booked for young animals. Last week he received an order for fifty sows from New York state, which he is now busily engaged in trying ousiness, and to make a deposit of the funds DOMINION ORGANS AND PLANOS

BOWMANVILLE NOW. 2, 1898.

Mr. J. J. Wetherup is the only authorized agent for the sale of our organs and pianos in Lindsay and Victoria county, and we will not Since Christmas there has been ten failures reported in New York of concerns that made a warrant or guarantee goods sold by other persons in this vicinity. DOMINION ORGAN AND PIANO CO.

ALL BROKEN UP

CAN ONTARIO BEAT IT? Monday, Jan. 3rd, was the 69th birthday of Mr. Thos. Fee, who lives just west of the concerns is that it did not advertise in the newspapers. The stores that did advertise town. Mr. Fee has long been a prominent were crowded with customers from the comfigure in municipal and business affairs. He has always been a fearless advocate of advanced mencement of the holiday season to the hour ideas on the platform and through the press.
His feat this fall has probably been equalled by few of his age in Ontario. During the past all report the greatest holiday business in season he plowed one hundred acres, and although suffering from a broken hand at the Swiss and French makes, all go in at outset, he cared for his team and followed the plow from the 16th of August to the 22nd of

November. DUNDAS & FLAVELLE BROS. A STORY OF THE KAISER. LITERARY NOTES -Current History for the third quarter of He Talked Away His Time and Missed Kissing His Wife. M. Koloman von Miksath, a distin guished Hungarian author and politician. tells the following story of the Emperor William, which was narrated to him by one of the actors in it:

Count Szeegyeny, the Austrian embas sador in Berlin, was one morning daw dling over a late breakfast and reading the papers that lay in a pile before him when his valet burst into the room with the startling news, "His majesty the em peror." M. Szoegyeny barely had time to tion. Price $1.50 a year. Single numbers meet the emperor on the threshold.

"I have come for a glass of beer," said his majesty, walking in and taking the most comfortable armenair he could dis cover. "How unexpected, and how for tunate for me," was the embassador's answer. "I have not seen you for a long time," said the emperor, "and felt I want ed a chat with you. I will take a ciga rette, if you please. And how is the bar oness?" "She will be here directly and three or four ablest organizers in America. He is president of the Rubber Trust and the will appreciate the honor of seeing your majesty in her house." "And how was your harvest in Hungary?" "Satisfactory according to my brother's account." The conversation had lasted some time when the baroness came in and took part in it. All at once the emperor took out his watch and jumped from his seat. "Saperlot!" he cried, "we have talked the humblest clerk seeking to fathom the away all the time! Have you a tele-"Does your majesty wish to have a message sent?" About 20 garments in black and "No. Take me to it directly." "But cannot I speak in your majesty's "Certainly not," laughed the emperor. 'I must speak to the empress and say goodby to her. I am due at the station in an hour. I must leave for the maneuvers, and I cannot drive to the schloss, see the empress and reach the station in time. I will drive to the station from here, but I must excuse myself to my wife for not returning home before I leave." Szoegyeny went to the telephone with the emperor, who did all the ringing and hello crying himself. Then he said: "Don't be angry, dear. I have chatted too long with Szoegyeny and must drive to the station from here, so I cannot give you my parting kiss, which I am sorry for. make the goods of this world the chief source

SPECIAL LINENS 20 dozen pure linen Napkins, 18x18 inches, pure damask make, price $1 per keep him in the straight road and to strengthen doz. Five dozen pure linen Huck Towels, 21x38 inches, hem-stitched or fringed ends. Price 25c each. DUNDAS & FLAVELLE BROS.

MARRIAGES

HARRISS-MINTHORNE-At the Methodist parsonage, Fenelon Falls, by the Rev. R. H with unregretful hearts when we think of how porting circles.

—Prof. Wolverton, scn-in-law of Mr. Geo.

St. Bernard said "My whole life has been a Minthorne, all of Fenelon.

HILL-HILL-At the residence of the for a couple of months during the absence of the pastor.

