8

EAU

from

COAL and WOOD, Fresh Mined Coal all kinds of Wholesale and Retail, and Dry Wood, Long and Short, Delfto any part of the town, Cheap and also Fresh Lime always kept in Stock. Telephone i both Offices.

R. BRYANS.

VOL UME 1, NUMBER 23

LINDSAY, THURSDAY, JUNE 28, 1888.

WATCHMAN

Printing Office,

BAKER'S BLOCK, LINDSAY.

The WATCHMAN is published every Thursday morning, at 50 cents per Annum in A lvance.

ALL KINDS OF

Neatly Executed and at the LOWEST CITY PRICES.

J. COOPER,

Editor and Proetoprir.

Professional Cards.

OHN McSWEYN BARRISTER. SOLICITOR, etc. Office in Hamilton's Block, side Kent-St., Lindsay, Ont.

D. MOORE. BARRISTER, AT-TORNEY, Solicitor and Notary Public ONEY TO LOAN. Office, Kent-St., Lindsay. JARTIN & HOPKINS, BARRIS-TERS, Etc. MONEY TO LOAN at low- LANDS. t Current rates. Office, Thirkell's Block, Kent-St.

JUDSPETH & JACKSON, BAR-RISTERS, Solicitors, etc. Office William-St., DAM HUDSPETH, Q. C, ALEX. JACKSON. Fifteen and 20 years and never required B. Dean, BARRISTER, SOLI-ITOR, Proctor, Notory Public, Conveyancer, Offices in Bigelow's Block, Corner York & Kent Entrance on York Street, Lindsay, Ont. over Ontario Bank, Kent-St., Lindsay. T. STEWART.

P. DEVLIN, BARRISTER, SO-LICITOR, etc., County Crown Attorney, eark of Peace, Lindsay, Ont. Office over Howe's

ERS Attoneys at Law, Solicitors in Chancery a, &c. Office, Dohney Block, Kent street. RTHUR O'LEARY. HUGH O'LEARY. DARRON & CAMPBELL, BAR-D RISTERS, Solicitors &c. Office, Kent St.,

Physicians.

R. DEGRASSI, PHYSICIAN,

W L. HERRIMAN, M. D. M. C. P.

& S. Kg. Office and residence Cambridge-Lindsay, opposite Baptist Church, R. BURROWS, PHYSICIAN, URGEON, Etc. Office and residence oppos-S. M. D. C. M., Graduate McGill College, 1866

DRS. COULTER. and HOOD, vsicians, and Surgeons. Office and residence per of Russell and York-Sts. Office hours: 9 30 a.

L. R. C. P. 1 ng.

Business Cards.

MONEY TO LOAN.

COMPANIES' & PRIVATE FUNDS TO LOAN AT LOWEST RATES. orrower to pay off any sum on account H. B. DEAN, Barrister, Solicitor, &c., Corner of York & Kent Streets, Lindsay.

MONEY TO LOAN. AT LOWEST CURRENT RATES,

INTEREST PAYABLE YEARLY Terms to suit borrower. McINTYRE & STEWART, Barristers and etc., Lindsay.

THE Century Magazine

the November, 1997, Issue that a regular circu- At Dennis' Pump Works. of almost 250,000. The war Papers and the Life

Lincoln in the War, e writers now enter on the more important part of Supplementary War Papers, "battle series" by distinguished generals, cresting features of army life, tunneling om Libby Prison, narrative of personal adventure, etc. eral Sherman will write on "The Grand Strategy

Kennan on Siberia. Except the Life of Lincoln and the war Articles no tant series has ever been undertaken by THE ary than this of Mr. Kennan's. With the previous ur' travel and study in Russia and Siundertook a journey of 15 000 miles the Russian Minister of the Interior adsted him to the principal mines and prisons, where he came acquainted with some three hundred State Nihilists, and others, and the series Full News from all quaters, The many illustrations by the artists rapher, Mr. George A. Frost, who accom-author, will add greatly to the value of the

A novel by Eggleston ith illustrations will rtn through the year. Shorter lovels will follow by Cable and Stockton. Shorter fic-

Miscellaneous Features. charles De Key; papers touching the field of Sunday illustrated by E. L. Wilson; wild rais, by Mrs. Van Renselaer, with illustrations by DAILY Dr. Buckley's valuable papers on Dreams, lism, and Chairvoyance: essays in criticism, art By a special offer the numbers for the past year tontaining the Lincoln history) may be secured with the years subscription from November, 1807 twenty has handsomely hand for $6.00 or with the last year's number handsomely handsome handsomely bound for $7.50.

