FATAL ACCIDENTS .- Richard Quinn, a section man in the employ of the Grand Trunk at York, was killed in the yards Friday afternoon by a shunting engine. Quinn, accompanied by a number of other employes, was engaged in working on the track at the end of the yard, laying some new ties. About 2 o'clock a freight train was being shunted down the yards and the men noticed the approaching train and jumped to a place of safety. Quinn, as soon as the train had passed, walked into the track again, and no sooner had he placed his foot between the rails than he was knocked down by another train. The wheels passed over his body and completely severed his legs above the knees. LADIES' READY-MADE

Thanks to the efforts of this store the idea that there is nothing to be commended in Ladies' Readymode SHIRTS and WAISTS is fast disappearing.

Careful dressers are getting to comprehend our interest in this particular feature of our business, and now recognize the fact that at least this store can supply them with Skirts and Waists, that appealed to their taste, fancy and pocketbook. We want more to appreciate their goodness and excellence and to feel that we protect them from getting old styles and unworthy qualities.

That's why we invite all who can to come and inspect these attractive values in L dies' Skirts and Waists.
