TOWN NEWS

LITTLE LOCAL LINES

-Special attention paid to Repairing of Watches and Jewelry at HUGHAN & CO'S.

-A Strathfield lady writes Dr. Neelands that he made her a successful fit after having eight sets of teeth made in Toronto and elsewhere.—17-f.

-The wharves and boat houses at Sturgeon Point have this spring escaped damage by the outgoing ice. This is the first time in many years that serious damage has not resulted from wind and ice jams.

-Under the provisions of the New Act, Marriage Licenses are issued by Mr. THOS. BEALL at his residence, Albert-st. at any time of the day between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m.; also at his office in G. W. Beall's jewelry store during business hours as usual.—8-f.

-Mrs. E. E. Sharpe has secured the district agency for "The Beautiful Life of Francis E. Willard," and is pushing the sale of the work in Lindsay. The book is beautifully printed on good paper, handsomely illustrated and neatly bound, and should be in every home.

-Mr. H. Reazin writes: "Two mistakes occurred in my epitome of my son's letter describing his journey to the Yukon. (1) The 75 miles portage over the mountains occupied six days; (2) the distance from the delta of the McKenzie river via Peel river to Fort McPherson is 50 miles instead of 500 miles."

-A rare treat is in store for Lindsay people Monday evening next, the 11th inst. For this they are under obligation to the Emerald Benevolent Association, who have arranged to have Miss Mary Thompson and Mr. Neil Barton on that occasion in their admirable literary and dramatic performances. These entertainers come very highly recommended and lovers of a high class entertainment of this sort should not fail to be on hand. Seats on sale at Porter's bookstore.

-Sugar makers report a great run of sap since the cold snap set in. It is to be hoped the weather will also have a tendency to thicken and improve the flavor of the product sold in Lindsay. At a dollar a gallon, consumers should be able to get the pure article. Some of the "maple" syrup sold in town this spring had not that appearance or flavor that would lead one to suspect it had ever seen a sugar bush.

-A young woman who paid a much advertised dermatologist $300 to make a pair of dimples has recently sued him for $50,000 damages for the result. The expensive dimples were effected at the permanent disfiguring of an once attractive face. The girl is one of many whose lives have been embittered or absolutely ruined by the practice of "professional beautifiers" whose sole skill lies in blanchishing of promise, and against whom women cannot be too strongly or too frequently warned.

-Mr. Fred Fee, formerly of Chicago, Skagway, Alaska, under date of March 10th, he had just landed and was undecided whether he would go farther or return. He says he had become disheartened when he reached this God-forsaken mining town, for a few days and listening to accounts of the terrors of the White and Chilkoot passes, sell their outfits for what they will bring and board the first returning steamer with dead horses, and much sickness is feared when the hot weather arrives.

LITTLE LOCAL LINES

-JACOBS' Parcel Delivery positively meets all trains. Leave orders at Morgan's Drug Store.—3-f.

-Orillia lodge, A.O.U.W., now has 200 members and is still growing. There are now over 34,000 members in Ontario.

-Careful phenological examinations made by Prof. Dean, Lindsay, graduate of the American Institute of Phenology, New York.—4-l.

-The Huntsville and Bracebridge examinations for district teachers' certificates are to be discontinued by order of the education department.

-Prof. Dean will be at home Saturdays, to give phenological examinations. Office and residence, 18 Regent-st., north ward, a few doors west of William-st.—4-l.

-The Orillia turf association will hold its annual summer meeting on June 1st and 2nd. There will be three races each day and a couple of running races.

-In order to provide that there shall be absolutely correct time over the system the Grand Trunk railway has appointed Prof. McLeod of McGill University observatory to take charge of the company's time service.

-A beautiful and unique lantern meeting will be given at the Salvation Army barracks on Saturday evening next, April 9th, under the auspices of Capt. Cummins. The subject is "Taken in charge," and all who can spare an hour should make it a point to be present.

-A New York editor is reported as saying that he is a true Christian, an adamant pillar of the church and loves sacred songs, but when night after night he hears a man who owes him three year's subscription singing "Jesus paid it all," he feels like shedding his christianity for a few moments to go over with a club and give him a receipt in full.

-On Monday next, April 11th, the Esturion will commence her regular trips between Lindsay, Sturgeon Point and Bobcaygeon for the season of 1898, leaving Bobcaygeon at 8 a.m. and Lindsay at 3 p.m. Captain J. Diamond will again be in charge, with Engineer Marshall and a competent crew. The boat is now being painted and otherwise brightened up, and the management look forward to a successful season. See advt. elsewhere.

