Y. M. C. A. Dr. Wad-EI-Ward addressed the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday afternoon at 4.15. The attendance was very large, so much so that the rooms were insufficient to hold all who came to hear the able lecturer and preacher. The gathering in consequence adjourned to the Baptist church, which was very kindly lent for the occasion.

The women's committee will meet next Monday afternoon in the Association rooms.

Next Tuesday evening a medical talk will be given in the Y. M. C. A. by a doctor on "the heart and circulation." The doctor will use a manikin with which he will illustrate his talk.

Next Sunday the young men will continue their series of missionary talks. The field for discussion next Sunday is Africa. Meet at 4.15. All young men cordially invited.

Fourteen books have been kindly sent in by friends since the book reception.

The Mechanics' Institute.

It is to be hoped there will be a good attendance of members at the annual meeting of the Mechanics Institute on Tuesday 13th May. The annual report will be presented, and the election of officers and directors held, as also other important business attended to. Let there be a large attendance.

Ruffianism.

Several of our merchants are very much annoyed by the antics of young boys, who are fast becoming rowdies. They spend their evenings and nights in trying to do mischief in upsetting and destroying articles left out after night, causing much trouble and annoyance. Our constables should have a sharp look out for them.

The Slanderer.

President Cleveland, in reply to a personal attack made upon him by the editor of the New York Sun, says:—"There is a line, however, it seems to me where criticism and abuse should stop. The man who invades the privacy of a family and indulges in coarse and wanton attacks on private citizens is certainly no better than a highwayman. He places himself on the level of the blackguard, and his vulgarities can have no weight with decent people." President Cleveland is closely in accord with the sentiments of Judge Rose.

Church Notes.

The Methodist Church people of Omelee, will enjoy one of Mr. and Mrs. Church's musical recitals on Tuesday, May 13th.

Fires.

On Monday last at noon the fire brigade was called out, the house of Mr. Thatcher on William street in the North Ward being on fire. As the building was beyond reach of any hydrant, it was slowly burnt to the ground. Every effort was made by the citizens who gathered round to stop the progress of the fire, but to no purpose. Most of the contents were saved, but the loss will be considerable, as we understand there was no insurance.

At about 10 a. m. yesterday the fire bells again rang out. Mr. A. D. Mallon's stable adjoining the East Ward school being found to be in flames. The building was destroyed.

The Workman Livery Stables.

Mr. Hugh Workman retires from the Workman and Son's livery stables, and the business will for the future be carried on by his sons Mr. William and James Workman. These gentlemen have been so long and favorably known in connection with the business that it is not necessary to say to the Lindsay public that every attention will be given to their wants in the livery line. First-class horses, buggies, phaetons, and carriages in general well suited for general driving, as also horses and phaetons for ladies driving always on hand. Their new and handsome cab is unsurpassed for comfort and taste. Prompt and courteous attention to customers. Remember Workman Bros., at their office in rear of the Simpson House.

Collegiate Institute.

The entertainment which will be given by the Literary Society to-morrow evening promises to be first class in every respect. A feature of the programme will be a debate, "Resolved that the influence of Greece upon the civilization of modern England has been greater than that of Rome." A. H. Grant and T. Marsh will support the affirmative, and Chas. Matthews and C. D. Cliff will talk for the negative. A splendid musical and literary programme has been prepared which will include an instrumental by Miss Gregory, and a song by Miss Silver, besides a glee by the boys' glee club, and club-swinging by the young ladies. The public may expect that this entertainment will be up to the mark as all the Collegiate Institute entertainments have been in the past. Mr. Stevens, the president will take the chair at 8 o'clock.

Adjourned Council Meeting.

Business was resumed Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, all the members being present.

Council went into committee of the whole on a by-law to amend by-law No. 495, appointing municipal officers for 1890; and a by-law to amend all previous by-laws regulating the market. Consideration of the respective clauses occupied close upon three hours, and the discussion was very warm at times. For the office of chief constable Dep. reeve Lennon moved, seconded by Coun. Constock that, Mr. Thos. Bell be reappointed. Coun. Crandell, seconded by Reeve Williams, moved in amendment that Chief Bell's resignation be accepted, and that the chairman of the police committee be instructed to advertise for a suitable person to fill the position. The remarks made upon the respective motions were delivered earnestly, impressively and with a great deal of feeling, but space will not permit of their presentation. Both motions were finally dropped and one substituted leaving the appointment undecided, which was carried. The office of street overseer was dispensed with, and hereafter the town engineer will have charge of this department. Mr. Cornelius Callaghan was appointed market clerk at salary of $325 per annum. The market by-law will go into force on the 31st of April. Council then adjourned.

Dr. Wad-EI-Ward's Lecture.

