EWARD for a ca MENTION THIS P.

ULLY esh and Salt M to any part of th

ared to buy at the new torehouse, Lindsay. eas, Barley, ed and Alsike r and Potato paid at the Storehouse 8th, 1890 -36-tf.

LE FARM WITH of Haliburton being o . 23 in the 5th conces aining 100 Acres, ed and in a good stat in a good locality. all necessary building epair. her information to Win. BEAMISH, On the prem 1890-1-tf.

1890

OWNMENTS

ment Reports for ye the ÆTNA LIFE hasp v holders in Canada's ettlement of MATUR tlarity of the ÆTNA E olicies.

D. MACMURCHY

NUFACTURERS OFrtificial Limbs & # Human Body.

ase, Hip Joint Dise e Knee and Ankle, Kno gs, Club Feet, etc.

ssrs. Authors & Cox:-

l would doubtless have owing what to do and her.

Watchman.

RSDAY, MARCH 24, 1892.

at alone by the bright wood fire, w-haired dame and the aged sire, ming of days gone by; ear-drops fall on each aged-cheek; the had thoughts that they could each heart uttered a sigh.

air sad and tearful eyes descried ittle chairs placed side by side. inst the sitting-room wall; sioned enough as there they stoodeats of flag and their frames of wood, h their backs so straight and tall.

the sire shook his silvery head, th trembling voice he gently saidlother, those empty chairs ! ng us such sad, sad thoughts to-them forever out of sight, se small dark room upstairs."

e answered, "Father, no, not yet; ook at them and I forget the children went away. ovs come back, and our Mary, too, her apron on of checkered blue, ad sit here every day.

still whittles a ship's tall masts, lie his leaden bullets casts, e Mary her patchwork sews; ing time three childish prayers God from those little chairs, softly that no one knows.

mes back from the billowy deep wakes from his battle-field sleep say a good-night to me; is a wife and mother no more, a tired child whose play-time is o'er and comes to rest on my knee.

them stand there, though empty now very time when alone we bow the Father's throne to pray; sk to meet the children above r Saviour's home of rest and love, here no child goeth away."

-Mrs. H. T. Perry.

HIS MOTHER.

cold gray shadows of the wintry ht had enveloped tree and meadow sluggish forest streams in their main mist, the factory chimneys their fiery banners of smoke nst the leaden sky, a basso-rilievo ould have made Rembrandt himice, and the hum of never-ceasing tents, Caveats, Trade copyrights, sent free.

arles Emery, the day superintenin the rolling mills, was just reto his home, having been relieved e night superintendent, and as he d along, his feet sounding crisply e hard, frozen earth, he whistled to himself, as light-hearted as a couldn't he have come and sat with us?"

anadian Standard) 7,600, or upon that especial evening there hernalia of scenery and costume , and the younger population were | Charley's eyes. he qui vive of delightful expectation.

said Harrison, "when you that he heard her words. TS than that paid by Can that Kate Marcy is to be of our ish Companies combinedy,-Kate Marcy and the Miss dence is required of wells and Fanny Hewitt. There eight of us going. We've kept a ends paid Every year have engaged myself to another arrison laughed.

in purpose for you!"

General Age Vell, I'm sorry for it," said he; "but Marcy is not a girl who need pine cavalier. We'li keep the seat for antil a quarter of eight. And let Mrs. Emery softly. e you a warning, old fellow! Marcy is a high-minded girl-it do to trifle too much with her!" arles Emery went on his way graver and more self-absorbed. or all deformities and asked his mother the day before and his mother's eyes had brightwith genuine delight.

our father often used to take me, ey," she said, "when we were s people and lived in New York. is twenty years and more since I pink. been to an opera. And if you're whom you would rather take"s if any young girl in the world be to me what my own darling love me "r is!" replied Emery smiling s the table to her.

hen I shall be delighted to go," Mrs. Emery.

e truth of her words. now that a regular party had neither king nor prince.

kabout, but now runsale organized, and Kate Marcy had "But I never should have loved you so elf to take his mother.

d have the opportunity of sitting night."

all evening next to Kate Marcy. I'll ask her to let me off this time. She won't care.