-For many years there has been no time when a pure food bill was not before the legislature of some state. The urgency of legislation on the subject is humorously stated by a Hartford man who liked some raspberry jam so well that he asked his grocer to get him the recipe. The grocer wrote to Boston, and the Boston wholesaler wrote to Kalamazoo, and the manufacturer in Kalamazoo, being assured that the information was for domestic purposes only, replied that the body of the jam was tomatoes, the coloring was secured by aniline dyes, and the seed was hayseed!

-An amusing incident was witnessed at the river bank one evening last week. A little toddling pup—accompanied by a good-sized water spaniel—had strayed down to the water, where it sat watching the boatmen as they passed. Presently becoming interested, into the swift running river the pup plunged, but the water being icy cold it soon became chilled and set up a pitiful whine as it floated down stream. In an instant the older dog, who had been watching the antics of his young friend, came to the rescue and plunging in seized master pup by the neck and swam ashore. A few moments later the pup was in the swim moments later the pup was in the swim and would surely have been drowned had not its kind guardian, who seemed to think his little friend was under his special protection, plunged in and seized the jam was tomatoes, and the coloring was secured by aniline dyes, and the seed was hayseed!

LITTLE LOCAL LINES

-Vest-pocket receipt books—very handy and cheap—for sale at THE WATCHMAN office.

-The annual meeting of the Lindsay curling club will be held in the club rooms this (Thursday) evening at 7.30.

-Tenders are asked for the building of a new Methodist church in North Verulam. Particulars can be had from John Foster, Bobcaygeon, by whom tenders will be received up to April 23rd inst.

-Clement Halliday and Fred Hannah, who left Janesville a week or so ago, were on the C.P.R. train wrecked near Moose Jaw. They report a great shaming up, but escaped unhurt. They like the west.

-Parties who intend to buy or build and require money to assist them will find it to their advantage to interview the Victoria Loan and Savings Co. who are offering very favorable and easy terms of repayment to parties anxious to own their homes.—11-4.

-Local correspondents are requested to write as regularly as possible, to study brevity, omit unkind personalities and business "pulls," to be careful in the spelling of proper names and to leave no important event unrecorded.

-Neglect to register births, deaths and marriages within thirty days subjects the offender to a fine of five dollars for each offence. The instructions of the department are to prosecute in every case. Those interested should govern themselves accordingly.

-The members of the Kirkfield Whist Club will hold an Easter ball at that village on Friday evening, April 15th. A large number of invitations have been issued, and the affair is sure to be a great success. No doubt many from Lindsay will be present.

-We have been requested by the prize-winners in W. M. Robson's essay competition to tender their hearty thanks to the firm for their fair and prompt distribution of the prizes. These lucky and clever people are Miss Laurence Mark and Miss Julia Sharpe. It is only fair to say that as these essays all came to us by number they were judged wholly on their merits, and we had no idea who the winners were until after the judging was done.

-There came to our table recently a number of a very helpful quarterly magazine called "Current History," which contains a concise and well reviewed account of happenings throughout the world during the three months preceding its publication. We have seen no better hand-book for anyone desiring to refresh his mind on current events. Editor Alfred S. Johnson, Ph. D. price $1.50 a year. Boston: The New England Publishing Co.

-About 1.30 o'clock on Friday morning the dwelling and general store of Mr. Acheson, Retlie's station, north of Kinnmount, was completely destroyed by fire. The fire started in the rear of the store, and was probably incendiary. Mr. Acheson was unable to save anything and only rescued his family with difficulty. By a hard fight the citizens were able to confine the fire to one building which is a total loss to the owner, Mr. Retlie.

-The Sadler, Dundas and Flavelle Milling Co., with their usual enterprise, have recently put in an entire system of the very latest bolting machinery and under directions of an expert have put the mill running order. The result is a quality of flour excellent all their previous brands. This article is known as the Royal and is already creating a heavy demand. With this equipment the mill should attract a wide custom from those seeking first-class flour.

-Mr. M. W. Chayer, grand organizer of the A.O.U.W., has been in town for the past week in the interests of that excellent and carefully managed organization. As a result of his work eighteen new members were initiated Tuesday evening, with prospects of several more joining at the next regular meeting. The lodge now numbers nearly sixty members. Since separating from the American order a year ago and adopting the graded system, the society has gone ahead with leaps and bounds.

-Mr. W. Junkin, the diver who has been repairing the locks at Bobcaygeon the other day. He climbed up the ladder till his head was above water and his attendants opened his helmet. At that moment a rung of the ladder broke and he fell into the water. He was rescued by the diver's assistants and was taken to the hospital. He is now recovering from his injuries.

-The Easter number of the Youth's Companion is an excellent journal. Thoroughly alive to its mission, it is well qualified to perform it to the delight and profit of its young readers, as well as not a few who are not young at all. The magazine is followed by a number of others, all of which sustain the reputation of the paper. It may be said for Canadian readers that the Youth's Companion, unlike some anti-British sentiment, is free from any anti-British sentiment.

