Toronto Markets.

Feb. 23.

Outside news to-day was Beerbohm's despatch, which describes English markets as quiet. This fact seemed to tend to make the local market dull.

Flour—No movement reported; but millers would appear to be steady in feeling at about $4.20 to $4.25 for straight rollers and about $4 to $4.05 for extra.

Wheat—Seemed in fairly good demand, but probably the turn easier; white and red lying westward sold at 87c standard; and spring lying on the Midland changed hands at 90c straight. On the call-board 94c was bid for No. 2 fall on the track; No. 1 hard was offered on the spot at $1.05 with $1.05 bid; No. 2 hard, to arrive at North Bay, was offered at $1.01.

Oats—Quiet but firm; mixed on the spot was held at 34c but buyers not inclined to go over 33c; and this latter figure was bid for Manitoban to arrive at North Bay.

Barley—There was no movement reported, and the enquiry seemed to be rather less active; but extra No. 3 on the spot was usually valued at about 49 to 50c. In the absence of transactions, however, we would not recommend confidence in this valuation.

Peas—Quiet and apparently the turn easier, with sales on the Midland at 60c, and nothing reported on other lines.

Rye—Firm; and sold, lying eastward at 96c.

Hogs—Nothing doing; nominal at $6.00 to $6.10.

Butter—Unchanged; choice scarce and firm at 20 to 21c for selections; and good to choice rolls ranging from 16 to 19c.

Eggs—As before; sales small to-day, but the best cases on the spot selling at 21c; with lined and stale down to 15 to 16c.

Accidents.

Mr. Earnest Sharp had his foot badly smashed on Monday last by a hay press, which was propped up, falling on it. A doctor was summoned and the injured limb was promptly dressed.

On Sunday last Archie Campbell, aged about 11 years, second son of Mr. John S. Campbell, was severely kicked in the face by a yearling colt on Mr. W. Isaac's farm in Fenelon, the house on which is at present unoccupied. Archie and a boy about his own age, son of Mr. Thomas Isaac, who lives on the adjoining farm, went over to put the live stock in the stable, and while they were trying to get the colt in its place it suddenly struck out with both hind feet. Archie's right cheek has a long cut down to the bone, and about three-quarters of an inch below it is a ragged wound which will probably leave a worse mark than the cut. The hurts, being so near together, were no doubt caused by the outer and inner edges of one of the colt's hoofs. (Gazette.)

Many Servant Girls Murdered.

MAGDEBURG, February 23.—A man named Fritz and his fiancée, Dorothy Bunstock, have been arrested here and charged with murdering servant girls for the purpose of robbery. These murders resembled in most of their horrible details the Schneider murders in Vienna recently, the victims being invigiled to their fate by means of bogus advertisements. The police have already discovered the names of two of the victims and are at work on the other cases. When the police descended upon the culprits the clothing of the murdered girls was found in their possession and will be used as evidence against the prisoners when they are brought to trial. Dorothy Bunstock has broken down in the face of the charges made against her and has made a confession, in which she described the manner in which the murders were committed. She admits leading the girls to a wood, where Fritz was waiting to spring upon them and where after his bloody work was finished the victims were stripped of all their clothing and any money or valuables in their possession and their bodies hidden in a spot where it was not likely they would be discovered.

CATTLE DISEASE.

Appearance of the Dreaded Foot and Mouth Complaint—Government Precautions.

LONDON, Feb. 22.—The appearance of the dreaded foot and mouth disease among cattle in certain parts of England is causing great apprehension, and there is no end of discussion on the subject. Apropos of the theory that the disease was introduced through the medium of imported rawhides, a theory which Mr. Henry Chaplain, president of the Board of Agriculture, took occasion to throw discredit upon in the House of Commons to-day, the St. James' Gazette to-day states that it voices numerous complaints in objection to the action of a certain American inspector, who has been giving his opinion of this important question, The Gazette says:—

The American veterinary surgeon, who by the kind permission of the Government is allowed a free run of the Deptford market, is apparently not content with disputing the existence of disease in American cattle when the existence of such disease has been decided by the officials of the Board of Agriculture, but he is now prepared to teach our veterinary expert how to trace the origin of foot-and-mouth disease. This is exceedingly gracious of the enterprising Yankee. The Government is very ill-advised to permit such an unheard of precedent as the presence in our ports of a foreign official veterinarian, the only return for the courtesy being officious and ill-formed criticism upon the action of our responsible officers.

The Gazette goes on to angrily dispute the theory that the foot and mouth disease is traceable to imported raw hides. If this origin of the disease were proved it would deprive Mr. Chaplain of the pleasure of prohibiting the importation of live animals. It is undeniable that there is no disease among cattle in Holland or Denmark, yet the prohibition against importation from those countries is maintained, and it is understood will shortly be extended to Spain and Portugal. The obvious idea is to enhance the market value of English farmer's cattle. Numerous opinions have been announced by unofficial British experts favourable to the raw hides origin of foot and mouth disease, but the official mind seems unalterably opposed to such a theory.

The Liberal members of Parliament are inclined to look favourably upon the idea of appointing a committee of enquiry into the whole subject.

In memory of Mrs. Catherine Carrolan, beloved wife of James Carrolan, died December 20th, 1891, aged 56 years.

Oh, let us weep, since words can't tell
The loss we now deplore.
Since our dear and loving mother
Is on this earth no more,
And in that lonely chamber
We'd ever linger nigh,
And watch that pale and grief-worn face
My brother Tom and I.

Her gentle voice no more we hear,
So loving true and kind,
Her loving words no more will guide
Her orphans left behind.
But we will meet her once again
Upon a happy shore,
Where sorrow can not enter in,
Where pain will be no more.
