Fire.
About half past twelve yesterday noon a fire was discovered in Moyn's bakery Caroline street, East Ward. The alarm was sounded and the fire brigade were soon on the spot, and quickly subdued the flames. There was but slight damage done.

Mr. Simmons will give two recitations, and Mr. and Mrs. Howell, Miss Robinson, of Ingersol, Mrs. Bates, Miss Jackson, and Mr. Stanley Smyth, will sing at Professor Parker's organ recital in Cambridge Street Methodist Church on Monday evening, May 20th. Tickets 15 cents.—3t.

Public School Concert.
The concert given in the Opera House last Friday evening, by the school children was a very successful affair. The choruses by the children were admirably sung and reflects credit upon their conductor and his assistants. The duets by Misses Cora and Edith Walters, and Misses Stella and Cora Wallace were nicely sung and loudly applauded. The solo of Miss Nellie McCarty was captivating effort and was highly appreciated. Miss Emma Dingle sang a solo in a pleasing manner and Freddie Hopkins delighted the audience with his recitation. The tableaux and stately were beautiful and were perfectly performed. The Octette Club sang in good style "Oh, Hail us, Ye Free," and had to respond to a double encore. Mrs. Howell and Miss Jackson's solos were well sung, Miss Jackson responding to an encore. The Quartette, "The Swiss People's Song," sung by Misses McSweeney and King Messrs Watson and Matthews was excellently rendered, and received loud applause. The club swinging, fancy marching and calisthenics by a class of 16 young girls of the Collegiate Institute was a very pleasing feature. The girls marched in perfect step and time and the club swinging and calisthenics so perfectly executed as to call forth bursts of applause during their performance. God Save the Queen brought the concert to a close.

Improvements.
Mr. John Dobson has been altering his store, so as to comply with the law regulating grocery and liquor stores.
Mr. J. Wetherup, has been making improvements in his store, and is now one of the handsomest as well as one of the largest in town. The cost of the late changes has almost reached five hundred dollars. We understand that Mr. R. Neill, will occupy the premises as a boot and shoe store.

Mill Slabs
for sale at Sadler, Dundas & Co.'s mill. $1.50 per cord, delivered to any part of the town.—10-4t.

Enterprising.
Mr. Fader, the enterprising lumberman of Stanhope, sawed his first log in his new mill on Tuesday April 2nd. There were a number assembled to witness the event, and Mr. Gideon P. Marks purchased the first lumber sawn. Mr. J. Y. Powell, of Cambay, from whom the machinery was purchased and who has been fitting it up, deserved praise for the way in which the mill does its work, the lumber being turned out in a first-class manner. The mill is a great convenience to the settlement, and we wish Mr. Fader success in his enterprise.

Buy Your Milk Pans, milk pails and general tinware at the Auction Mart.—14-4t

St. Paul's Vestry.
The adjourned meeting of St. Paul's Vestry was held on Monday evening last, the attendance of members being large. The financial statement of the year was presented and showed a satisfactory state of affairs. The question of the re-leasing or selling the Church property on Kent St., next the new Post Office was discussed, and it was decided to re-lease, and to advertise for tenders, in order to secure the best terms. This valuable property is therefore now in the market for renting purposes.

Mrs. Scott Siddons.
The world renowned and most talented Elocutionist of the 19th century has been engaged by the Lindsay Mechanic's Institute for the evening of Friday the 17th of May, when she will appear in the opera house in her famous dramatic recitals, specially selected for the occasion. Efforts are being made for reduced fares on all trains. This being her farewell tour the people's curiosity has been aroused and their anxiety everywhere to hear this talented lady has been taxed accommodation. To avoid this, extra seating capacity has been provided and the number of tickets limited. Reserved seats can be secured at Porter's, where a plan of the Hall can be seen. Admission 35 and 50 cts. 15-2t.

Brechin Mineral Water for sale at Higginbotham's drug store.—15-3t

Church Notes.
The ordinance of baptism will be administered at the Baptist Church next Sunday evening.

In the Cambridge Street Methodist Church on Sunday evening last the Rev. Dr. Williams preached to a very large congregation on the "Real Presence," dealing very thoroughly with transubstantiation; before the administration of the Lord's Supper thirteen persons were received into church fellowship. The Rev. H. S. Anderson, a young minister of fine abilities will preach in Dr. Williams' pulpit next Sunday morning and evening.

At a meeting of the Official Board of the Cambridge street Methodist church, the following resolution was moved by Mr. J. L. Winters and seconded by Mr. F. C. Taylor, and unanimously carried: "That the thanks of the congregation of the First Methodist church of the Town of Lindsay be and is hereby tendered to the Rev. Dr. Williams for the very eloquent and practical way in which he has presented the truths of the Gospel to this congregation, and also for the able and efficient way in which he has managed the affairs of this church, both spiritual and temporal, and that this Quarterly Board do most cordially invite the Rev. Dr. Williams to remain with us for another conference year."

Y. M. C. A. Notes.
Reception.
The reception to be held in the Young Men's Christian Association rooms next Tuesday, 14th, has every promise of being a grand success.
