THE CHEESE BOARD MEETS

THEIR INTERESTS LOOKED AFTER,

- GOOD SPEECHES The Victoria County cheese board held its annual meeting in the council chamber on Tuesday, at 1.30. President Robertson took the chair and in his introductory Only 12 in the lot, but they are remarks it came out that in three years the cheese out-put of this county had nearly doubled, running from 10,487 boxes in 1895 to 19,386 in 1897. In 1898 the number fell back to 19,038 on account of the Valentia factory being burned, and the fact that Leaskdale, Ingoldsby and Sutton did not board all their cheese. The Mr. James Butler of the Mansion house excellent number. In the variety of matter and style of its articles it compares very Mr. Whitton bought last year, recently indeed with the bound and style of its articles it compares very enough, and the expense at so frequent journeys would be too great for salesmen

> Secretary Shine read his report and it was adopted, as also was Treasurer Sand-

An interesting debate took place on how the surplus should be used. Some favored applying it on the instructor's salary for next year. Mr. Geo. Lytle spoke strongly in favor of offering substantial prizes for cheese and creamery butter at the fall fair. It would stimulate makers to do their