But when he went into the little and saw his mother with her silver-gray her almost unwrinkled brow, her best black sirk donned, and the opal brooch

"I have been trimming my bonnet over with some violet-velvet flowers," said she, smiling, "so as to do you no discredit, Charley; and I have a new must drink your tea. I've made some of your favorite cream-biscuit, and the kettle is nearly boiling, Oh, Charley, you'll laugh at me, I'm afraid, but I feel quantity of the gas. Should an electric like a little girl going to her first glow light go out no harm would result, children's party. It's so seldom, you and it would light again of itself when know, that a bit of pleasure comes in current is restored." my way !"

And then Charles Emery made up his mind that his mother was more to him, in her helpless old age and sweet affectionate dependence, than any blooming damsel whose eyes shone like stars and whose cheeks rivalled the September peach.

"Going with some one else!" said Kate Marcy, rather surprised and not exactly pleased.

She was a tall, beautiful maiden, the belle of C-, and rather an heiress in her own right. She liked Charles Emery, ture before going to bed. If you don't self. It is understood that he is enjoyand she rather surmised that he liked up her toitet for the opera, she had his task of whitening your hands. In the with money by Sam Lewis, the well been going during the last few years :for her hair and ornaments of turquoise, because she had once heard Mr. Emery say that blue was his favorite color.

" Going with some one else !" she repeated. "Well, he has a right to suit ladies in the vicinity jealous. himself."

And she kept within her own soul the jealousy that disturbed her all the while disappearing-or, at least in growing she was sitting waiting for the great easier to bear. green curtain to be drawn up, until, of a sudden, there was a slight bustle on few drops of the doctor on the spot and the row of seats beyond, and Emery entered with his mother.

of relief and turned to the stage; it was as possible of the troublesome intruder. as if the myriad gaslights had all of a sudden been turned up, as if all the mimic world in the opera house had grown radiant,

Never was voice sweeter to her ears wholesome. than the somewhat thin and exhausted warble of the prima donna; never did scenery glow with such natural tints or footlights shine more softly. Kate Marcy declared that the opera was "perfection!"

with that little old woman! Why quently a shade over the eyes.

Kate said nothing. In the crowd now said in a low, earnest tone,-

"I don't know what you think of it, 5,7962 to be an opera in the little town, a Nina; but I. for my part, respect Mr. It will be noticed that when there is not am going," said Emery, slowly; separated them almost ere they could the day time use a mild or modified light followed by a financial raise, is a high fence recognize one another; but Kate telt But you will change your mind, sure--and her cheek glowed scarlet-

> "Charley," said little Mrs. Emery, looking into her son's face as they emerged into the vail of softly falling snow which seemed to enwrap the whole outer world in a dim, dazzling mystery, eves and the sweet face wrapped in a said she respected you?"

"It was Kate Marcy, mother." "She has the face of an angel," said the old Marcy homestead, whose red week, with every kind of tool and explosive brick gables, sheeted with ivy, rose up mixture known to science and the man is out of the leafless elms and beeches, in there yet! just beyond the noise and stir of the busy village.

"Miss Marcy," he said, "I heard what you said last night."

that, Miss Marcy, I want a warmer melting. feeling. If you could teach yourself to

The dimples came around Kate Marcy's red lips, wreathing her smile in wondrous beauty.

