Dovey Bros. new shingle mill is rapidly approaching completion.

The case of Dovey vs. F. Knowlson, arising out of the sale of shingles which were destroyed by fire, is before Justice Street yesterday, and resulted in a verdict for the defendant.

Mr. Jos. Rickaby, who has been at work grafting trees in the orchards and parks of this locality, for several weeks past, states that the prospects are good.

A line of barb wire extending from the fence to a tree, near the Francis school, has been the cause of severe injury to several pupils, and is exceedingly dangerous.

The June session of the county council will probably be presented that august body by the fruit dealers and grocers of Lindsay, praying that an increased tax be placed on produce.

Contractor White has several men at work overhauling and making alterations in the premises at the corner of Kent and William-sts., shortly to be occupied by Mr. B. J. Gough as a palace clothing store.

Monday, May 31st, instead of the usual meeting of the Church Women's Temperance Society, in St. Paul's schoolroom, Mr. J. J. Keiso of Toronto will deliver an address on child-saving work, illustrated with lantern slides.

The London Daily News, now closing its first year, is one of the newest and best edited exchanges on our list, and a credit to the "Old Country."

A resident of Stouffville recently purchased wall paper at a departmental store in the city, spending some $18 or so in such manner.

The Rev. John McAvish, father of Mrs. Dr. McKay of Woodville, and well known to many of our leading citizens, died at Inverness, Scotland, on May 12th.

On the evening of the 24th a dozen or two of the boys of the north ward celebrated their birthday in a truly loyal style.