-In their little panic over war prospects Americans are hunting up all sorts of craft that will carry a cannon. Mr. Gooderham of liquor fame, Toronto, has a splendid pleasure yacht, and our cousins are making extravagant bids for it. The wicked "excursion" again, the wicked "spaniards" will be no pleasure trip, but the speed of Mr. Gooderham's craft renders her an effective vessel in case of being "sighted" by a Spanish gun boat. We have been informed that the Washington officials are negotiating with Mr. John Doves for his "Flying Dutchman," but that worthy says he will not entertain the idea for a moment. He would not sacrifice next summer's towing to save the republic.

-Wm. J. Stark, chief detective of the Michigan Central railway, was shot in the mouth and badly injured one day last week in an encounter with train robbers near Furnessville, eight miles out from Chicago. He had corvoted the trio in a barn and undertook to hold up the entire lot single-handed. They dropped him in the first shot, but he emptied his six-shooter before they finally got away. The bullet was a .32-calibre one. It passed through the upper lip, carrying away three teeth, and lodged in the neck below the right ear, where it was probed for and extracted. Mr. Stark is a cousin of Mr. S. J. Fox, M.P.P., and paid a visit to the party a few days ago. He will be remembered by those with whom he came in contact as a man of heavy build, quiet manner and genial disposition.

-The Peterboro Klondike party, of which Mr. Ed. Neill, formerly of Lindsay, is a member, will sail from Vancouver on the 13th inst. for the Yukon. The party is probably the best equipped and organized that has yet left Canada for the Klondike. They have six tons of provisions and seven tons of explosives. They are equipped with a steam drill for boring into the frozen earth, cans for transportation, and food enough to last for a year and a half. They will draw soles and trousers later the day, and although they take 150 pounds of tobacco, and although they take this much of the weed three of the party do not use it. It cost each member $1,200 to fit out, and some of the party sold out their business to go. They have even organized a mutual benefit fund, by means of which any taken sick will be invalided home with all the care that money can procure.

LITTLE LOCAL LINES

-Don't forget that Good Friday and Easter Monday are bank holidays.

-Five additional election protests were filed Tuesday, making 49 already filed.

-For Wedding Presents Rings or Marriage Licenses go to HUGHAN & CO'S.

-Charles M. Foley of Paris, a defaulting lawyer, was sentenced to three years in penitentiary by Judge Hardy at Brantford.

-Any one wanting a handsome family phaeton made by one of the best manufacturers—can secure a bargain if purchased immediately. See advt. in other columns.

-Those who saw "The Three Guardsmen" will remember Mr. W. D. Emerson who took the part of the Duke of Orleans. He is now held in London for fatally shooting his manager.

-The Commercial house on Lindsay-st. has changed hands, Mr. Dorgan having sold out to Mr. Windell Matell of Berlin. The new proprietor will take possession in a few weeks.

-Mr. A. Doran has opened out in the harness business at No. 4 Adam's block.

-Mr. John Berry has removed his harness shop from William-st. to Holtorf's block, next to postoffice.

-A. C. Edney has opened a photograph gallery in the rooms recently occupied by the Lindsay Portrait Co. First-class work at a moderate price. Call and compare this work with the work of other galleries. Remember the place, over F. W. McCarthy's store.

-The council is troubled about town butchers having outside competition on the market. It seems the license is now high as the law allows, so the only thing for the council to do is to insist on or adopt a butchers by-law in which only town people shall be mentioned as eligible for license.

-Mr. A. Higginbotham, our popular chemist, has moved into his new premises east of the city. Under the management of the mechanics and paperers that stand has been rendered as fine as any east of Toronto and no doubt Mr. Higginbotham's business will improve in proportion to his improved premises.

-Friday, April 15th, will likely see one of the largest audiences ever assembled in the Academy of Music. Miss Katharine E. Oliver has attracted large audiences in every English-speaking city in the world, and her appearance in Lindsay is being eagerly awaited. Secure seats at Porter's bookstore.

-The last lecture in the Collegiate Institute lecture course will be given by Mr. H. A. Powell, M.P., for Westmoreland, on Tuesday evening, April 13th, at the end of the month. The subject will be "The Natural Development of Canada" and the treatment will be such as to make a valuable and enjoyable lecture.

-The road commissioner of New Jersey pointed out that the road he had in mind was a bushel to haul wheat five miles on a well-made road, and at least nine cents to haul it the same distance on a rough or sandy road. The farmers may justly conclude that some tax levies are more economical than the bare necessities.

-Next Tuesday evening the ladies' auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. will give a concert in the Academy of Music. An excellent program will be rendered during the evening. The program includes "The Snow-Capped Sisters" will be presented. The ladies hope their efforts will be heartily supported by our citizens.