"Mr. Emery," she said, "I do love d her voice and eyes bore witness you. I have loved you for a long time."

ears encouraging prospected to join it, things looked differthe recovering the used to the young man. For a moment

You are at liberty to see the young man. For a moment letter if you wish to so host regretted that he had engaged

If to take the interval are the state of the young man. For a moment

If to take the had engaged is to take the had engaged in the property of the young man. It is to take the had engaged is to take the had engaged in the property of the young man. It is to take the had engaged is to take the had engaged in the property of the young man. It is to take the had engaged in the young man. It is to take the had engaged in the young man in the property of the young man. It is to take the had engaged in the young man in the property of the young man. It is to take the young man in the property in the young man in the property is to take the young man. It is to take the young man in the you never looked so handsome as when you he would be as well pleased with stood bending over her gray head in the oncert," he said to himself, "and I crowded hall of the opera house that

HEALTH HINTS.

Dr. Lemon-Save your Eyes-Deadly Gas Deadly gas jets .- It may be doubted sitting-room of their humble domain, whether the later improvements in making gas, by which the cheapness of production hair rolled into puffs on either side of has been assured, have not added to the quality of its deadliness. On this subject Practical Electricity says: "Probably a she owned pinned into the white lace from asphyxiation by illuminating gas are folds at her bosom, his heart misgave due to the imprudence of the unfortunate individuals in unintentionally falling asleep without shutting off the gas. No prudent person will go to sleep in a closed room with a gas jet burning-however desirable the light-unless another person remains awake to turn the tap in case the pair of violet kid gloves. And now you light should go out-as sometimes Lappens from a reduction of the flow of gas, which is a frequent occurrence. When the regular flow is restored, were the vent unclosed, Try Doctor Lemon.-Squeeze him into a glass of water every morning and drink him with very little sugar. He will keep the official receiver of the estates of the your stomach in the best of order and dissolute Marquis of Ailesbury made to your stomach in the best of order and never let Mr. Dyspepsia, whom he hates cordially, get into it.

If you have dark hair and it seems to be falling out, cut off a slice of the doctor and rub him on your scalp. He will stop that little trouble promptly.

will give you a mixture to rub on your face night and morning and get a complexion like a princess.

Pour him into an equal quantity of glymind sleeping with gloves on that is better ing himself in his usual manner somemorning wash your hands thoroughly in known usurer. It is stated that fresh warm water and apply the doctor again pure, but only a few drops of him this time. You must not keep this up too long or your hands will show such a dazzling before he married her was Dollie Tester, whiteness as to make all the other young the music hall performer. It is said you will find yourself the better for it. If you have a troublesome corn the doctor can again be put to good account by burys, £500,000 is to remain on mort-Then Kate's overgloomed face grew rubbing him on the toe after you have gage at 4 per cent. bright again. She drew a long breath taken a hot bath, and cut away as much ready to sacrifice himself in the cause of Russian tea-slice him in without sugaror in the preparation of old-tashioned lemonade, than which no drink is more few people can afford to get along without. to the House in a donkey cart, clad in New York Herald.

Culture says :-It is generally supposed that an artificial light should be strong. Whether at night "Yes; but," said pert little Nina or in dark rooms during the day a glaring Cummings, "do look at Charley Emery light is cast on the paper and there is fre-This is an erroneous practice. Artificial light has not enough of the mild colours in it and too much heat, and when re-You're going with us to-night, surging out of the aisles of the little flected from paper injures the eye. It is a rley, to the opera?" cried a gay opera house she could scarcely venture mistake to assist the eye too much with and two or three young men came to express her entire opinion, but she artificial light. Too strong a light is simply a bad habit. Darkness is a natural and necessary condition of the human eye.

3,000,00 line New York company, with a Emery a thousand times more for his sufficient light the pupil of the eye dilates to catch sufficient rays. From this we And, almost at the same second, she learn that the eye is less injured by trying provincial residents so seldom found herself looking directly into to gather sufficient rays in a mild light than by being overpowered with the rays of too much heat. To preserve the eyes For a moment only. The crowd during evening work or in a dark place in necessary to create a "local" snowstorm, -one candle power-at a distance of three to hide behind and a quantity of finely-chopfeet is quite strong enough. By this means | ped paper. the eyes will retain their power much better than with a strong light.

The Very Latest Invention.

