That Civic Deputation to Ottawa

CONSIDERABLE self laudation by our town council was indulged in at the last meeting of that august body, over the result of the visit to Ottawa. We have taken some pains to investigate what reasoning powers were brought to bear on the ministry by the members of our council, who went on that jamboree and the answer is "nit." If the town had to spend money in order to have numerical representation why did they not pay the expenses of men who had business interests and business capacity. It could be very well defended if they had voted a grant to send Messrs. Thos. Sacler, J. D. Flavelle and John Carew, or men of that stamp, in company with the Mayor, J. A. Barron, J. C. and Capt. Crandell. It is utterly indefensible for a councillor, who knows no more of the question than our black cat, to make the town pay his expenses. We have learned from the remarks of Reeve Touchburn that more light was thrown on the matter in the interview before the Hon. Mr. Blair, by Mr. H. O. Leary, who was not one of the deputation—than all the combined orations of our town fathers. It was not by anything said or done by any, or all, of the councilmen present, that Minister Blair took such prompt action, and we know it. If they wanted a trip let them pay for it. Just fancy a lot of such men going, as they did, to influence a government—and forgetting to insure the town property in their absence, and leaving things in such a muddle as they found on their return. Truly our town affairs have fallen into queer hands.

In conclusion we may state that a great deal of well deserved praise is being bestowed upon the able representatives of this county, on the pleasing manner in which they introduced and assisted the deputations, and also to Mr. R. J. McLaughlin, to whom much of the success is due.

The Easter Concert.

The indications are that next Monday night's concert will be one of the most successful ever held in Lindsay. The committee have been so fortunate as to secure Miss Allie Sullivan's Lost Chord. Miss Watson is a graduate of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, and is known in Lindsay as a pleasing and capable singer. Miss Mabel Winters and Miss Nellie Corneil will also sing solos. Both of the latter are well and very favorably known to the Lindsay public. These, with organ solos, choruses, etc., will form a program of rare merit. It has been a point to make everything of an interesting as well as instructive nature and the committee feel that they will present a program that will be a rare treat to all hearers. The tickets will be fifteen cents, as sold at Purter's and Little's bookstores. The date and place, Monday evening, April 19th, Cambridge-st. Methodist church.

Stock Notes.

-Mr. D. McIntyre will place his popular sire Barney Ellis on the route again this season.

-Dr. Broad, the popular veterinary and owner of the imported Clydesdale Knight of St. Andrew's, reports the latter as in great form. As a stock producer the Knight of St. Andrew's occupies a proud position, and notwithstanding his long career in Victoria county his popularity has not decreased one jot or tittle.

-Mr. W. E. Graham of Ops has joined the great army of stockmen, and has purchased a grand short horn Durham from the noted breeder Thos. Greenway of Edon, with which to head his herd.

-Mr. T. R. James of Cambury has been reading the interesting correspondence published in THE WATCHMAN in connection with the pork industry until he has been influenced to purchase a fine Berkshire from Mr. D. Howkins. The animal is not only registered but is pure-bred in every sense. Farmers should inspect this animal.

-Mr. W. C. E. Vrooman, V.S., of Bobcaygeon has purchased the handsome roadster stallion Phil Sheridan, sire of the prize-winning carriage team at the Verulam fair last fall, and will make a season with him in that locality. Phil Sheridan is not only well bred in trotting lines but he is demonstrating that he is a good sire of handsome and useful carriage horses.

Japanese Jute Mats, with printed patterns, 18x36 inches, for 85c. Axminster Mats, with fringe around, 18x36 inches, for 85c. Moquette Mats in new designs, 18x36 inches, for $1. Moquette Mats in new designs, 27x64, worth $4, for $2.50.

Church Notes.

-Rev. J. W. Macmillan, the pastor of St. Andrew's church, will occupy his own pulpit at both services next Sabbath last, the evening service, it being Easter Sunday, he will preach on a subject appropriate to that occasion, and the choir will render special Easter anthems.

-Rev. Dr. Carman of Belleville preached eloquent educational sermons in the Cambridge Methodist church on Sabbath last, morning and evening, to a very large congregation.

-The Queen-st. Methodist church has been renovated and looks very fine in its new dress. The walls and ceilings have been greatly improved. Next Sabbath there will be special services for an Easter character. The S. S. is expected to be present and take part in the service. The evening service will be of the character of a song service. All welcome. Queen-st. is favored with excellent congregations. Attentive ushers find seats for all comers.
