—The Lindsay Hockey Club met their Waterloo at Uxbridge on Monday evening by a score of 7 to 0.

—The last issue of the Warbler did not quite complete the story that has been running in its columns.

—The Minden Echo says: "His Honor Judge John E. Harding, junior judge of the county of Victoria, held his division court sitting in Minden on Thursday and created a very favorable impression upon both suitors and spectators by his careful judgments and outspoken manner in disposing of the business coming before him."

—There are some quarters of the town that would benefit by an occasional visit from the police, especially on Saturday nights.

—The February number of the Delinquent is called the Midwinter Number, and presents a variety of illustrations and descriptions of present and prospective styles in every department.

—A man who does not advertise simply because his grandfather did not, ought to wear knee pants and a queue.

—During the performance of "An Enemy to the King" last Monday night dim lights were required during a whole act.

—Two young lads in the north ward named Sharp and Simpson are boot companions.

—The annual meeting of the Lindsay Branch Bible Society was held in St. Andrew's church on Friday evening.

—Now the rattled canine scampers to and fro with the lobster-can appendage to his narrative and the small boy rejoiceth greatly.

—If you want first-class work and permanency to your photographs go to the Lindsay Photo Co. as they are always reliable and they are as cheap as any photographs in Lindsay.

—Dr. J. G. Jardine of Sunderland died on Tuesday morning. The funeral takes place to-day (Thursday) at 1:30 under the auspices of the L.O.O.F., of which he was a prominent member.

—An old-time revival meeting at the Salvation Army barracks to-night (Thursday) in which a number of the officers of regular W.A.C.M. regiments are expected to be present at this meeting.

—It seems to be a curious fact, and one commonly supposed, that this present century, the last year of the nineteenth century, the year 1900 has to be completed before we reach the twentieth century, therefore the twentieth century will not have arrived until the 1st January 1901.

—Mr. John Campbell, Fairview farm, Woodville, this week sold two choice heifer calves to J. Ballard of Vermont state, and secured for him from his friends who breed Shropshires a sufficient number of rams and ewes to make up a car load.

—A gentleman from Pleasant Point drove his horse into the Benson house yards for a few moments one day last week. When he returned a parcel containing a pair of new boots was missing from the rig.

—There is on hand only about one month's supply of three-cent postage stamps. When they are exhausted no more will be issued.

—In future shippers ordering a G.T.R. or C.P.R. parcel will be required to deposit $10, which will be forfeited if the shipper changes his mind and decides not to use the car.

—The law as to labor provides that no person under ten years of age shall be employed in a mill, factory or workshop.

—A progressive move has been made among some of the ladies of the town.

—The closing days of last week were anxious days for pedestrians.