An ingenious man recently constructed a safe, which he declares to be absolutely burglar proof. To convince the incredulous "who was that girl with the large blue of the fact, he placed a $500 note in his pecket, had himself locked in the safe, white, fleecy sort of hood-the one who with a liberal supply of provisions, and the key cast into the river, declaring that he would give the money to the man who unfastened the door.

All the blacksmiths, and carpenters, and The next day Charley went boldly to blasting, and beating at that safe for a

He has whispered through the keyhole of 149 cases. that he will make the reward £500 if somebody will only let him cut. He has convinced everybody that it is the safest safe ever invented. Fears are entertained that "It was not meant for your ears, Mr. | the whole concern will have to be melted Emery," said Kate, coloring a soft rosy down in the furnace before he is released and efforts are to be made to pass in dence for women on university property. "But," he pursued, looking her full through the keyhole a firepreof-jacket, to sure, dear, that there is no young in the face, "I cannot be satisfied with protect the inventor while the iron is

> The writs for Prescott and Carleton, N. B., have been issued. In the former nomination takes place on the 23rd, and in the latter on the 30th, polling a week later in Lord Calthorpe and others have decided to establish a memorial fund to Sir Morell And Charley went home, envying Mackenzie, to be devoted to a permanent addition to the Golden square Throat Hospital, which he founded 27 years ago.

soldiers were wounded. Two sikhs and two Zanzibaris were killed. One seven matron of the Children's Convalescent pounder gun was captured by the natives. | Home at Ottawa, was found dead in her Trade in the vicinity of Fort Johnson is room at the Windsor hotel there on Sunparalyzed. The enemy's loss is unknown, day.

A MEMORY.

My heart is far away to-night Beyond the blue of the southern seas, Where the world lies wrapped in mystic light And the red rose sighs in the hush of night To her ardent lover, the breeze;

Where the pale acacia trembles and showers Its petals of perfumed snow on the stream That hurries over its rock brown bed; Where the jasmine lifts its golden head And the poppies nod and aream;

Where the purple foxglove hides the bee That drowsily, heavily drones and hums; Where the silvery waves break on the sand, And the sea nymphs dance on the coral strang When the hour of midnight comes.

And I see his face, and I hear his voice-My prince, with the shining soul lit eyes-And I feel his arms about me twine, And the warmth of his perfect lips on mine, 'Neath the dusk of the southern skies.

And, oh! I am sad and lone to-night, And my heart is full of a lingering pain, And I list where the lilles breathe and move For the tender, passionate whisper of love I shall never hear again -Lilian Cleveland in Washington Post.

A Dissolute Lord, '

London, March 14.—The report of the Court of Bankruptcy to day shows that the total liabilities of the gay young nobleman are £345,462, of which £244,-211 is unsecured. The assets are the life interest of the Marquis in the es-Squeeze him into a quart of milk and he tates and other property, the value of which has not been ascertained. Lord Ailesbury was not present during the proceedings, which in fact are far more quarrels have arisen between Lord Ailesbury and the Marchioness, who that the disagreements between the If you have a bad headache cut Dr. couple have now reached such a stage Lemon into slices and rub these along that they are not likely to be settled outside the Divorce Court.

It transpires that of the £750,000 If a bee or an insect stings you clap a which Lord Iveagh (formerly Guinness the brewer) agreed to pay for Savernake forest, the ancestral home of the Ailes-

The rumour is revived that the Besides all this the doctor is always House of Lords to which he is entitled. It is said that he will carry out his intention before the close of the present session of Parliament. The Lords live Lindsay, July 22, 1891 in constant dread lest he carry out a Altogether Dr. Lemon is an individual threat made some years ago to drive up his favourite costume of a costermonger Save your eyes .- A writer in Physical Nobody would have the power to prevent his doing so if he chose to.

Bongley (the tramp) finds that all that is

NEWS ITEMS.

There is a prospect of a strike of machinists in Chicago.