Published by THE CENTURY Co. 33 East 17 Street

Plain And Fancy Job Printing,

THE ABOVE CUT REPRESENTS SIX FRONT TEETH WITHOUT A PLATE. If you want a beautiful SET of TEETH, that will last you a lifetime, go to NEE-

GAS and VITALIZED AIR

Administered constantly for nearly twen-CINTYRE & STEWART, BAR- ty-one years, extracting teeth for thousands of persons without a particle of pain OFFICE-Kent Street, Next Door to

C'LEARY & O'LEARY, BARRIS- THE RIGHT PLACE

____TO GET____

Papers, Picture Frames, For Coughs, Colds, Hoarse-Self-Rolling Window Shades and Picture Hanging Mouldings is at

Wm. A. Goodwin's, 25 CTS., AT

near the market.

NEW GOODS! NEW PRICES.

Lindsay, Jan. 16, 1887.

W. H. Gross, DENTIST LINDSAY,

Twenty-Eight Years' Experience. MR. GROSS is constantly adding Imsithont expense. Interest yearly. All payments provements and New Appliances with a view of making every operation as near painless as possible. If you want your teeth taken out ABSOLUTELY WITH-OUT PAIN, and a set of Artificial Teeth

> W. H. GROSS: ALL KINDS OF

that will never wear out, go to

Willow Work

MADE TO ORDER, AND CANE CHAIRS RESEATED, J. H. L. DENNIS. Lindsay Street.

THE new Conservative Journal started

The Empire

Has made its appearance. And no pains are being spared to make the paper worthy of Canada, and of the great party of whose views it will be the exponent. It has started with a STAFF OF BRILLIANT WRITERS. And able Journalists in every department.

The public may expect Able Editorials.

Fair Comments, Reliable Commercial News Interesting Sporting Intelligence And all other Departments well sustained. In short, The Empire will be a Bright, Readable, and Reliable Paper.

panied by the cash. Address,

Everybody Looks for it.

CHOICEST LINES OF

Groceries, Crockery, Glassware,

With this issue of the WATCHMAN we extend to its But she can work, "God bless our home" readers many thanks for the cordial support given us since comShe does not bang her hair or fuzz it; mencing business, and invite all our old customers to give us a And yet the simple way she "does" it; continuance of the same. Hoping many readers who have not yet given us any trade will now do so at the commencement of the New Year. Give us a trial.

We keep the nicest goods, and have the Handsomest

China Tea Sets, Dinner Sets,

and Chamber Sets, Ever offered in Lindsay. Excellent value in TEAS and SU-Numbers of persons are wearing Teeth GARS, SYRUPS, RAISINS, CURRANTS, &c.

GRAHAM & LEE.

WHITE

Pine Balsam,

Bronchitis, Asthma, &c.

Gentle Reader

Allow me to Remind You

COUCH & COLD REMEDIES

IN THE MARKET, and is very efficient In curing that little tickling Cough that lingers after MEASLES HICINBOTHAM'S Drug Store.

OLD English Condition Powder.

Recommended by JosephS taples, Manvers, Geo. Werry, Fenelon, Eugene Fee, Lindsay,

George Skuce Ops, and thousands of others. Don't allow anything else to be palmed off on you for there is

No Powder Like It, And can be had in Lindsay only at HICINBOTHAM'S Drug Store. 25 Cents Each, or Five for $1.00.

GREAT SALE OF

NO HUMBUG!

New Paper. POSITIVE FACT

50 Bed Room Sets and 300 Beds, with a large assortment of Sideboards, Bureaus, &c., to be Accurate Reports.

Accurate Reports.

