WATCH REPAIRING

When done right is done cheapest, even if it costs more than to do it improperly. But it doesn't cost more in the long run, really not as much. It is cheaper to pay $1 once than 75c twice to say nothing of the satisfaction of carrying a reliable timepiece instead of a dummy.

In fact the cost of watch repairing, like that of any other service or commodity is largely governed by its quality. It often happens that incompetent artisans try to conceal poor work behind high prices, but eventually the quality of the work, be it good or bad, proclaims itself. We are prepared to do good watch work. No shop in Canada is better equipped for this purpose than ours. It means a large outlay for fine tools and appliances. It means care, study and long practical experience, and a determination to make QUALITY the first consideration. These we have. That these things are appreciated by people who want value for their money is proved by the scope of our business.

In addition to our customers who live in this vicinity, there is a considerable number who send us work from long distances even as far as the Rockies. Why do they send to us past all the intervening towns and cities? Because it pays them to do so. We want your work.

Curling Notes.
The season of 1894-95 of the Lindsay curling club will be noted as the commencement of a new era in the club's history. To commence with the new rink capable of allowing of eight rinks to compete at the one time, would of itself have made the season a noteworthy one. But no sooner had the season opened than it became manifest that the club was going to receive large additions to its membership. To provide for the increased membership twenty-four skips were elected, and for the whole season rink matches have had full swing every evening. It occurred to several members early in the season that it would be a good thing in the interests of curling if matches could be arranged with some of the large rinks of Toronto. Accordingly invitations were given to two of the Toronto rinks to visit Lindsay. These invitations were accepted and before the season is out we are likely to have the pleasure of seeing contests on a large scale against Toronto rinks on Lindsay ice. But without waiting for the city curlers to visit Lindsay it was decided to go to Toronto with twelve rinks if games could be arranged. This having been satisfactorily done, on Thursday last fifty-two curlers, thirteen rinks, journeyed to Toronto by the morning train and played against the Granite club and the Parkdale club. In all four games the Lindsay men were defeated. In the six rink game against Victoria club by nine points; in the three rink game against Parkdale by 12 points; in the five rink game against Prospect Park by 40 points; and in the twelve rink game against the Granite club by ninety-three points. Though badly beaten, as was to be expected, the Lindsay players are one and all loud in the praise of the treatment they received at the hands of the Toronto clubs. They returned home feeling that they had had a good day's outing and had been defeated by gentlemen who know how to act as victors. Though the first visit of the club in such numbers has proven disastrous still the members feel that the visit should be made annually and they believe that in another season they will be able to give a better account of themselves. It did not fall to the lot of the Toronto players to have everything their own way in all the games played, some of their victories were by only few shots after a close and an exciting game and they too suffered defeat in some games. M. W. Kennedy's rink was the most successful. He won in the afternoon against the Parkdale club by a score of 16 to 13, and again in the evening against the Granite by a score of 24 to 13. W. McLennan's rink won against the Victorias, and so did J. McMillan's. H. Ferguson's rink also won from the Granite and J. M. Knowlson's rink won against Prospect Park by a score of 18 to 15. W. Needler's rink tied with Victoria. J. D. Flavell played a close game with Prospect Park. Dr. Simpson and J. McMillan played similar games with the Granite losing by only a single point. The scores of the day and evening were:—

On Monday points will be played for the provincial points competition. All members of the club are eligible for this contest, and those who make thirty points or over will have their names recorded in the Annual published by the Ontario Branch. To the person making the highest score in the province the Branch gives a gold medal. This medal was won last year by Mr. J. D. Flavell with a score of forty-seven points.

On Saturday the Peterboro teachers will play against the Lindsay collegiate staff.

Tuesday next Millbrook will play Bobcaygeon here in the afternoon, and in the evening Bobcaygeon will play two Lindsay rinks. An effort will be made to get the Millbrook men to wait over also for a game against Lindsay in the evening. It is expected that one or more of the Toronto clubs will be here next week.

On Tuesday evening the Tankard rinks from Lindsay made up as follows:—
J. G. Edwards M. W. Kennedy
L. McIntosh W. Needler
J. A. McMillan G. A. Little
J. D. Flavell, skip W. McLennan, skip.
left for Toronto.

Wednesday they played against Collingwood in the second draw and won by 20 shots.

Collingwood played with Peterboro in the 1st draw and won.

On Sunday evening last the curlers mustered in large numbers at the rink and proceeded to St. Andrew's church. Pews had been reserved for them in the centre of the church—these they filled. The chaplain, Rev. R. Johnston, preached the sermon of which we give a synopsis below. The congregation was exceedingly large and curlers and others were delighted with the discourse. The curling club are particularly pleased with the kindness of their chaplain and the managers of St. Andrew's church for this innovation in the club's affairs. They feel proud that they have a chaplain who takes an interest in the game and who feeling that he had been honored by the club when he was elected a chaplain, felt also that he should discharge the duties of his position only in a fitting manner by preaching a sermon to his brother curlers. No meeting of the club has been so largely attended and no evening in the club's history has been so enjoyable.