General elections will take place in Manitoba in June. The manufacture of artificial wines has been prohibited in Spain. The Kentucky Legislature has passed the bill prohibiting lotteries of any kind in that

Prof. John Cairns, D.D., L.L.D., of the United Presbyterian College in Edinburgh

There have been 76 deaths from typhus fever in New York since the outbreak, out

Two Wycliffe College students will leave in May for the Mackenzie river district, there to prosecute missionary labors.

A committee of the university senate have reported in favor of erecting a resitown of Panabamba, on the frontier of Bolivia, and the Government is hurrying troops forward. Heavy rains are again falling in Spain and more serious floods are feared. The great delay in the mails, The Archduke Leopold, uncle of Empeor Francis Joseph, of Austria, is suffering from congestion of the lungs. Physicians pronounce his condition serious.

railroads are interfered with and there is

A colored man ran amuck in the streets of Toronto yesterday and fired at everybody he met, but fortunately without hitting anybody. He was finally arrested.

Mies Annie McCormack, formerly

SQUINT THIS WAY, PLEASE!

LARDINE MACHINE OIL.

Farmers, Threshers and Mill Men generally should try the celebrate LARDINE MACHINE OIL. It does not Gum or Clog Machines, and wears equal to Castor Oil.

McCOLLS - CYLINDER - OIL

Guaranteed to be better and cheaper than Tallow. Try above Oils and you will use no others.

McColl Bros. & Co.,

Toronto.

CANADIAN INSURANCE CO'Y.

WHICH WILL YOU HAVE?

The latest Blue Book shows that after providing for all liabilities the surplus of the ROYAL CANADIAN for the protection of its policy holders at the close of last year was $509,074, besides stock to the amount of another $100,000 subscribed but not

Cerine and rub your hands with the mix- interesting to his creditors than to him The same Blue Book shows that the surplus of the London Mutual was $67,176 composed entirely of the unassessed portion of premium notes which no policy holde ever expects to be called upon to pay.

her. And when she had been studying still and helps the doctor considerably in where in the Riviera. He is supplied The following table shows at a glance how the affairs of the London Mutual have

Year.	Losses unpaid at close of each year.	Cash available for paying losses at close of each year.	Money Borrowed	Surplus reckoning premium notes at full face yalue.	Investments each year.
1885	$6,047	$63,963	N.
1886	9,878	50,686	None	$101,816	None
1887	12.455	22,701	None	115,955	$6,500
1888	23.014	20,721	$20,000 40,000	97,268	8,000
1889	20,436	13,911	40,000	75,334	None
1890	26,182	1,403	60,000	74,068 67,176	9,028

It should be borne in mind that during the last three years the London Mutual collected in heavy assessments over $30,000 more than usual, and yet at the close of last year, after collecting a full year's income, they had only $1,403 with which to Marquis intends to take the seat in the pay $26,182 of unsettled losses. In regard to security no one should hesitate as to which company to select.

S. CORNEIL, Agent Royal Canadian Company.

W. HETTGER

as removed to the store lately occupied by Mrs Gemsjager east of the Benson House, where he will keep a large stock of Fancy Goods, Wools, Embroideries, silks and all kinds of Goods in that line.

Woois and other articles now Selling at Cost.

STAMPING DONE TO ORDER

Dyeing and Scouring promptly and neatly executed

A. W. HETTGER.

FALL AND WINTER

MISS O'BRIEN

has opened an assortment of the LATEST STYLES IN HATS AND BONNETS.

TRIMMING EFFECTS, ETC.,

Five thousand Indians are menacing the and invites the inspection of the ladies. Many of the new styles are pronounced very handsome, and are really moderate in price.

MISS O'BRIEN

Three Doors East of Benson House.

ONLY 50 CENTS PER ANNUM.

CH STREET! TORONTO.

ENTLEMEN, - We are gre sed with the result of of the instrument man r firm for our little was suffering from a wil lling of the kuee, previousing it she was unable