In the leading but the leading the absence of care to prepare ourselves for one end, which the pastor.

Wednesday, Dec. 28th, Mr. Warren H Hill will come for us very soon. "Put thy house to Stalla Mabel, daughter of Mr. Wm. Hill, all of Fenelon.

JEWELL-TRIPP-At the Methodist parsonage, Cambray, by the Rev. T. Snowdon, on the 27th inst., Mr. Robt. Wm. Jewell of Mariposa to Miss Ida A. Tripp of Cambray. FOSTER-INNES.—At the residence of the bride's mother Sonya on Dec. 27th, 1898, by Rev. W. B. Bremner, B. D., Mr. Chas.

Rev. W. B. Bremner, B. D., Mr. Chas.

trumpet; and there are many among us, my Rev. W. B. Bremner, B. D., Mr. dear brethren, who sit here to-day that shall Foster of Mariposa to Miss Annie Innes. DEATHS

JACKSON-At Little Britain, on Monday, Jan. 2nd, Mrs. Jane Jackson, wife of the late William Jackson, and mother of E. J. Jackson, Lindsay, aged 97 years 9 months.

SHEEHY-In Port Huron, Mich., on Dec. 17th, Maria Jones, wife of the late James

Money and Insurance.

MONEY TO LOAN on Mortgage at Lowest Rates. Notes Discounted. Agent for - -

> The Imperial Life Assurance Company of Canada. The Scottish Union and Nation-The Union Assurance Society of

London (Fire.) All exceptionally strong Com-

JNO. KENNEDY

At the NeW

I have opened a brand New Grocery Store one door East of the Benson House. My stock has been bought from Fresh Importations of the Finest Goods on the market to-day. Opening at this Season, I have selected these goods with special reference to the Holiday Trade.

I beg a continuation of the patronage of old friends and a trial from new customers.

THOS. BRADY,

Next Door to Benson House, - Lindsay, Ont.

If you Have a Horseshoe

Above the Door

And it don't fall on your head, you're lucky. If you own a horse and clothe him with one of our celebrated all-wool Blankets you're sensible; made from long wool carefully manufactured, fast colors. Price only 50c per square yard.

Gray Blankets 40c per lb. White Blankets $2 25 per pair, large enough to cover quite a little family. We sell our 2-ply Knitted Shirts and Drawers on approbation. These must be seen to be appreciated. Will not shrink, and warranted for 3 years. Good goods at wholesale prices, our motto for 1899.

HORN BROS.,

Lindsay Woollen Mills.

William-St. North

W. W. LOGAN

SELLS THE BEST PIANOS. ORGANS AND SEWING MACHINES

In the market, any make.

and the cheapest according to quality. He pays cash for all his goods, gets the best discounts, can give his customers right

W. W. LOGAN, General Agent, Lindsay, 170 Kent Street, West

GOODS SPECIALS

Here are Some Bargains

Picked up last week in the wholesale markets: -30c and 32 inch Flannelettes 5c yd. -36 inch, extra heavy Flannelettes, 10c

a yard -Wrapperette Cloths, 16c and 12½c.
-Ladies' heavy ribbed Fine Cashmere Hose, 45c a pr. -Ladies' Fine Wool Vests. special at to $6 50. -Ladies' New Cloth Capes $5.00 up. in the stere and att -Newest Styles, Heavy Cloths in extra Seasuable Goods, but 60 cents.

-Plaid Dress Goods special at 1210 yd. -These are only a few of the lines of DRY GOODS is the Largest Department, and neves was in as good shape for DOING A LARGE BUSINESS, in variety of goods to select from, and at prices that will stand the closest comparison.

Ten Departments

-Ladies' New Cloth Jackets, $4.75 in the store and all well stocked w

CENERAL DRY COODS

New Goods just placed in stock, but is the most important and largest steek. EVERY LINE IS MUCH BELOW REGULAR You are invited to take a close look PRICE. We boughe them special and through the stocks and compare prices our customers will reap the benefit. | whether you buy or not.

HOGG BROS.,

OAKWOOD, ONT.