The number of rink games for the week has been unusually small. The trip to Toronto interfered with the play for two evenings of the week. The following games were played:—

Sermon to the Curlers.

The curlers attended divine service in a body last Sabbath evening at St. Andrew's church and listened to a sermon from their chaplain, Rev. Robt. Johnston, B.D. Taking for his text the 16th verse of the 20th chapter of Judges, Mr. Johnston first dealt briefly with the influence of recreations upon both the physical and moral well-being of a people and urged his hearers to avoid any and every form of amusement that would endanger the best development of their bodies or lead to moral shipwreck. Speaking of curling in particular the preacher mentioned its many excellent features, but said it was not his intention to laud the game, rather would he utter a needed word of warning. In this connection he pointed out the danger of even harmless recreations interfering with the duties of life. "No man," said he, "can afford four or five nights out of six for the rink or any other amusement." Life is too precious for this and the duties of the home, of business and of the church must never be allowed to suffer for the sake of any mere recreation. "Where you find any recreation becoming so fascinating that it draws you away from duty, say farewell to it." The main part of the sermon was taken up in impressing the necessity of "earnestness, faith and obedience," three principles which were dwelt upon in curling, and which lay at the foundation of all true living. Earnestness and forcibly the preacher urged his hearers to give all diligence in seeking the great things of the Kingdom of God, assuring them of the promise, "Ye shall seek Me and find Me when ye shall search for Me with all your hearts." Faith in Jesus Christ as the initial step of salvation, and unwavering obedience to Him as the rule of life for the Christian were urged and illustrated. The sermon closed with an earnest appeal to all present to enlist in the service of Jesus Christ, accepting of the salvation which He in His great love had provided for them and now offered freely to them. The whole service was enjoyed by the large congregation present. During the taking of the collection Mr. J. Parnell Morris, the new director of music in the congregation, sang very sweetly and effectively "O Wandering Boy" and at the close of the service the quartette sang "There's a stranger at the door."

The Patron Convention.

A meeting of the delegates from the different Patron associations in North Victoria was held at Fenelon Falls on Saturday last. The meeting was well attended, delegates being present from nearly every part of the county. The meeting was called to order by President Manning, who explained that the object of the meeting was for the consideration of the advisability of bringing out a candidate for the coming election. Four names were mentioned as suitable candidates, as follows:—President Manning, Mr. John Chambers, reeve of Fenelon; Mr. Donald Jackson and Mr. P. McLeod, of Eldon. The two latter withdrew their names, when a ballot was taken and resulted in favor of Mr. Manning. Mr. Manning could not see his way clear to accept the honor, and after some little discussion it was decided to adjourn the meeting until Saturday, March the 2nd to meet again at Glenora.

The Citizens' Band Carnival.

"The greatest carnival ever held in Lindsay" was the result of the efforts put forth by the energetic committee of the Citizens' band for the grand benefit carnival last Friday evening. Fully 1500 tickets were sold, and standing room was at a discount. Many masqueraders were present, but the usual custom of handing in their cards was neglected, hence it is impossible to give the list. The handsome prize for the best lady's costume was carried off by Miss Edith McDonald, as Sweet Marie. Mr. A. Graham, as a Dashing Hussar, secured the honor for the best dressed gentleman. The prize for girl's costume was won by Miss Ingle as an Indian Maiden. Master Harry Egge as a "Highlander" captured the honor in the juvenile class. The comic costume of an old lady worn by Master John Diamant, created lots of fun, and was awarded the trophy. The coupon ticket prize found everyone looking after the $5 gold piece, and was eventually won by Master H. Timms with ticket 1054. The amateur mile race brought out five feet skaters, namely, A. E. Pilkie, O. Dusty, of Uxbridge, T. Brady, J. May, London, and T. Corbett, of Fenelon Falls. A capital party was made, but Pilkie had the foot of the party and won in one, two order. Time 3.01, and 3.05. Great interest was manifested in the little Uxbridge skater, Dusty, as he is not only a swift skater for one so young, but is also very graceful. Master T. Brady is coming to the front very rapidly and will give an excellent account of himself in another year. The boys' race was a "corner" from the drop of the hat, and was won by F. Martin after a spirited contest. The nail keg competition created rounds of applause at the expense of the Roaring Nine and was eventually won by Mr. S. Seaton. The "couples race" was a new feature and was won by Miss Dunsford and Mr. A. E. Pilkie. The obstacle race had a large list of entries and was eventually won by E. Powers. In the wheelbarrow race T. Brady took the lead and was a winner from start to finish. Mr. J. May, of London, won the farmer's race hands down. Miss Mary Mills easily lead the other competitors in the ladies' race and secured the napkin ring offered as a first prize. The Roaring Nine were bound to shine and won the tug-of-war from the rink nine. Messrs. G. Harrison, S. Caldwell, H. Harry, W. McCarry, Geo. McFadden, Ed. Koutinson and bandmaster Brown were the managing committee, and are to be congratulated upon their success. Mr. J. H. Lennon, and Geo. Harrison officiated as judges and gave the best of satisfaction.
