Editorial Notes.

THE home rule bill passed the second reading, but already, it is stated that over 10,000 amendments have been handed in. There appears to be no doubt whatever that the bill will be come law, as, on a straight vote, the supporters of the measure have a majority of over forty votes.

THE executive of the Patrons of Industry have agreed upon the following as the future platform of the organization. In local Assembly politics, they will demand—(1) "The election of all salaried provincial officers. (2) The modification of the system of taxation, so as to tax the holder of mortgages on land and thereby relieve the farmers of the amount he now pays on land mortgaged." And then in the realm of Dominion politics, they will demand—"Tariff for revenue purposes only; abolition of the Canadian Senate; the retention of land for settlers, and the abolition of bonuses to railways in the shape of land or money grants."

At the meeting of the license commissioners for West Victoria, held on Saturday last; a petition, signed by twenty citizens, was presented, asking that all hotel bars be closed at 9 o'clock each lawful evening. At present 11 o'clock is the hour for closing. The signers of the petition are all worthy citizens and all residents of Lindsay, but they do not represent public opinion any more than did the three tailors of Tooley street represent the people of England. It is acknowledged on all hands that the liquor law is as well administered in Lindsay as in any other place in the province and complaints on that score have been few and far between since the appointment of the present inspector. To compel the hotels to close their bars at 9 o'clock would be too radical a change, in the opinion of many. But if a change is to be made we would suggest as a compromise 10 o'clock, the hour fixed in Bowmanville, or the matter might be left in abeyance until the January elections when a plebiscite could be taken in all the municipalities interested, as the commissioners legislate, not for the town alone, but for the whole west riding of Victoria. To properly carry out a law you must have public sympathy in its favor and we are inclined to think that the early closing of bars would have the effect of driving the sale of liquor into the hands of illicit dealers.

THE GRIM REAPER AT WORK.

Gathering in the Harvest He Takes—
Both the Young and the Aged.

On Thursday last Mr. Jas. Willock, of Fenelon, died at the ripe old age of 86 years. He was born in Scotland and farmed for many years. He was a brother of Mr. R. Willock, of Fenelon, and never married. He was highly respected and his funeral, on Saturday, at Dunsford was largely attended.

REV. FATHER RUDKINS.

It is with deep regret that we are called upon to record the death of a warm personal friend, the Rev. Father Rudkins, of Peterboro. Deceased was one of the most popular priests that ever had charge of the parish, not only with his own people but with protestants as well. He did much to advance the best interests of his parishioners and always had a kindly word for everybody and his untimely death will be learned of with unfeigned regret by all classes of the community. The Daily Examiner, Peterboro, of Saturday, contains the following obituary notice:—"This afternoon at St. Joseph's Hospital, Rev. Patrick Joseph Rudkins, chancellor of the diocese of Peterboro and pastor of St. Peter's Cathedral, passed peacefully away, death resulting from the disease from which he has been suffering for several years. A few days ago his condition became so serious that he entered St. Joseph's Hospital, where death closed his earthly career. The late lamented priest was a native of Peterboro, the youngest son of the late Patrick Rudkins, born March 25th in the year 1862. He received his primary education in the local separate school, in which, in after years, he performed for some time the duties of teacher. He also attended the institute for some time, and Mr. Lynch's private school for classics. He entered St. Michael's College, Toronto, in 1880, and took the course in classics and metaphysics. Subsequently he entered the Grand Seminary, Montreal, where he completed his theological studies with distinction, and in the fall of 1887 he was ordained a priest by the late venerable Archbishop Lynch, and was stationed at the cathedral as assistant priest. On the translation of Bishop Dowling to Hamilton, accompanied by Rev. Father McEvay, on May 1st, 1889, Rev. Father Rudkins succeeded the latter as chancellor of the diocese and rector of St. Peter's Cathedral. He performed the onerous duties of this position with a zeal and assiduity which the importance of his trust demanded and in a manner to win the approval of his bishop. Combined with these duties those of rector of a large parish were by no means neglected, and the ill health that afflicted Rev. Father Rudkins he did not consider an excuse for any relaxation in zeal, and indeed his early death is attributed to the zeal and energy he threw into his work, aggravating the serious disease from which he suffered—gastric catarrh—and thus shortening the days of a busy and useful life. Rev. Father Rudkins was greatly beloved by his many parishioners for his kindness, sympathy and devotion to their interests, and among his brother clergy he was held in high esteem for his piety and zeal for every interest, temporal and spiritual of the church in whose service his life was literally spent. As a citizen he was held in general high respect, both for his office and his kindly personal qualities. The superintendency of the separate schools, which he held for several years, was another outlet for the rev. gentleman's zeal, and in fact no duty was evaded whose discharge could lead to the promotion of the moral and temporal interests of the parishioners he ministered to, and the church, to which his health and strength and finally his life were devoted. Rev. Father Rudkins leaves behind him a brother William and a sister Kate, to mourn the loss of not only a brother in the flesh, but of a father in God."