A Valuable Cocanul Tree.

A Valu Send in your Subscriptions now, accom- Superior finish.

Poetrn.

My Dora. Let others rave of beauteous maids, Of rose-bud mouth and teeth like pearls Of dimpled cheeks and flashing eyes— "Such stunning girls!"
My Dora in her simple dress,

My Dora (whom may heaven bless!) Is good enough for me. My Dora has no scal-skin sacque, No forty dollar Paris bonnet; She wears a little turned up hat-A feather on it.

The Jersey jacket, soft and warm
That hugs so tight her pretty form Is good enough for me. Let other girls sew crazy quilts And cover rolling pins with plush, Embroider unknown breeds of dogs— And-let'em "gush!" The home-made bread my Dora makes,

he does not know the latest craze

Æsthetic yearnings" in her breast, I know have never found a place; Contentment sits upon her brow-And she says vase, And though her love she will not speak, The peach-bloom blush that stains

Is good enough for me. And when she leaves this world below, And journeys to the unknown land, I only ask that I may go And hold her hand I shall not fear, for this I know, That any place where Dora'll go · Literature.

Is good enough for me.

The Lost Son of Ichabod Arm-

stood at the period of which I now write direction the rugged, rocky land and abfamilies, who starved on their rocky you that use it so freely and lightly?" it. But reason did not operate. It only when you go back to the office you open your tions. There was a lawn in front of the land here and there, from which every give.

stone had been carefully picked, indicated the ability of the farm in the way of clover and timothy, while in the summer time many garden spots, rich with waving grain, lit up the otherwise dark and sombre aspect of the four hundred acres which were included within the farm of where I shall find-Ichabod Armstrong. Some men might with plausibility intuition the old elder knew what was maintain actions against their parents the woman's wish when she entered; and for damages sustained by reason of acts when a hastily-warmed supper had been at the baptismal ceremony. Why he was set before the mother and child, he callcalled Ichabod no one could explain, ed his wife out into the next room, and about thirteen cubic feet of air each hour.

Ret assuming that your nor his mother or father any more found her heart full of the same idea Supposing then that a patient and nurse But, assuming that you have given no careful reading to the history of that period tion of selecting a Scripture name, and "She had such soft brown eyes" said that there was something about this that the old lady. struck her fancy. Certainly she had no idea that the glory of his family was lessened by his birth. But those who knew him forgot his name; and at the period of which we now write he had grown to be an old man, having followed in the footsteps of his fathers, and under his culture the old farm had vastly improved, while there was much other manifest good that the world had derivthere was more good deeds of Ichabod that child of yours F'

manner superior to the ordinary course, in those days, with the sons of farmers speak of, then. You will stay with her How shall air be changed? "Doors are it was said that he traveled for several of it. Take off your shawl and bonnet." In a hospital this may not be so necessary the half educated reporter who took down it was said that he traveled for several years. But after his patents' death he returned and took charge of the farm, and was soon married to a young lady in no one present to appreciate, when the mother appeared in her simple and poor many disadvantages of small hedrooms.

In a nospital this may not be so necessary the half educated reporter who took down the famous quotation, "Amicus Plato, amicus stove does not. Few people catch cold in bed if the temperature is right. There are many disadvantages of small hedrooms." the neighborhood, whom, rumor said, he mother appeared in her simple and poor many disadvantages of small bedrooms. wars, transcribed it, "I may cuss Plato, I may cuss Socrates, said Major Verrytus," had loved in former years, and would dress. A broad forehead was marked Fresh air is not necessarily cold air. You and who later inquired whether this Maj. have married but for her parents' objectabout the temples with lines of can bring air in through another room and Verrytus was of the regular army or the in youth and at college, and their object the child's deep brown, almost to blacktions, perhaps, well founded. However ness, and its glance, though restless and that may have been, the love of maturer roving, was, nevertheless, thoughtful, much more important to a sick person, who years was none the less ardent or faithful and indicative of a soul within. It is cannot leave his quarters, that the air and they lived together on the farm for not every eye that shows a soul. forty or fifty springs and autumns, alone When the old man read the words of but not lonely, and, meanwhile. the oak Holy Writ, she listened with devout at-

Every one loved him. Not infre ing her dark eye was as calm as if she quently he was called on to occupy the had slept serenely all the hours. desk in front of the pulpit, when the old | All the perliminaries were readily arof late, and a sense of lonesomeness began to creep over them both.