-Westminster lodge No. 20, Sons of England, will hold their annual "at home" on Tuesday evening, April 13th, at the lodge rooms over Blackwell's store. A suitable program of music, singing, etc., is being arranged, and a pleasant social evening is in store for the members and their friends.

-On Saturday last Mr. Thomas Graham, who resides near Sturgeon Point, was on his way to F. Nelson Falls, when his horse took fright and ran away. The buggy was upset and Mr. Graham sustained several severe bruises about the body and face, but fortunately no limbs were broken. The buggy was badly wrecked.

-In mentioning the millinery openings in last week's issue we mentioned the beautiful display made by Mrs. H. Silver of William-st. This establishment is thoroughly well known in town and country; suffice to say that all that is latest and prettiest is included in the stock. In another space her advertisement will be found.

-To thoroughly advertise the new Edison Electric Bell, which is a positive cure for rheumatism, neuralgia and all aches and pains, we will put out a limited number in Victoria county on thirty days trial; a sure guarantee. All suffering from the above ailments, and wishing to give the bell a trial, apply to Mr. EDMONDS, 132 William-st., north, Lindsay.

-The finance minister, Mr. Fielding, delivered his budget speech in the house on Tuesday. It was an able effort, and occupied three and a half hours in delivery. The only change in the tariff rates was an increase in the duties with the West Indies accorded the preferential rate. This latter has been so altered as to extend to British possessions only. The estimates call for one million dollars less than last year.

-The weigh scales were converted into a pugilistic amphitheatre on Tuesday afternoon last, when Jim Corbett, Frank Slavyn and Spider Bobby of Boston accidentally met at that retired spot. As Market Clerk Colasche was not present to collect the fees, the "box" was not as remunerative as it should have been. The way the battle commenced was just too nice for anything. Frank led off with a neatly thrown bit of oratory that struck Jim right over the head and staggered him somewhat, but he rallied and sent back several very cutting remarks that caught Frank on the jaw and rattled him considerably. Spider Bobby was acting as chief bottle-holder, and filled his ears full of nice dainty sentences that were hurled forth at the unsuspecting Jim. The battle of words grew fierce, and twice during the engagement it was feared that both contestants would lose their heads and indulge in the old-time style of settling differences, but Parson Davies, who acted as an impromptu referee, called "time" at the first sign of foul fighting, and prevented the shedding of blood. Several parties who were attracted to the spot stated that it was a capital exhibition of the "manly art," and while greatly admiring the form shown by the heavy weights, they were particularly impressed by the newly-coined sentences furnished by the "Spider." There is a difference of opinion, however, as to which would win if the "Parson" had not been present and prevented them from dropping into the old-time style.

L.C.I. NOTES

-The last meeting of the literary society, for this term was held Thursday last, March 31st, almost the entire school being present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, after which the following program was rendered: Piano duet, Miss O'Leary; recitation, Miss J. Gross; solo, Miss L. Wallace; address on "Some important minerals" by Mr. Stevens, after which the students were allowed to examine a number of specimens; solo, Miss A. Sylvester; violin solo, Mr. R. Spratt. The president then spoke a few words, expressing his satisfaction with the work of the society for the term, and thanking those who had so kindly helped in the program. The meeting then closed with the national anthem.

ENTERPRISING FIRMS

Though not milliners, there were four firms in town whose openings on Tuesday of last week deserve mention. Notice of them were crowded out last week and we take pleasure in publishing them now.

Britton Bros. had a great rally at their jewelry opening. Everyone knows the style of Britton's store, and it was seen at its best on Tuesday night. We are assured that it was the most successful event in the history of the firm.

Messrs. Edwards & Co. had their bicycle opening that evening. The Cleveland was much in evidence. Mr. Gibson, the firm's representative was on deck and expatiated on the excellencies of that famous mount. The three grades offered this year will make a warm summer of it for competitors.

Mr. R. S. Porter, of wall paper fame, had an exhibit in his windows that proved an eye opener. People rushing to the millinery attractions became pre-occupied outside this store and well-nigh forgot their mission. And no wonder. Mr. Porter has the newest things in domestic and foreign papers, and is making a heavy haul on the local trade.

Mr. W. A. Goodwin is entirely "in it" when wall papers are under discussion. When buying that article Mr. Goodwin exercises not only business ability, but a high degree of artistic taste. We were thoroughly impressed with that fact when looking over his display of papers on a recent visit to the store. The variety and beauty of these goods, as pointed out by Mr. Goodwin, provide a half hour's entertainment that no one should miss. When the goods were saw are put on a room by Mr. W. H. W., who does it as it is done in the leading American cities, people of good taste will be delighted.
