Eggs. -Our active and enterprising townsman, Mr. Curtis, has just completed the erection of one of the most extensive, best appointed and advantageously constructed buildings for the preserving and storage of eggs, butter, etc. The contracts were given to the most expert and reliable contractors, and no expense was $8,000 being expended on the building. All the latest and most important improvements, without regard to cost, have been used in the construction of the building. 1,800 pounds of metal were used in the structure. The cold storage room has sufficient capacity for eighty thousand dozen eggs. The space for vats is also very large. Competent judges state that this is one of the best and most complete structures of the kind anywhere to be found. It is an important addition to the business establishments of the town.-Observer.