"You have worked too hard at the commanding her in his firm and gentle SOMETHING NEEDED BESIDES QUICK are growing old."

ber that hand when we were young, "It was smooth on the back then."

done it all, my husband."

book or note, sitting in the firelight of and more joyful scenes, she went from you are to report have drawn their supplies. the Saturday night, and their voices the dark wintry night that was wailing For example, you study shorthand, and at were audible out on the lawn, and even around the farmhouse into light and last, after eighteen months of industrious them and paused.

listened to the music. A sudden im trustfulness of old age. pulse appeared to seize the mother, and Ichabou Armstrong's mind now began

That this is one of the Grandest possessions. No house was within a mile of the Rocky Glen farm, but around I was brought up to reverence it, though pented it afterward wet he wood land "Oh! not freely, neither lightly, for exasperated the old man. He even note book and discover that here are dozens mile of the Rocky Glen farm, but around sadly have I fogotten it in these late pented it afterward, yet he used langiven any time to reading up the ante-revoyears. I am poor, homeless, and a wan- guage so harsh as to bring tears to her lution history of these United States. In that derer. My child is my all. I am dying eyes. She ceased to talk with him; but case you may write out your notes after a

> "Speak on. What was it?" if you please, and we will go on; a crust at one of the best colleges in the counof bread, a cup of water." "Where are you going?" To-to- The good God knows he found his way almost daily out to the

She paused, and a violent fit of tremaround her shoulders, and making the ment of air, and the vapor of the breath child ready for the road. "Sit down a moment," said the old room. man solemnly. They both obeyed. "My good woman, my wife and I are aged and alone. The world has gone we grow old and cold. We want com-I say much other manifest good; and pany and love. Will you part with "You consent? There is much to regarding these laws. in Orange County; and after graduating, here to-night, and to-morrow we wil talk made to shut' windows are made to open." tions. He had been in fact a wild boy aristocratic beauty. Her eyes was like

That was a solemn night at the Rocky carbolic acid, etc., do no good. As Ichabod grew old he grew to feel- Glen farm, and there was little sleeping ing deeply his responsibility as a man; done within the old house. The aged and when he was elected an elder in the couple, resting in their own room, had church at—, he seemed to be unable for much to think of the future, and many pearances within the sick chamber add to tre lapses take place. Even a great living a while to bear the load thus placed on anxious and troubled thoughts. The the confusion of mind produced by sick-tenor has been known to retire in the middle him. But time, and a good stout soul, full of faith and hope and reverent humility, sustained him, and his heart grew more sustained him, and his heart grew more of the long him. Bitter prayers were lamps at night should be so disposed that such as the long lamps at night should be so disposed that such as the long lamps at night should be so disposed that such as the long lamps at night should be so disposed that such as the long lamps at night should be so disposed that such as the long lamps at night should be so disposed that such as the long lamps at night should be so disposed that such as the long lamps at night should be so disposed that such as the long lamps at night should be so disposed that such as the long lamps at night should be so disposed that lamps at night and more affectionate, earnest and pure. hers, and yet hopeful; and in the morn-clergyman was absent or ill; and it was ranged, and the mother's story was conpleasant, beyond descripition, to hear fided to the old elder's ear, who carefully wrote it down for preservation.

They accordingly sent to distant rela- turned. Her father died. She was it makes the best potash for soap. tives who had many children, and asked poor, homeless, starving with her child, peculiar process of fermentation, good vinefor one of their boys; and the boy came. She lived in an inhospitable neighbor- gar can be obtained from it, and also a fair for one of their boys; and the boy came. But he was a wild, turbulent youth, and the old man had not strength to manage erty, she took her child by the hand and erty derived from Portuguese word cocoa and the English word nut. Cocoa means an ugly him, and, after a year's trial, sent him wandered away in search of some dis- mask, and is said to have been given seeking the father of her child. But the good elder interposed. Doubtless his "Sarah, I am some way restless, and keen eye saw that she would not jour-I think not quite well this evening," said ney far before her feeble strength would fail her forever, and even while he was threshing, Ichabod; you are not as able voice to remain with her child, the exto swing a flail as you used to be. We citement of the thought produced another of those nervous fits of trembling "Yes, that is it, I suppose. We are which indicated her exceeding weakness, getting to be old folk. Do you remem- and she yielded and remained.

