Doings About Town.

Lacrosse Match.

A match game of lacrosse was played between the Port Hope and Lindsay lacrosse clubs on Tuesday, and resulted in a victory for Lindsay by three games to one.

Diplomas Conferred.

We are pleased to notice that in the closing exercises of the Ontario Ladies College, Whitchurch, degrees of M. L. A. were conferred on three young ladies from Lindsay—Miss Gregory, Miss Blackwell, and Miss Mark.

The Illustrated Buffalo Journal.

We are in receipt of the last number of this excellent illustrated journal. It contains some beautiful plates of prize animals, as well as other subjects. Its article on "Bicycles" should be read by every "wheelman."

The Tacoma World.

We have received several copies of this journal, which is a beautifully printed weekly published at Tacoma, Washington Territory, by a company, the manager of which is a Lindsay. The world has publishe some finely exectuted views of Tacoma and neighboring scenery, which no doubt will be very beneficial to that rising town.

Celebration and Pic-Nic.

St. Mary's Church Annual Pic-Nic will take place in the Agricultural Park on Monday, the 2nd inst. A splendid programme has been prepared, including all kinds of sports and prizes amounting to $250 will be awarded. No doubt an immense crowd will be present.

Local Fairs.

The County Council have determined to throw open the Farmers' association of fairs have resolved to keep them before the public during this year, and if there is any virtue in printer's ink, the Fair must become an established institution. Let the farmers take advantage of this opportunity of selling buying and trading.

C. P. Telegraph Co.

Mr. Marshall, Inspector of the Canadian Pacific Telegraph Co., was in town on Wednesday evening, entering the entrance route for the winter of the new Telegraph Co.

Mr. H. F. Fugle, Superintendent, followed by hydro 200 ft and high voltage.

Taking his seat from Posta Epistle to the Roman, chap. 14, verse 17. "For none of us can say we have overcome him, but he who has betrayed us. He was very much grieved that his parents in Philadelphia had not been notified.

At the police court this morning the room was filled. Mr. O'Meara pleaded for the witness, and it was taken and the case was enlarged until 4:30 this afternoon.

When he was taken up to the jail on Saturday, he looked around him, admiring the place and remarked to the chief.

"This would be a fine place to sleep in."

At the court this morning he again appeared, a regular seriousness of his face, and inquired anxiously regarding the condition of the wounded man.

On the way down from the jail on Saturday, he was met by his attorney, Mr. Hamilton, who had been retained by the police, and he was very much grieved that his parents in Philadelphia had not been notified.