The funeral of the late Father Rudkins took place at Peterboro, on Tuesday morning, and was one of the largest ever seen in the town. The clergy present from this district were Very Rev. P. D. Laurent V.G. and Father Scanlan, Lindsay; Father Bretherton, Victoria Road; Father Connolly, Downeyville; Father McColl, Ennismore; Father T. B. O'Connell, Fenelon Falls and Father McGuire, Bracebridge. Requiem high mass was celebrated by Vicar-General Laurent and the funeral oration was delivered by Rev. Father Teffy, of St. Michael's College, Toronto. The cortege was a very long one and embraced people of all classes and creeds. The members of the C.O.F.; C.M.B.A.; E.B.A.; Catholic Association; St. Vincent de Paul Society; Separate School Board; employees of the lock works (in which a brother of the deceased is a foreman); pupils of Lynch's Academy and two hundred and fifty boys from the separate schools all marched on foot. Requiescat in pace.

MR. ARCHIBALD MUIR.

On Saturday night Mr. Archibald Muir, local manager of the Bell Telephone exchange died very suddenly of heart disease, at the residence of Dr. Burrows, aged 27 years. On the previous evening the deceased was at party at the doctor's house, when he was suddenly seized with pains in the stomach. He was placed in bed at once and on Friday and on Saturday and Saturday night he was apparently all right, but just about midnight he suddenly expired without giving the slightest warning. Deceased had charge of the exchange here since last October, and was an old employee of the company. He was very popular with all classes of the people and his sudden demise occasioned much regret. He was a member of Faithful Brethren Lodge A.F. and A.M. and the members accompanied the body to the G.T.R. depot, on Monday afternoon last. The interment took place at Hamilton, on Tuesday.

MRS. BALDWIN.

On Sunday morning last Mrs. Baldwin wife of Mr. Robt. Baldwin, blacksmith, Cambridge-st., passed away, after an illness extending over only one week. The deceased was in her 27th year and was a daughter of Mr. Andrew Calder, of Argyle, formerly of Cambray. She was married but 8 months ago and leaves an infant child, 2 weeks old. Her husband has the sympathy of a large circle of friends and acquaintances in his sad bereavement.

MRS. HARTLEY DUNSFORD.

A telegram from Mr. C. R. Dunsford, Morden, Man., announced the death of Mrs. Hartley Dunsford, which took place on Sunday last, at the residence of her son. The deceased lady had reached a ripe old age. She was a daughter of the late Capt. Rubidge, R. N. For many years her late husband was registrar of the County of Victoria and she was well known to the majority of our readers. She left Lindsay about 2 years ago and has since resided in the Northwest. Mrs. John A. Barron is a daughter and Mr. E. D. Orde a nephew of deceased.

MISS DUCK.

Miss Teresa Duck, eldest daughter of Mr. John Duck, died on Tuesday at the early age of 25 years, after an illness of some four months. About the beginning of the present year she was attacked by a gripple, which developed later into lung and heart trouble, which finally caused her death, despite all that human skill and kindness could accomplish. The deceased was a young lady of much promise, dearly beloved by all who knew her, and her untimely death was heard of with deep regret.

Costume Recital.

On Friday evening, May 5th Miss E. Pauline Johnson, the great Indian Poet Reciter will give one of her celebrated entertainments at St. Paul's Sunday School room. Wherever she has appeared she has captivated the audiences and the papers are unanimous in praising her. The Hamilton Spectator says:—"Her elocutionary work was forceful, intelligent and full of meaning. The poems which were recited with most favor were those in which the character of the Indian race is depicted, either in narrative or dramatic form. These were made doubly interesting by the personality of the poet-reader, who, dressed in a striking Indian costume, with her raven hair flowing over her shoulders, her dark eyes gleaming and dilating with the passion she was portraying, seemed like an embodiment as well as the interpreter of the wrongs, the aspirations, the spirit of her race."

Diamond Dust.

—Neil Sinclair, Lindsay's popular captain, spent Sunday at Salem, where he and the veteran Dan. Varcoe spent most of the afternoon planning a "Waterloo" for the Agincourt B. B. club.

—Our representative, Mr. W. H. Simpson, left for Port Hope this morning to be present at the base-ball meeting.

—The boys will commence practice on Monday evening.

—Cobourg, Oshawa, Peterboro and Lindsay will be represented at Port Hope today (Thursday).

—Every evening the market square presents a lively appearance from six to eight o'clock, both lacrosse and baseball going on.

—According to outside reports Lindsay is going to sign all the players in the country. One word of advice to all whom it may concern. Lindsay is going to play a strict town team, as there is no credit in winning a game when the whole of Canada is represented on the field.

Marine Matters.

—The Alice Ethel is towing logs for the Sadler mill.

—The ice is not out of the lake yet, there being quite a bridge from Sturgeon Point to Ball Point.

—Mr. Thexton's yacht, the Nouna Roy, has been overhauled, painted, etc., and will soon float again.

—The Zetta Bruce is towing up wood from Douglas' landing for the Sadler, Dundas & Flavell Co.

—The Dominion is towing logs, principally cedar, for the Ratbun Co., down from McGill's landing.

—The Eva is still on the ways, but is ready to slide at any time, and is in good shape for the season's work.

—The Nellie T, alias the "Flying Dutchman," is in commission once more, and is prepared to distance anything that runs on these waters, big or small.

—The new Parkins boat has her machinery, screw, etc., in position, the hull has been painted, the cabins are being put in shape, and soon she will be launched.