A fortnight later she was dying. The winter winds were howling around the old house when she was departing. The to reach 130 words (and those words in com-"It is rough, brown, and wrinkled now." scene within strangely contrasted with mon use) a minute, only four in 100 to touch "God's sun, and winds, and work have that out of doors; for a calm, an indesthe verbatim speed line (they being limited to "Ay—so. Let us thank Him. We that out of doors; for a calm, an indescribable peace was on the mother's fore head, and in her heart, and with a long ment of speech ment of speech, technical or have lived long and happily. It is Sa- look into the eyes of her child a kiss of classic, as well as general or popular? The parting joy and agony, a smile of grati- answer is, that you may combine dexterity It was curious to hear those two old tude to the old elder, and a single glance great, and then you will fail to reach the full stature of an expert verbatim reporter unless It was curious to hear those two old tude to the old elder, and a single glance of finger and mental quickness, however broken; and as they had sung together even then closed forever on the scenes you have read, marked, learned and inwardly for fifty years, they sang now, without of earth, and opened forever on other digested volumes upon volumes of the same

We pass over a period of six years, She was a woman, young, with much during which the inhabitants of the of her young beauty still left about her. Rocky Glen farm grew older—one to and transcribe it correctly. Now you are She led by the hand a little girl of twelve the beauty of girlhood and womanhood happy, and you will go to the nearest editor years old, who paused with her and and the others to the weakness and and say: "I am ready for big work; I can she entered the gate and hastened up to give indications of a pecularity which are engaged as a shorthand reporter. Then the lawn, dragging the surprised child, proved not a little painful to his wife suppose your first assignment is to give a as if she feared her resolution might give and daughter; for such was the title In one of the wildest, sections of She pushed open the door of the old by the name of her adopted father, that attend, and the lecturer begins with a few by the name of her adopted father, that Orange County, in the State of New kitchen, and entered where the aged of her mother being generally unknown.

This pocularity consisted in a fear that —in lonesome beauty, shaded by two God, will you, who sing his praise, help him, and a determination on his part that this should never occur. For a way for 1776. He mentions their places of "Let that name never be pleaded in year or two Kate laughed gayly vain under this roof," was the calm enough at this; but then there was a letters extensively. You follow him in short answer of the old man; "but who are charge, and she sought to reason against hand, and you think you have got him. But house, on which grew fruit-trees, such as are usually found nearest the house. I passed along the road, and I dared age, which now grew more and more A fine orchard was on a hillside and over book then I down so that the bear and the book and over book then I down so that the bear and the book and the hilltop close by. Patches of smooth know now, than I dare ask or you could mind that he became nearly insane, and talked furiously of Kate's ingratitude. The young man was a son of Mr. Irving, work no good whatever. "No. It is too much. A little food, the clergyman, who had been educated try, and was now a law-student in the

To be Concluded.

Hints to Nurses. Absolutely fresh air in a sick room is as necessary as food and medicine, and often proclamations in the name of the king; then more so. In the ordinary process of re- he will go on and tell what such American spiration an adult person breathes over leaders as Cadsden, Laurens, Rutledge, Lynch are in a room and without ventilation, it careful reading to the history of that period, They talked a little while, and on their these people would have to consume the air that had once been through the lungs, return to the kitchen found the mother and from which had been abstracted about already gathered her thin, but clean shawl four per cent. of its oxygen or vital ele-

and the disease germs still remain in the But it is not simply by the breath that the air is vitiated, for the EXHALATIONS FROM THE BODY. well with us, but it grows lonesome as always unwholesome, and especially so during most sicknesses, contribute more than you would believe to the vitiation of air. It must also be taken into consider-Armstrong which were not manifest The question was abrupt, and startled to the sickroom is not perfectly pure. ation that in most cases the air admitted Cook's lectures without enough previous readhere, but which will one day be made brilliant in the eyes of those who despised nim in his humility.

