The 24th Celebration.

The 70th anniversary of the birth of Lindsay with a good deal of enthusiasm, and the attractions and pastimes of the day were numerous. The crowd of visitors was large, and the best of good feeling and order characterized the day throughout, Amongst the pastimes indulged in was an excursion to Sturgeon Point, under Heaslip was highly esteemed, gave much the city building. the auspices of the Delury Fife and Drum Band, the affair being successful and enjoyable. The base ball match unity in their great loss. at the McCarthy grounds on Victoria Ave. was a spirited contest, and the attendance was such as to make the gate receipts yield a good sum to McCarthy's park on May 24th between readiness to "settle," the irrepressible, Lindsay B.
