Obituary.

We regret to state that one of the oldest and most respectable residents of Ops, Mr. W. J. Logie, died at his residence, some days since, on the eastern boundary of the town. Mr. Logie lived here since he was nine years of age. He was the second son of John C. Logie, an officer in the Royal Marines, who, on his retiring from the service, emigrated to Canada in 1832, settling in the Township of Ops, then an almost unbroken wilderness. The deceased was the second son of the veteran soldier and pioneer. Two brothers survive him, Alexander, the eldest, residing in Buffalo, N.Y., and Charles, the youngest, in Toronto. Mr. Logie, like a good many more Canadians, enlisted in the American army during the late rebellion, and served two years, seeing a good deal of active service. In 1847 he married Miss Sands, daughter of Mr. Robert Sands, a retired officer of the Royal Engineers. Shortly after this event he settled on the farm east of the town, where he resided until his death, the short interval he was in the American army excepted. Mrs. Logie and four sons survive him, all of whom are comfortably settled in life. Two children, a boy and a girl, died in infancy. Three of the boys are well known farmers in Ops, and the fourth lives in Montreal. The funeral on Saturday to Riverside cemetery was largely attended, the chief mourners being his two brothers before named and his three sons.

Lecture.

Many of the friends of Rev. J. Allister Murray, of London, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church here, were delighted to hear him on Sunday last preach in that church, and on Monday evening lecture in the same building on "A Tour through the Old Country." Mr. Murray has lost none of his old power, and kept his large audience deeply interested both on Sunday and Monday evening. An interesting event took place before the lecture on Monday evening, in the presentation of the following Address from the several churches to the Rev. Mr. Anderson, of the Baptist church, who is about to remove from Lindsay to the Province of Quebec. Mr. Anderson has been universally liked by all denominations, and the wording of the address will show, and we regret losing such a devoted man from our midst. All we can do is to wish him God speed in his new home:

DEAR MR. ANDERSON.—The sister churches cannot let you leave Lindsay without giving expression to the feelings they have long entertained towards you personally and their appreciation of your labor as a minister of Christ.

During your pastorate here of fourteen years, you have been contemporary with at least three successive ministers in each of the other churches in town, and in some instances with more than that number; it is no wonder that old and young have learned to look upon your familiar person as you move about the streets with veneration and love, and that the whole community have come to regard you as their common property, and feel that in some sort they have a vested interest in you.

We have known you as an able minister of the word and many of us have from time to time been instructed and edified by your discourses and addresses which have always breathed the spirit of the gospel. We have marked most of all the zeal and kindness with which you have joined with those of other churches for the advancement of religion in our midst, enquiring not so much how your own congregation might be specially benefited but rather how the Master might be best served. The sweetness of your charity has endeared you to us all and we wish to bear grateful and emphatic testimony to the usefulness of your life among us.

And now dear Sir we learn with sadness that your retirement from your pastorate here closes your active work as a minister of Christ, though this fact enables us to speak to you with a frankness which might be unseemly under other circumstances.

God has put unto you the honor of a long ministry and has enabled you to make it a faithful one, we magnify in you the richness of his grace. We need not remind you of the exceeding great reward, you always bear in mind the exceeding great and precious promises.

Will you convey to Mrs. Anderson, whose gracious presence will long be remembered here, and who has for so many years, and so well helped you in your work, the assurance of our kindest regards.

We pray that in His good province you may yet enjoy together many happy days in the serene autumn of your lives; days mellowed by memories of the past and imbued with contemplations of the future; the halcyon days of the old poets the sweet Indian summer days of our Canadian autumn.

But come, whether earlier or later, we feel the full assurance of hope that with you "it shall come to pass that at evening you time it shall be light," for with Paul you can say "I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him against that day."

And now will you join with us in saying "Unto Him that is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto Him in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world with end, Amen."

Presented in St. Andrews Church, Lindsay March 21st 1892.

On behalf of the Methodist church. T. M. CAMPBELL, Pastor, W. W. DEAN, Steward.
On behalf of the Episcopal Church. C. H. MARSH, Rector.
JOHN A. BARRON, Church Warden.
On behalf of the Presbyterian Church, R. JOHNSTON, Pastor.
D. J. MCINTYRE, Chairman Bd Managers.

BURNT RIVER.

Special to the WATCHMAN.

The tea and lecture given under the auspices of L.O.L. 541 was well attended by outsiders. There were not as many present from around the settlement as might have been.

Rev. Chas. E. Perry gave a lecture at the Falls on the 18th, under the auspices of L.O.L. 996, on Orangism. There were not many in the hall, as a tea was given that night at Ebenezer Church in Fenelon Township, where most of the Orangemen went.

On Saturday the 19th inst. a meeting was called in the school house for the purpose of starting a lodge of the Patrons of Industry. The lodge was organized with the following officers:—James Prettie, President; W. H. Colwell, Vice-President; A. B. Townsend, Secretary; Jos. Handley, Treasurer; E. Wood, Sentinel; W. Nicolls, Guide; Jos. Brisbin, Minerva; E. Michael, Demeter.

We are sorry to say that Mrs. V. Pitch's son has been very ill, and is not improving much.

Miss Annie Atkin has returned home from her grandmother's in Cavin, where she has been visiting previous to going to Manitoba.

Mr. Bradburn left for Winnipeg on Tuesday.

Special precautions have been taken to protect the Russian Imperial family because of information which has reached the St. Petersburg police that the Nihilists are prepared to make an attempt to assassinate the Czar.

The National Musicians' League in New York the other day proposed to debar the 13th battalion band, of Hamilton, Ont., from going to Denver next August with the Knights Templars of Chicago, claiming that it would be a violation of the alien labor law.

The latest news from Berlin says the crisis over the Primary Education bill still continues, but that Chancellor Caprivi has not yet resigned, though his resignation may be handed in on the return of the Emperor from Huberstosstock, where he went to think over the situation in solitude and evolve if possible a solution to the difficulty.