The question was abrupt, and startled the mother. "Oh, Sir!" said she, "you have divined my thoughts. It was for that I came in. I so longed to leave the section is not perfectly pure. This is especially so in cities. It is therefore all the more necessary that the air should be often renewed. You must system that I came in. I so longed to leave the section is not perfectly pure. This is especially so in cities. It is therefore all the more necessary that the air should be often renewed. You must system after dispersent the section is not perfectly pure. This is especially so in cities. It is therefore all the more necessary that the air should be often renewed. You must system that I came out to see where you will come out. Go and a person had been sleeping for even a short | will always be true that a stream can rise no should be thoroughly changed Do not leave anything standing in a sick the word "oblivion," which he took to be a room that can vitiate the air. Milk must word unfit for the family circle, was not es-

WARM IT THERE.

Do not turn a lamp down low. Do not leave half-washed clothes or clothing to evaporate into the air. the objects first seen by the patient on sudden forgetfulness took place in one of the ion the speaker gave a few hints regarding funiture, the manner of making the bed and the clothing to be used on the bed

50 Cents a Year in Advance. back with a present and an apology to tant relatives, and perhaps her husband. cause the end of a cocoanut looks like a Having finished her story, she pre- monkey's face. Last year 360,000 cocoa-The evening after the old couple were pared to go, and embracing her child nuts were brought to this market, the averagain left alone they were seated by the large hearth fire silent as was their wont lie age wholesale price being four cents apiece. It is expected that the figures this season

SHORTHAND WRITERS.

FINGERS AND WITS.

The Rocks Upon Which the "Shorthand" Reporter May Split-Difficulties Which Arise When Notes Are to Be Transcribed-Ludierous Errors. Now, why will you only get five men in 100 from the daily newspaper or some handy kind, you will be sized up as good for office work, dictation, and the five for a quarter brand of public meetings, but on important

Stenographic skill alone can take down words, but it requires the something more which we call general intelligence to write city. During his frequent visits at home them out properly. That general intelligence is only possible to the man who has, as Bill Nye would say, "oiled up his thinker" with oil drawn in liberal quantity from standard literature of all kinds. The lecturer on the ante-revolution period will perhaps talk of the Townshend acts of 1767, of Governor Sharpe, of Maryland, and Gov-would not take many hours to breath all how can you transcribe your notes, no matter the air up once, and the remaining time how faithfully they were taken, so as to save yourself from grotesque errors of spelling, if of nothing worse? Your notes say "Governor Sharp," but will you omit that final "ef" Very likely you will, because you don't know any better. Will you write it out Governor "Montagu," or "Montague?" Will you write "Laurens," as it should be, or "Lawrence," as it should not be? Will you surely spell Pinckney with the "c" before the "k?" Will you write "Routledge," or "Rutledge?" If you are without any previous reading on this subject you are just as Illustrations might be multiplied without end. Go and try to report one of Joseph that I came in. I so longed to leave should be often renewed. You must systematically change it, knowing laws of report some after dinner speeches of a society of scholars, and let there be a few Latin quosupply and demand and the danger of dis- of scholars, and let there be a few Latin quo-Did you ever go into a small room where things just as absurd have happened. It never heard you cannot know, and that what you don't know you can't tell anybody. The Boston newspaper owner who threatened trees over the house grew very old, and tention; and when he prayed, a low, of burning coffee, rags and pastiles. Open duced to the word "oblivion" before, and at dishes with evaporating solutions, such as first sight it had a nasty look to him; that was all .- James W. Clarke in The Writer,

The Tenor Forgot His Lines.

る litated, cas Trilind and sins upon dache, akness society,

Effects
mption on No. 23 a outhful a old and c Brain a system physical r specific cured in cured in cured in thirty sks treatour specPrivate standintee to Medicine

E85