MINDEN.

On Sunday evening last, while many of our citizens were in church the cry of fire was heard and a general stampede ensued to ascertain where the fire was; this did not require much time to discover, as the flames were then issuing out of the windows of the upper storey of the building occupied by Mr. John Dawson as a dwelling and store. Willing hands were soon at work to try and save as much of the stock as possible, but the household furniture and almost everything in the upper storey, including nearly $100 in cash, fell a prey to the flames that now spread rapidly, and the entire building was totally consumed. The building and contents were insured.—[Echo.]

A Chicago Girl Who Was Kidnapped in 1889 and Brought to Canada.

CHICAGO, March 26.—A feminine kidnapper was arrested here to-day after three years' escape from justice. The culprit is a good-looking well-dressed woman of 35, who gives her name as Mrs. Mary Dreighton, alias Murray.

After her arrest she broke down, and admitted that in 1889 she carried off 12-year-old Mabel H. Hopkins from the little one's home in Washington Boulevard.

Mrs. Dreighton had gained admission to the place on the plea of being an artist who wished to give the child lessons in painting and was left alone with the pupil a brief ten minutes.

The kidnapping was at the instigation, she said, of Mabel's father, E. B. Hopkins a crockery merchant, and Hattie Eggleston.

The daughter has been missing ever since and is now said to be in a convent in London, Canada. Warrants were sworn this afternoon for Hopkins and the Eggleston woman by Hopkins' wife, now divorced, to whose tireless efforts is due the final detection of the kidnapper.

Alien Contract Act

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, March 27.—For some time the dry goods store proprietors have been in the habit of advertising in Canadian papers for clerks, and if the person answering to the advertisement could prove themselves good men they would come from Canada to this city to take positions here. This has been going on for several years, and the dissatisfaction of the local Salesmen's Union has become greater and greater, as in many cases the imported clerks took the places of discharged American workmen. The clerks waited for a good while for their opportunity and at last it came. A suit was yesterday filed in the United States court at Cincinnati, Ohio, against John Wren, proprietor of one of the largest dry goods stores in this city, in the sum of $2,000. He is charged with having advertised for clerks in Toronto and with having engaged two to come to work, in direct violation of the Foreign Contract Labour law, the penalty for the violation of which is $1,000 for each man imported. It is understood that other similar suits will be filed against other dry goods men here, who are guilty of a similar offence. It is stated that Wren will try to prove that no contract was entered into with the men before they left Canada.

Deeming's Marvellous Criminal Career—A Most Accomplished Scoundrel.

LONDON, March 29.—Linking the various disclosures in the career of Deeming the police reports disclose the most marvellous criminal career ever known.

Since starting on a systematic course of crime at Sydney, N. S. W., the man has operated successfully at Bathurst, N. S. W.; Brisbane, Queensland; Adelaide Victoria; Christchurch, New Zealand, where it has been discovered that he married under the name of Delmart, and robbed and deserted his wife; Wellington, N. S. W., where he married and robbed a girl and absconded; Sydney, to which city he then returned; Cape Town, Cape Colony; Durban, Natal and Johannesburg, where he perpetrated successive swindles.

He cleared Durban with £4500 for Mozambique, and there transhipped for British India, and thence came by boat via the Red Sea to England, and operated in London, Hull and Liverpool. From England he fled to Montevideo, Uruguay.

Everywhere his road has been marked by crime. His escape has been due to the wonderful rapidity of his movements, his dash of execution and his perpetual aliases and disguises.

The Scotland Yard authorities declare that from further study of documents and facts in their possession they are able to state positively that Deeming could not have been implicated in any of the White-chapel murders.

The coroner's jury investigating the deaths of the women and four children whose bodies were found buried under the floor of Dunham Villa at Rainhill returned a verdict of wilful murder against Deeming.