Dr. Wad-EI-Ward lectured in the Cambridge street Methodist church on Monday and Tuesday evenings to large audiences. The Dr. is a native of Jerusalem and a convert to Christianity. He is a man of wide learning of pleasing address, is gifted with a fund of rich humor which he uses with discretion, and has a command of the English language remarkable for one who has acquired it by study. No more interesting lectures have been listened to in Lindsay for many a day, and all who have not heard Dr. Wad-EI-Ward should avail themselves of the first opportunity to do so. The doctor appears in the costume of his country and is accompanied by his wife who also appears in the dress of the Jewish women, and assists at the close of each lecture in singing with her husband the songs of several nationalities, a very interesting part of the entertainment. To Bible students, the lectures of Dr. Wad-EI-Ward are invaluable, the descriptions of the life, customs and manners of the Jews being such as can not be obtained from books, and can only be given by one who has been born and has lived in Palestine. Many obscure passages of the Bible are made clear in the doctor's lectures, that have been a puzzle and a stumbling-block to many, and the explanations are so apt and well expressed as to make them entertaining as well as profitable. The doctor lectured to a large audience in the Queen street Methodist church last evening.

Alderville Indian Schools.

To the Editor of The Watchman. DEAR SIR:—Though not a reader of your paper myself, I would beg the privilege of saying a few words in its columns concerning our Alderville Indian Village. Just two years ago our present missionary, Rev. Mr. Lawrence, came amongst us both as missionary and teacher of our Indian school. In a very little while we saw that the grade of instruction imparted was thorough and efficient. A year ago this last winter, when John Dougal & Son of the Montreal Witness offered various prizes amounting to $1500 in all for the best written essays in the Dominion written by the scholars of the schools throughout the same, he induced two of the pupils of the school, Miss Katie Franklin, and his son Arthur, to write in the competition. Imagine our surprise when we ascertained that the prize for the County of Northumberland was awarded to Miss Katie Franklin, and a special prize to Master Arthur. But then the matter did not end there. It was announced that when all the stories had been read by the public as published in the Witness, that three prizes would be given to whichever three stories the readers would pronounce by their vote to be the best. For this purpose coupons were sent out to all subscribers of the Witness the world over, on which to record and return their votes. Imagine our surprise to find out that those prizes were awarded as follows: 1st., Miss Katie Franklin, 2nd. Master Arthur Lawrence, both of Alderville, and 3rd. Miss Lizzie McKay of Woodstock. Thus in our Indian schools we scored two out of three in the whole Dominion, which we deem very creditable for an Indian school. That Mr. Lawrence's pupils appreciate his faithfulness in his work they have given substantial proof in the fact that on the evening of Thursday of last week they assembled at his house and presented him with a beautiful address, accompanied by a beautiful watch, an Appleton Tracy movement in a silver case, to which the Reverend gentleman rendered on the following Sabbath morning a suitable and appreciative reply.

WILLIAM LUKES, Sec. Indian Council. Alderville, April 26th 1890.

The Celebrated Blackfoot Chief Joins the Great Majority.

WINNIPEG, April 27.—A telegram from Blackfoot Crossing announces the death of Crow Foot, Chief of the Blackfoot nation, after an illness of only four or five days. Crow Foot was the most prominent Canadian Indian of this generation, and possessed great influence over his people. He invariably was friendly to the whites, and during the recent rebellion kept his tribe loyal, although they were solicited to join Riel and his red allies. Crow Foot had passed the allotted three score and ten. He made his will and gave away all his horses, recommended his people to imitate the white man and work on their lands, and asked that his brother, Three Bulls, should succeed to the chieftainship. Crow Foot's last words were to express his thanks to Hon. Mr. Dewdney for kindness shown him and to ask for a continuance of that sympathy to his people. Crow Foot's funeral to-day was attended by the Indian department officials and about 800 Indians. It appears that on the 24th inst. he went into a swoon and was supposed to be dead by his medicine man. His best horse was shot before the tepee for his use in the happy hunting ground. Four hours after he revived, and had something to eat. He also had a smoke, and then he told his relatives and people not to mourn or cry. He lived until Friday at 3 p. m. He was laid in state on the burial ground from Saturday morning till 4 o'clock to-day, when the funeral took place. All his medals and presents received during his visit east were on view. The coffin was a very large one, all covered with black cashmere, and Crowfoot's name was written on the top in big letters made with brass tacks. Rev. Mr. Doucet recited prayers for the dead and all was over.

Mammoth White Carrot Seed at Higinbotham's. 16-3.

The traffic receipts of the Grand Trunk railway for the week which ended on the 19th inst. amounted to $387,037, an increase of $26,347 over the receipts for the corresponding week last year.

Fifty Thousand Dollars WORTH OF GOODS TO BE SLAUGHTERED.

Grand Amalgamation Sale. We have four stores full of goods which have to be amalgamated into one at an early date, and in order to accomplish this we are going to sell at prices which will enable us to reduce this amount to half its present size. On the first of April we commence in Bradburn & Co's old stand, opposite Perrin's drug store, to sacrifice these goods.

E. E. W. McCAFFEY.

IN THE CITY STORE,

SOOTHERAN & CO'S OLD STAND,

we will hold a big Clearing Sale under the management of LEE & McCRIMMON.

AT OAKWOOD,

Perkins & Co. will clear their stock out at cost for thirty days.

This is the largest sale of goods ever offered to the Lindsay public. Come early and secure bargains.
