Farewell Supper. A complimentary farewell supper was tendered to Mr. A. E. Gibson, the popular young ledger-keeper in the Dominion Bank on the occasion of his departure for Scotland, on a two months leave of absence. The supper was held at the Waverley House, and it is needless to say that the spread was first-class in every respect. Mr. Gibson's many friends assembled in full force to do honor to one of the most gentlemanly and obliging of our bank clerks. The excellent bill of fare having been duly discussed, the evening was spent in speech and song, and at an early hour—in the morning—the gathering dispersed after wishing the guest of the evening bon voyage and a safe return. The boys are a unit in declaring that they had indeed "a very large time." The events of the evening's jovial pleasure will long be remembered as one of the most pleasing affairs of the season.

The Keeve Robbery. The police have succeeded in tracing the perpetrators of the robbery of Mrs. Keeve's jewellery store on Kent street. Patrick O'Keefe was arrested in Toronto last Friday as one of the guilty parties, four of the watches stolen being found in his possession. O'Keefe is now in the goal here. Three of the stolen watches were found in under a fence in the East Ward. A young chap named O'Grady hurriedly left town on hearing of the arrest of O'Keefe. There are several others suspected of complicity in the robbery. The police will no doubt bring all the guilty parties to justice.

Masonic. On Sunday last the Masonic brethren of Lindsay, accompanied by visiting brethren from Omeme, Fenelon Falls and Mariposa attended divine service in the Cambridge street Methodist church, the Rev. Dr. Williams officiating. The procession was one of the largest of that body that has ever appeared in this town. They reached the church about 3 o'clock p. m., where there was a large gathering of the townspeople. The Rev. Dr. preached an excellent and very instructive sermon, which was apparently listened to with close attention and thoroughly appreciated. On the return of the brethren to the lodge, several brethren made brief addresses, when Bro. Miller of Omeme gave a very interesting Masonic address. Votes of thanks were passed to the visiting brethren, to Rev. Dr. Williams for his eloquent sermon, and to the choir and trustees of the church.

GLANDINE.

Special to the WATCHMAN.

ACCIDENT.—A serious accident happened at this place a few days ago. It appears as some children were going to school, they jumped on a passing wagon to get a ride. By some means Mr. R. Eagleson's little girl aged about 5 or 6 years, and a daughter of A. H. Webster fell out, injuring the former very seriously, and hurting the latter not quite so bad. However we all hope to hear of their speedy recovery, although Mr. Eagleson's child is, we are informed, very low at present.

A PAINFUL LOSS.—Our new neighbour, Mr. Foster who lives on the Naylor farm north of our village, purchased a valuable horse in the beginning of the spring. He only used it a few days when it took sick and died in a few hours.

GONE FROM US.—We are sorry to announce that our junior minister the Rev. Mr. McColl, has been appointed to another charge. We would have been pleased to have him remain for some time longer, as he was popular with all. However as the matter is decided all that can be said is, that he may be as useful in his new sphere as he was here. If he will subscribe for the WATCHMAN, he will have the pleasure of reading the most popular paper in the county, as well as be kept posted with Glandine news.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Wilson Graham and wife of Norland spent a short visit at the parental home, and attended church at this place. We are all glad to see their genial faces once more. Call often is the wish of their numerous friends.

KILLED BY INDIANS.

Robert Hardie's Sad Fate. The Los Angeles, Cal., Times, May 27th, says:—Yesterday morning the sad news of the killing of Robert Hardie, Esq., in Arizona on Saturday, was made public in this city. Mr. Hardie, who was a prominent young attorney of this city and had an office in Temple block, left with his brother-in-law, Dr. F. L. Haynes, for Arizona for his health and to take a rest. The first intimation anyone had of his fate was on Sunday evening, when Dr. W. W. Beckett received the following despatch from Tombstone Ariz:—

Robert killed instantly by Indians. Unmutilated. I am not hurt. Will be home with body Tuesday evening.

FRANCIS L. HAYNES. Dr. Beckett at once made his way to Mr. Hardie's residence, No. 920 South Main street, where Mrs. Hardie and her infant son were found. The lady had had no intimation of her husband's terrible fate, and was completely prostrated when the doctor made her acquainted with the contents of the telegram. Every effort to get more details of the killing proved fruitless, and nothing was said about the matter until yesterday morning, when the following press despatch reached this city:—

THE DETAILS. TOMBSTONE, Ariz., May 26.—Ten days ago Robert Hardie, of Los Angeles, accompanied by Dr. F. L. Haynes, of Philadelphia, left here for a trip in Chiricahua mountains, and stopped at Mike Gray's house, Rucker Canon. Yesterday morning word was received that he had been killed by Indians, and shortly the body arrived, also Dr. Haynes.

The coroner's inquest showed that Hardie and Haynes were riding along the trail toward Gray's house, Hardie in front about ten feet, when a volley of firearms was heard. Hardie reeled in the saddle, falling backward off the horse. Haynes, thinking he was mistaken for the animal, went to his assistance, and saw he was dead, when he went back to his horse. When about to mount, another shot was fired, killing his horse.

Being unarmed, he started to run, and on looking back saw an Indian following, who raised his rifle and fired at him, but missed. Dr. Haynes kept running and caught Hardie's horse and escaped to Gray's house. Four men went to the scene of the killing. Hardie's watch and pocketbook were gone, but the body was not mutilated. No doubt but the murderers are San Carlos Apache Indians.

GEO. E. MEEK. [Robert Hardie was son of the late Rev. R. Hardie, methodist minister, and brother of Miss Hardie that taught at one time in Lindsay. Ed.]
